2011 DETROIT LIONS
EXECUTIVES AND COACHING

WILLIAM CLAY FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN

In an age where ownership changes and franchise moves in professional sports have become alarmingly commonplace, William Clay Ford continues to provide the Detroit Lions organization, its fans and the community with unwavering stability and sound leadership.

His commitment to the franchise is imprinted on virtually every aspect of the organization. By combining one of the finest sports and entertainment venues, Ford Field, and a world-class headquarters and training environment with a strong management team, Mr. Ford has instilled the organization with the right mix of fuel that will power the further development of the entire Lions organization.

The 2009 season signaled the beginning of a new era for Detroit Lions football. Everything from the team's management all the way down to the logo on the helmet changed with the mindset to improve this franchise and compete for championships. There were considerable changes to the organization starting with Mr. Ford's promotion of Tom Lewand as team president and Martin Mayhew as general manager. Lewand oversees the direction of the organization, including business operations, and Mayhew is responsible for all football matters. Both set out to find the best coach for this team, and with Mr. Ford's blessing and endorsement, did so when the team hired Jim Schwartz, who had served as defensive coordinator for many successful Tennessee Titans teams, as the Lions' new head coach. The 2009 season also marked the first time in franchise history that the team began the season with a new general manager, new team president and new head coach.

In less than three years, those changes, along with the vision Mr. Ford set forth, are paying dividends in many ways. The Lions were one of the League's most improved teams in 2010, ending the season on a four-game win streak, and were competitive every single game. Several position units were vastly improved compared to previous seasons, and the team is led by talent that is rising among the best of the best in the NFL. This progress has been forged with tremendous effort from the front office, a coaching staff that excels in game-planning and player development, and players who are combining ability and work ethic to ensure this team is moving in the right direction.

The strong leadership team that Mr. Ford has formulated is guiding the franchise on and off the field with a plan that will elevate this team to new heights.

On the football side, Mayhew has re-vamped the team's player personnel and football operations in numerous ways and those efforts have resulted in three very successful drafts. In that time, Mayhew and the front office have worked diligently to improve the team's roster utilizing every resource from free agency and trades to the League's waiver wire.

Mayhew has worked alongside Schwartz to find players based on their shared philosophy on the types of skills that are necessary to win in the NFL. To guide those players on the field, Schwartz has built a coaching staff that is working to maximize those talents and produce game strategies to complement the players' abilities. For Schwartz, he leads with the philosophy that consistency with the coaching staff and the team schemes provides a competitive edge in the team's development.

"I am very encouraged by the improvement of our football team the past two seasons," said Mr. Ford. "While we still have a lot of work to do, I do believe we are on the right path and that we can and will achieve our goal of building the Lions into a team that annually competes for a championship.

"We have done a great job improving our roster by adding some key free agents and our last two drafts are shaping up to be two of the best in a long time. I am confident this year's draft will also produce similar results." Mr. Ford continued.

"Not only have we added quality players to our team, but we've also assembled an excellent coaching staff and that's so very critical to our future success. I am very impressed with what Jim (Schwartz) and his staff have done the past two years in developing some of our young players, and I have the utmost faith they will provide us with the coaching we need to achieve our goal of winning a championship.

"Winning is critically important to our family and to our organization. We are committed to win for our community and all of our fans. Our fans have been incredible over the years, second to none! We so appreciate their support and want nothing more than to provide our fans with a championship football team."

On the business side, Lewand continues to forge ahead with a strategic approach to make sure every element off the field impacts the team on the field. Whether it is through revenue streams generated at Ford Field, effective management of player contracts, improvement of the club's financial processes or building stronger relationships with fans and business partners, Lewand ensures that Mr. Ford's vision to become one of the best franchises in professional sports is being realized.

As it's always been with Mr. Ford, the mission is for the Detroit Lions to win a Super Bowl. Mr. Ford understands that with competitive realities of today's NFL, reaching the game's pinnacle takes a concerted organizational effort both on and off the field. While everyone appreciates the importance of the coaching staff and the front office staff, you also need the proper infrastructure, such as state-of-the-art stadium and practice facilities.

Mr. Ford's commitment was evident in the Lions' return "home" to a new downtown Detroit stadium, Ford Field, in 2002. The $500 million stadium enhanced the Lions' ability to compete in several facets of the game. In this NFL age, the revenues produced from Ford Field help level the economic playing field with the Lions' NFL counterparts.

The Ford Family and Ford Field were the overwhelming factors in Detroit being awarded the right to host Super Bowl XL in February 2006. That championship game clearly added to the city's economic landscape in numerous ways, including a $260 million boost to Metro Detroit, and the impact the Ford family had on bringing the Super Bowl to Detroit was apparent.

"We wouldn't be here if it were not for the Ford family, who led the way in developing Ford Field as a catalyst for the redevelopment of downtown Detroit, including the return of the Super Bowl to Detroit," former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue pronounced in 2006 during his annual state of the league press conference held just prior to Super Bowl XL.

"And the Ford family's leadership has certainly been a big part, not just of the NFL and NFL history, but of Detroit and our nation's history."

Ford Field has been a key cog in shaping further revitalized growth for the city of Detroit. The stadium's effect on the city continues to be comprehensive with its contributions as it hosts several events besides Lions' games.

In May 2003, the Detroit News honored Mr. Ford as a Michiganian of the Year, an annual tribute to select citizens who made significant contributions to the state or local community, as he had brought the Lions "back home" and opened Ford Field's doors to reap benefits for Detroit. In September 2005, he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

Additional confirmation of his steadfast dedication to the team was the completion of the team's $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park, Mich., that opened in April 2002 as the NFL's premier training center.

Thanks to Mr. Ford's addition of the Lions Headquarters and Training Facility, the entire organization develops year-round in a world-class environment. Both the short-term and long-term impacts are significant as the team trains under conditions second-to-none. This joint venture between the Lions and Ford Land Development Corporation provides state-of-the-art facilities for players' off-season workouts, training camp, and in-season meetings and practices.

Throughout his tenure as owner, William Clay Ford has guided the Detroit Lions organization with a sense of balance, integrity and honest leadership. Never one to seek the limelight, Mr. Ford has not sought public accolades for his many contributions to football, the automotive industry and his community.

Known as Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, his relationship with the Lions began during his childhood when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934.

He became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become the Lions' president in 1961.

In November 1963, Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million and officially took over the club January 10, 1964. The 2011 season will mark the 48th year of Mr. Ford's sole ownership of the club.

Of course, Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automotive industry, he being the only surviving grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

For the entire Ford family, 2003 marked a year of great pride and celebration as Ford Motor Company commemorated its historic 100 years as an icon in American industry.

In May 2005, Mr. Ford retired from the Board of Directors of Ford Motor Company after nearly 57 years of service. He remains director emeritus on the Board of Directors. Mr. Ford most recently served as a member of the Board of Directors and was on the company's Finance Committee, and in years past served on its Governance Committee. He had been a board member since 1948 and was chairman of the company's Design Committee from its inception in 1957 until his retirement as vice chairman in March 1989.

Utilizing his expertise in design, Mr. Ford was also on special assignment as a design consultant focusing on the Jaguar.

During his career with the company, Mr. Ford gained special satisfaction and acclaim as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939. In 1973, Mr. Ford was appointed vice president-Product Design.

Mr. Ford was elected to the Board of Directors in 1948 and began his employment at Ford following graduation from Yale University. He served several executive positions before appointment as vice president and general manager of the Continental Division in 1954. In 1956, he assumed responsibility for corporate product planning and design.

When the Design Committee of Ford's Policy and Strategy Committee was formed in 1957, Mr. Ford became the committee's first chairman, a post he held until retirement in 1989.

In 1978, Mr. Ford was elected chairman of the Executive Committee and appointed a member of the Office of the Chief Executive. He was elected vice chairman of the Board in 1980 and chairman of the Finance Committee in 1987. He retired as chairman of the Finance Committee in 1995.

The youngest of Edsel's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. Following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corp in World War II, he enrolled at Yale, where he lettered in both tennis and soccer at the Ivy League school. As a collegian, he won league tennis titles in singles and doubles, and he earned All-American honorable mention honors in soccer. In fact, he was a nationally-ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries relegated him to the sidelines. Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer, while registering a remarkable seven (7) holes-in-one over the years.

He graduated from Yale with a bachelor's of science degree in economics and then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff. He later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Ford is also chairman emeritus of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford. He is an honorary life trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, is a national trustee for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of America and honorary chair of the United Way Community Services. He is also on the Texas Heart Institute National Advisory Council. Mr. Ford received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, Calif., in 1981.

Mr. Ford's generosity as a benefactor was again recognized in 1997, as the outdoor courts of the University of Michigan's new tennis center were named in his honor. Also, a new addition to Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital (which bears the name of Mr. Ford's grandfather) opened in 1996 - The William Clay Ford Center for Athletic Medicine - which is one of the leading sports medicine treatment and research institutions in the country.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They are the parents of three daughters— Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth— and a son, William Clay Ford, Jr., who serves as the Lions Vice Chairman, in addition to his role as Executive Chairman of Ford Motor Company.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has made a positive and lasting impact on the Detroit Lions since assuming his current post of vice chairman in February 1995. He remains focused not only on creating a winner in the present, but also on ensuring success well into the 21st century, both on and off the field.

Ford shares his father's commitment and devotion to the Lions and also has a burning passion to win. He wants nothing less than for the Lions to become one of the premier franchises in the National Football League and knows that elite status includes delivering a championship to Lions fans.

"There's tremendous enthusiasm for football in this town, and I think there's a real sense of excitement about this particular team and the players know that and they feel it and they're feeding upon it.

"I think that the players themselves are very confident (about the upcoming season)," Ford said. "There's a sense on this team that we're going to be a good team and the players expect that of themselves.

"I like the fact that we're a very young team in a lot of key positions," Ford continued. "I like the fact that we also mixed with that (our youth) some great veteran leadership. I very much like both the athletic makeup of the team and also the emotional makeup of the team.

"I really like the coaching staff and their approach to it all. They're very methodical, they've had a plan from Day 1, they stuck to their plan and it's paying off."

To see Ford's influence off the field, one has to look no further than Ford Field in downtown Detroit and the team's headquarters and practice facility in Allen Park. Both are considered among the best respectively in all of sports, and were shaped by Ford's resolve for the Lions to be a leader in the NFL.

Ford's dedication and commitment to the fans was never more evident than when he spearheaded the team's stadium negotiations that led to the 1996 decision and announcement to build Ford Field. Due largely to his determination and perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the city of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation for the Lions to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

Ford's vision of a downtown stadium had perhaps its finest moment to date when it played host to Super Bowl XL in February 2006. It received extraordinary reviews by the international community.

In addition to developing new homes for the team to practice and play, Ford played a vital role in Detroit's bid for Super Bowl XL. Through his leadership, the Ford Family, the Lions and Ford Motor Company were integral in Detroit's impressive hosting of Super Bowl XL that exceeded expectations. Overall, there was a $260 million economic impact generated by Super Bowl XL, including $100 million in downtown improvements, $10 million in emerging businesses—the most in Super Bowl history—and $6 million in the NFL/Boys & Girls Club Youth Education Town—the largest in the country.

Though satisfied with progress made so far by the development of Ford Field, Ford continues to push for the stadium to become an even greater benefit to the community and its growth.

"Ford Field not only is a strategic asset in that it plays an important role for the success of the Lions, but it also is a critical piece to economic growth for the City of Detroit and this entire region because of all its events that bring hundreds of thousands of people into the city every year.

"First and foremost, as home to the Lions, Ford Field is both a dynamic and unique venue. We believe it provides our fans with the best experience in the NFL and, in turn, we expect our fans to help create the best home-field advantage in the NFL for the Lions.

"Our ability to host Final Fours and Frozen Fours, international soccer events and world-class concerts make Ford Field one of the few "must-play" venues in the nation.

"Our No. 1 priority is to provide every Ford Field patron with an unparalleled fan experience. That will always be our guiding principle and it significantly impacts everything we do."

Since the decision was made to move to downtown Detroit, Ford also wanted to provide a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium project. The $36 million Allen Park facility, which opened in April 2002, has universally been identified as one of the best facilities in the NFL. Its state-of-the-art football facilities, including an indoor practice facility with a regulation-size field, provide the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches.

In Ford's 16 years in his current role, he has helped the Lions take major steps forward on several fronts. Ford has strongly supported an active community outreach program which has been recognized as the best of any team in all of professional sports.

Through Ford's support, Detroit Lions Charities, which has awarded nearly $6 million in total donations during its 21-year history, continue to serve Detroit and the State of Michigan. Featured among the Lions' philanthropic efforts is the collaborative effort with Detroit Public Schools and Communities in Schools of Detroit to open the Detroit Lions Academy. The school, which opens its doors for its 11th year this fall, offers an alternative school environment for approximately 125 sixth, seventh and eighth grade students. Ford has been a significant supporter of the team's contribution in numerous other community programs, such as the sponsorship of the Think Detroit PAL youth football program—one of the nation's largest tackle football leagues.

Involvement in the community does not stop at the team's community outreach and charitable contributions, as Ford also emphasizes the importance in growing the game of football and the development of youth. The Detroit Lions Youth Football program is one the most extensive youth sports programs operated by a professional sports team. From numerous youth camps held statewide to coaching clinics, the goal of the program is to impact children's lives on and off the field through the game. Ford believes it is valuable to grow youth's interest in football and assist in the development of youth coaches.

Under Ford's direction, the team has launched one of the most aggressive business operations in all of sports. Many elements to this are derived primarily from events held at Ford Field and the benefits generated from both Lions games and other ancillary events. Ford ensures that every aspect of the team's business operations ultimately focus on the impact they have on the Lions' ability to win.

Over the years, Ford's leadership has generated several key business initiatives. Allowing fans greater opportunities to attend Lions games has always been a priority for the Ford Family, and that includes offering several fan-friendly ticket options that enables a larger number of fans to experience the Lions and the NFL in-person.

In 2009, the team introduced comprehensive changes to the team's brand that includes a new, fierce-looking logo and other unique branding elements. That same year the organization re-vamped the Lions merchandise operations with a strong emphasis on improving customer service.

Another area that Ford emphasizes progressive growth includes the digital and social media, which allows the team, through various mediums, to connect and communicate directly with its fans and to reach them on multiple platforms.

Since Ford assumed his role with the club, the Lions became one of the first pro sports teams to launch its own website. The team also entered into a partnership with CBS Radio (formerly Infinity Broadcasting), a relationship it extended in 2009, for the Lions' radio broadcast rights and started production on weekly radio and television shows that air throughout the season.

Beyond football events that range from the NFL all the way down to youth football, Ford Field hosts some of the largest sporting and entertainments events in the nation.

Ford Field has hosted two of the biggest events in the history of college athletics. In 2009, Ford Field hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four, a first for downtown Detroit, which shattered tournament attendance records, provided the Metro Detroit area with a $30-50 million economic boost over the weekend and provided a number of community outreach initiatives that will have a lasting impact on the city of Detroit. An example of those outreaches was the newly-created legacy program that established early learning and literacy centers in the Detroit community. Ford Field was the host site for the Midwest Regional Finals in March 2008, and the event also broke NCAA Regional and preliminary round attendance records with over 57,000 people attending each session.

In April 2010, the focus was again back on Ford Field as Detroit hosted the 2010 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four. In doing so, Ford Field became the first venue in NCAA history to host the Final Four and the Frozen Four in back-to-back years. The Frozen Four at Ford Field generated record crowds and established a new hockey indoor world attendance record.

In other past roles within the NFL structure, Ford has served on the NFL's Finance Committee and NFL Properties Committee.

Though football remains a passion for Ford, his father and his family, his top priority remains serving as Ford Motor Company's Executive Chairman. His current role is a professional and personal commitment, as he leads the company founded by his great-grandfather, American automotive pioneer Henry Ford. A member of the Board of Directors since 1988, he assumed the role of Chairman of the Board January 1, 1999. He also served as Chief Executive Officer from October 2001 through September 2006. Additionally, he serves as Chairman of the Board's Finance Committee and as a member of the Sustainability Committee.

Among his many outside leadership roles, he serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford, Chairman of the Detroit Economic Club, a Member of the Board of Directors of the Business Leaders for Michigan and Chairman of the New Michigan Initiative Committee. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of eBay.

Born in Detroit in 1957, Ford is an avid fly fisherman and car enthusiast, enjoys playing hockey and tennis, and is a black belt in the martial art of Tae Kwon Do. In his spare time, Ford competes in pond hockey tournaments and his team has claimed the USA Hockey Pond Hockey National Championship in recent years. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Princeton University and a master of science degree in management as an Alfred P. Sloan fellow from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

TOM LEWAND

PRESIDENT

Tom Lewand, who was named team president December 29, 2008, oversees the team's day-to-day operations and reports to Mr. Ford on all business, organizational and NFL matters. Now in his 17th season with the Detroit Lions, he guides the overall direction of the franchise.

Lewand's fundamental principle is to consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction.

Among his responsibilities, Lewand is the chief player contract negotiator and he oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sales and marketing, public/media relations, broadcasting, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, acquisition of events and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

An extremely talented, creative and aggressive businessman, Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities within the front office during his tenure with the Lions, most recently as executive vice president and chief operating officer.

On a League-wide level, Lewand is involved in several key business and labor issues. He serves on the NFL Management Council's Club Executives Committee and was on the Committee on Revenue Sharing Qualifiers and the Special Committee on League Economics. Lewand represents the organization for all League-level business matters.

Lewand's leadership positions every aspect of the Lions' organization, including Ford Field operations, to significantly impact the Lions' drive for a Super Bowl title. For Lewand, everything from football transactions to Ford Field events influences the team's ability to compete and win.

Working alongside General Manager Martin Mayhew and Head Coach Jim Schwartz, Lewand is leading one of the NFL's most-improved teams.

In January 2009, Lewand and Mayhew completed an exhaustive and thorough search for a head coach that would lead the team on the field. They completed that process with the hiring of Schwartz, who brought to the organization impressive results as a defensive coordinator as well as experience in player personnel. Schwartz's philosophy on the game and how to build a successful team, along with his contributions to winning organizations and working under successful coaches, made him the right choice for the Lions new head coach. The hiring of Schwartz has brought stability to the coaching staff and tremendous development on the field as the team continues to move in the right direction.

During his tenure with the Lions, Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling more than $1.3 billion.

Over the past two years, Lewand has completed two of the most extensive and complex contract negotiations by inking Lions QB Matthew Stafford and DT Ndamukong Suh, who earned Rookie of the Year honors, to their rookie contracts. Stafford's contract occurred within just a few hours of the 2009 NFL Draft allowing the team to sign the first overall pick prior to the draft. Suh's contract was the largest by a drafted player who did not play quarterback in NFL history. Both players are set to lead this franchise, offensively and defensively, for years to come.

Lewand's additional contract highlights include: the Lions' last 19 first-round draft choices, RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of several Pro Bowl players and recent key free agent acquisitions.

On the business side, Lewand constantly evaluates and reviews opportunities to grow the team's operations in order for those to impact the team's ability to win on the field.

One area of improvement that occurred last season was growth in season ticket holders and ticket sales. In 2010, the team sold out seven of eight home games, which tallied the combined totals of sellouts in 2008 (3) and 2009 (4). The introduction of numerous fan-friendly and family-oriented ticket options has greatly improved attendance at all Lions games. In fact, attendance to Lions games in 2010 increased 14-percent last year. It was the largest increase by any NFC team and Detroit was one of only two teams in the NFL to experience a double-digit increase in ticket sales.

The interest in the Lions not only grew at the gate but in viewership as well. Television ratings for Detroit Lions games increased 37 percent in 2010, and the overall ratings for the season were the highest in five years. As the team ended the year on a high note with a four-game win streak, so did the TV ratings. The Lions ratings (27.9) during their 20-13 win over Minnesota at home were the highest for the team in a Week 17 game since 1998.

In 2009, he completed two major initiatives that continue to help transform the Lions business operations. The Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms, a new team logotype and font and streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history. The new brand now extends beyond the logo on the helmet and presents a consistent visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways.

Additionally, the team is now partnered with MainGate on a 10-year exclusive retail and merchandising agreement. The partnership focuses on providing greater service to Lions fans and consumers and includes significant improvements to the organization's retail operations. Headlining the overhaul was the re-vamped team store at Ford Field, now known as "Lions Pro Shop," and the re-launch of the Lions' online store, Detroitlionsstore.com.

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit and serves as a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews in 2002, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Few venues are able to host and execute the variety of large-scale events as does Ford Field.

Ford Field shined in 2006 when the city of Detroit hosted Super Bowl XL. Lewand served as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL, and he was among the key figures leading the city's hosting of the game and events surrounding Super Bowl XL, which was widely-acclaimed as successful and critical to Detroit's future growth. Super Bowl XL injected a $260 million economic boost to the Metro Detroit region.

Behind Lewand's leadership, Ford Field once again stepped to the forefront in April 2009 as Detroit, for the first time, hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. The championship culminated six years of planning, including Lewand representing the organization in a partnership with the NCAA to present the Final Four in a groundbreaking manner that has set the standard for all future sites.

The event featured a center-stadium configuration that utilized the entire stadium seating structure along with customized risers. Ford Field broke long-standing records, including: attendance for Final Four Friday (nearly 30,000), the National Semifinals (72,456) and National Championship game (72,992). Overall, a record 145,378 fans attended the Final Four. By hosting the Final Four, Ford Field was the centerpiece for a weekend that had an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit. Attendance records were not only set inside Ford Field, but the ancillary events, such as Hoops City, set their own records as well. All of these events generated a tremendous opportunity for both residents and visitors to enjoy downtown Detroit over a five-day period.

Paced by Lewand's leadership, the organization followed up that tremendous accomplishment with the highly successful hosting of the 2010 Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Like the basketball championship, Ford Field allowed the NCAA to elevate one of its marquee events to even greater heights. For the first time, the 2010 Frozen Four was held in a large-stadium venue with the portable ice configuration set-up used in the NHL's annual Winter Classic. The championship garnered record crowds (34,954 for the National Semifinals and 37,592 for the National Championship) that not only set NCAA Frozen Four records but world indoor hockey records as well.

Ford Field became the first venue to host the Men's Final Four and the Men's Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In April 2007 Ford Field hosted WWE's Wrestlemania 23 that set a new Ford Field all-events attendance record (80,103) and had a $25 million impact on the Metro Detroit area.

Additionally, Lewand continues to lead in the development of Ford Field events, including college football (Division I regular season games, MAC Championship and the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl), MHSAA high school football, concerts, motorsports and various trade shows. Few stadium venues in the U.S. host as many football events of all levels as does Ford Field, filling virtually every weekend in the Fall.

This past June, Ford Field hosted the opening round of the 2011 CONCACAF Gold Cup with two soccer matches between Panama and Guadeloupe and the United State and Canada. The opening round match was the first soccer game played by the U.S. Men's National Team in the Metro Detroit area since the World Cup in 1994, and it drew the largest crowd for a U.S. match in the Gold Cup opening round since 2003.

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both his Juris Doctor at the University of Michigan Law School and his Master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a part-time basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh. Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson Wright in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, works as an attorney and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

Lewand is active in the community, acting as Past Chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau and serving on the Boards of Directors of the Detroit Zoological Society, the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation and the Parade Company. He also is on the Corporate Advisory Board for the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. Lewand was named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. Lewand has also been recognized nationally twice, in 2003 and 2005, by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, have four daughters: Cayleigh, Paige, Shannon and Erin.

MARTIN MAYHEW

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Martin Mayhew, now in his 11th season with the Lions, was promoted to general manager December 29, 2008 and reports directly to Mr. Ford on all football matters.

Mayhew, the team's executive football decision-maker, is building the Lions through a plan that focuses on developing a physically-tough football team. Mayhew adamantly believes that the players that will lead the Lions will be smart players with great football character.

The process of improving the Lions success on the field began to take shape in January 2009 with the team's search for a new head coach. Along with President Tom Lewand, Mayhew searched for the right coach who shared his philosophies with the following characteristics: strong communication and leadership skills, a track record of success in the NFL, demonstrated ability to overcome adversity, the right mixture of youth and experience, and a coach with enthusiasm and energy for the challenge ahead.

The search concluded with the hiring of Jim Schwartz, who served eight years (2001-08) as the Tennessee Titans defensive coordinator before coming to Detroit. Schwartz is unique because he brings tremendous experience as a coordinator and position coach in the NFL, but he also previously worked in player personnel when he began his NFL career. These attributes appealed to Mayhew, and both have worked in concert on free agency and the draft—critical areas that will significantly impact the Lions' success.

Along with the coaching staff, Mayhew re-organized the team's player personnel department. From the start of the 2009 offseason, the team set out to add a personnel executive who was successful in overseeing both pro and college scouting in the NFL. That was completed with the hiring of James "Shack" Harris, who now has worked 24 years in scouting including six seasons as Jacksonville's vice president of player personnel. Along with the hiring of Harris, the Lions' player personnel department, under Mayhew's direction, underwent a geographical realignment that improves the team's scouting operations.

In his role as general manager, Mayhew oversees the player personnel department, including college and pro scouting, and plays an integral role in the coordination of the team's salary cap objectives and negotiation of player contracts. Mayhew and Lewand collectively work on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures.

Along with free agency and the draft, Mayhew utilizes every resource, such as trades and the league's waiver wire process, year-round to improve the team's roster from top to bottom.

Proof of Mayhew's approach is the change to the team's roster over the past two years. The 2010 opening day active roster included only 14 players (74-percent turnover) remaining with the club from two years prior, including four regular starters.

For the organization, adding productive leaders to both sides of the ball remains a top priority. This past season, key signings for the Lions included unrestricted free agents DE Kyle Vanden Bosch and WR Nate Burleson. Their contributions on the field were quite notable last season, and what they brought to the team's locker room was immeasurable. Vanden Bosch was voted the team's defensive captain last year, and he was a key component to the Lions much-improved defensive front. He finished the season with 49 tackles and four sacks before missing the final five games with a neck injury. On offense, Burleson added an additional play-making threat opposite Pro Bowl WR Calvin Johnson as he caught 55 passes for 625 yards and recorded six touchdowns. He also used his experience and guidance to help improve the team's offense. The abilities and leadership of Vanden Bosch and Burleson will be valuable assets for the Lions in 2011.

In Mayhew's first 31 months (October 2008-April 2011) after assuming the role of general manager, he completed 19 trades for personnel or draft picks, including 10 in 2010.

Several veterans acquired by Mayhew via trade have contributed to the Lions as starters or improved the team's depth, including: DT Corey Williams, QB Shaun Hill, CB Chris Houston, DE Lawrence Jackson, G Rob Sims, TE Tony Scheffler and CB Alphonso Smith. Hill, Sims and Scheffler were all signed to contract extensions in 2010.

Two of Mayhew's trades generated additional first round draft picks in 2009 and 2010. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Lions have made two selections in the first round of the draft in back-to-back seasons. Those additional picks allowed the Lions to draft TE Brandon Pettigrew with the 20th pick in the 2009 NFL Draft and RB Jahvid Best with the 30th pick in the 2010 NFL Draft.

Acquiring talent via trade in the early portion of the draft did not stop in 2011. In the second round of this April's draft, the Lions traded picks to re-enter the second round of the draft to select RB Mikel Leshoure with the 57th overall pick. He was added to the top of the Lions 2011 draft class that included DT Nick Fairley (13th overall selection) and WR Titus Young (44th overall selection).

The team's 2009 and 2010 drafts under Mayhew's direction have generated highly productive classes that include eight players (2009: QB Matthew Stafford, Pettigrew, S Louis Delmas, LB DeAndre Levy and DT Sammie Hill; 2010: DT Ndamukong Suh, Best and S Amari Spievey) who each have started at least nine games over the past two years.

The Lions 2010 draft class was highlighted by both Suh and Best. Suh made an immediate mark on the NFL during his rookie season by being named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, All-Pro and voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. He set a Lions rookie record with 10 sacks and became the second rookie defensive tackle to register 10 sacks in the NFL since 1982. His impact was not only felt due to his individual production, but by the improvement of the team's entire defensive line. Best, though he battled through toe injuries throughout his rookie season, led the team in rushing, set a team rookie record for receptions and became the first rookie to score five touchdowns in their first two games since RB Billy Sims in 1980.

Mayhew maximizes his resources in an effort to not only strengthen the team by improving individual talent, but by strengthening each position unit top to bottom. This process is exemplified by the continued development of the defensive line. The Lions front four were not only the most improved in the NFL last year, but have become a position of force for the franchise.

The team's defensive line unit in 2010 accounted for 39 of the team's 44 sacks. They garnered 23.5 more sacks in 2010 than in 2009, and the unit was critical in the entire defense allowing 46.9 yards less per game (highest improvement in NFL) and 125 less points (highest improvement in NFL).

Mayhew bolstered that unit last year by adding veterans Vanden Bosch (unrestricted free agent) and DT Corey Williams (trade) as starters. Suh's addition sent the overhaul over the top with the addition of his skills and production. The four starters, including DE Cliff Avril, were joined by additions from the past two seasons: DE Lawrence Jackson (trade), DE Turk McBride (waivers) and Sammie Hill (draft). While much of the attention was on the production of Suh and leadership by Vanden Bosch, four others (Avril, Jackson, McBride and Hill) all set career high in sacks. During this year's draft, Mayhew added Fairley, the winner of the 2010 Lombardi Award, a consensus All-American and AP SEC Defensive Player of the Year, to that group creating a formidable unit that should make an impact during the 2011 season.

In addition to his duties as general manager, the coordination of all football operations, managed day-to-day by Vice President of Football Operations Cedric Saunders, is under the direction of Mayhew. This includes team travel, training camp operations, security, medical staff, equipment operations, video department and cafeteria staff. Mayhew also works on many of the Lions' football-related legal matters.

In February 2001, Mayhew joined the Lions' front office as senior director of football administration/staff counsel. After illustrating his talents and work ethic for two years, Mayhew was promoted February 3, 2003 to senior vice president of football administration/legal affairs. On October 14, 2004, he was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager.

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has kept an eye on the future and has always thought one step ahead, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown's Law Center (2000). He is one of two Lions' front office executives with law degrees.

During the 1999 NFL season, while attending law school, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins' pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. While with the Redskins, he scouted NFL players and late NFL cuts and also assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew also had two separate internship stints with the NFL in both the labor operations and legal departments. In labor operations, Mayhew worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving player contracts and the salary cap. With the legal department, Mayhew assisted the NFL's in-house labor counsel by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He also was exposed to corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the NFL's primary firms used as outside counsel. At Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

Mayhew played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL draft and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

He entered the league after graduating from Florida State with a Bachelors of Science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

Mayhew has also been extremely involved within the community throughout his professional career. In 1993, while playing for Tampa Bay, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award, and the following year he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. From 1995-96, Mayhew was the Bucs' United Way Spokesperson. Mayhew is a member of the Florida Bar and the Sports Lawyers Association. Additionally, Mayhew is a member of the Board of Trustees for the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village.

For the past three years, he has hosted the Martin Mayhew Youth Football Coaching Academy for approximately 100 coaches from Think Detroit PAL. The purpose of the camp is to provide additional teaching and training tools for coaches so they can continue having a positive and long-lasting impact on the young lives they touch through youth football.

Mayhew and his wife, Sabrina, have a daughter, Sierra, and two sons, Ryan and Justin.

JIM SCHWARTZ

HEAD COACH

Years with Lions: 3
Years in NFL: 19

When asked about what attracted him to the Detroit Lions head coaching position prior to accepting the job more than two years ago, Jim Schwartz stated, "You're not going to find a more passionate fan base in the NFL than Detroit. You talk about ownership and a commitment to winning—that's critical. Without those two, I don't think it's an attractive opportunity. Detroit offers both of those and more."

Schwartz, 45, provides a unique blend of coaching and player personnel experience to the Lions head coaching position. Having spent the past 18 seasons in the NFL—15 years as a coach and three in player personnel— Schwartz worked his way up from an entry-level football operations position with the Cleveland Browns in 1993 to being named the Lions Head Coach on January 16, 2009.

He began his NFL coaching career as a defensive assistant and quality control coach, progressed to position coach and then succeeded as a defensive coordinator for nearly a decade despite the constant nature of change in today's NFL.

Schwartz, now in his third season as the Lions head coach, is transforming the team by seeking talent based on what he commonly refers to as "multi-dimensional" players. Like his defenses in Tennessee, he firmly believes success is a product of the team's ability to adapt, and all three phases of the game—offense, defense and special teams—are tailored on both personnel and particular game strategies.

Critical in the progress made thus far is Schwartz's insistence on building stability and consistency, and that starts with his coaching staff. The 2011 season will mark the first season in more than a decade (2000) that the club has not made any changes to the head coaching position or any three of its coordinators on offense, defense or special teams. It will be the first time since 2000 the Lions have had the same head coach, offensive coordinator and defensive coordinator for three consecutive seasons.

Schwartz understands the importance of his coordinators. Following his hiring in 2009, Schwartz targeted two highly-regarded former head coaches, Gunther Cunningham (assistant head coach/defensive coordinator) and Scott Linehan (offensive coordinator) to assist him in Detroit. Combined, Cunningham and Linehan have 24 years of experience in the NFL as a coordinator or head coach. Since Schwartz added them to his coaching staff, each has implemented philosophies and schemes that not only fit Schwartz's insistence on adapting to personnel and strategies but they also have provided sound player development. Last year, Schwartz also added Danny Crossman, who previously spent five seasons as special team coach for the Carolina Panthers, to the staff to lead the Lions' special teams units.

In 2010, Schwartz led one of the most-improved teams in the NFL. The Lions finished the season as the only NFC team, and one of four in the NFL, to end the season on a four-game winning streak. Included in those four wins was a 7-3 victory over the Super Bowl Champions Green Bay Packers. That four-game win streak was the first for the Lions since 1999 and it marked the eighth time in team history the team ended with at least four-straight wins with the last occurring in 1995.

Improvements occurred across the board in each of the team's offense, defense and special teams units. Detroit joined the New York Giants, San Diego Chargers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the only teams in the NFL to improve in all three key offensive and defensive League rankings (total, rushing and passing) compared to 2009.

On offense, the Lions scored 100 more points (third most improved scoring offense) and gained 639 more yards (fourth-most improved offense) than they did in 2009. The team was one of just seven teams to improve at least nine positions, as they went from 26 in 2009 to 17 last year in total offense. Detroit's passing offense accounted for 642 more yards (fifth-most improved) in 2010 making them one of only three teams to improve their League ranking by nine spots as the Lions went from 21st in 2009 to 12th in 2010.

As the team progressed in total offense, so did its efficiency in the Red Zone. The Lions were second in the NFL in Red Zone Efficiency converting 29 touchdowns in 45 trips (64.4 percent). With 12 more touchdowns than the previous year, Detroit's offense was the third-most improved unit in Red Zone touchdowns, and they scored the third-highest improvement with 82 more points in the Red Zone.

That offense was led by Pro Bowl WR Calvin Johnson, steady play by three different starting quarterbacks, an effective pass protection unit, a deep and effective group of diverse tight ends, an infusion of young talent at running back and veteran help at the wide receiver position.

Injuries at quarterback forced the team to start Matthew Stafford, Shaun Hill and Drew Stanton in at least three games each last year. The team's passers combined for third in the NFL in completions (383) and attempts (633), 12th in gross passing (4,001) and tied for 11th in touchdowns (26). For the first time in team history, three quarterbacks each registered 20-or-more attempts and a passer rating of 90.0 each in two games during the same season. Each quarterback attempted 90 passes on the season and the team combined for a passer rating of 82.0, marking the first time since the 1993 Miami Dolphins that a team had three quarterbacks each attempt 90 passes in a season and finish with an 80.0 passer rating. The quarterback unit also produced 26 touchdown passes and 16 interceptions for a +10 difference, and Detroit became the first team since Philadelphia in 1993 to start three quarterbacks in a season and compile a +10 TD to interception ratio.

Besides the quarterback play, production and improvement was across the board on offense. Johnson was second in the NFL with 12 touchdowns and ninth in receiving yards (1,120). The offensive line allowed only 27 sacks (tied for sixth-lowest in NFL) as the team threw the third-most pass attempts in the League. Their sacks-per-pass ratio (4.09) was the fifth lowest and the third-lowest allowed by a Lions squad since 1960. In just his second season, Brandon Pettigrew set team single-season records for Lions' tight ends with 71 receptions and 722 receiving yards. Pettigrew also finished third among NFL tight ends in receptions. Pettigrew and TE Tony Scheffler combined for the second-most catches (116) among NFL tight end duos. In the backfield, rookie RB Jahvid Best set a team rookie record with 58 receptions, led the team in rushing and became the first NFL rookie to score five touchdowns in their first two games since Lions RB Billy Sims in 1980.

Defensively, the Lions featured the most-improved unit in all of the NFL—the defensive line. The re-built unit featured starters DE Kyle Vanden Bosch (unrestricted free agent acquisition), DE Cliff Avril, DT Corey Williams (acquired by trade), and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh (selected second overall in 2010 NFL Draft). Suh earned Defensive Rookie of the Year and All-Pro honors, and he was voted a starter in the Pro Bowl as a rookie. Though opponents threw the ball less against the Lions than they did in 2009, the Lions picked up 18 more sacks, which accounts for a 3.28 percent increase from the previous season for the ratio of sacks per pass plays.

Of the Lions 44 sacks, 39 were attributed to the defensive line, 23.5 more than the Lions defensive line accounted in 2009—the most improvement among any defensive line unit in the NFL. The line was also the most-improved unit in the League in regards to sack yardage and the group was responsible for 179 more yards of sack yardage.

On his way to capturing numerous post-season accolades, Suh dominated during his rookie season leading all rookie and all defensive tackles with 10 sacks, and led all defensive tackles with 66 tackles. He also tacked on an interception and returned a fumble for a touchdown. He set the Lions rookie sack record and became only the second rookie defensive tackle in the NFL to record 10 sacks since the sacks became an official stat in 1982. Suh's size, strength, stamina and ability to get to the quarterback has made him one of the team's key building blocks on defense for years to come.

The team's defense improved overall as a unit as well. In defending the pass, the defense was the most-improved unit in the NFL allowing 751 less yards (46.9 yards per game) than in 2009. It was also the NFL's most-improved unit in points allowed giving up 125 points less (7.8 points per game) than the year before. In total yards allowed, it was the fourth-most improved defense yielding 777 yards less than in 2009. Detroit was one of six teams to improve their overall total defense ranking by 11 spots (32 in 2009 to 21 in 2010), and they were one of just three teams to improve their pass defense by 16 (32 in 2009 to 16 in 2010).

Among the team's defensive highlights in 2010 occurred during the team's four home victories. In those four wins, the defense allowed a total of two touchdowns, and it did not yield a touchdown in wins vs. St. Louis (10/10), Green Bay (12/12) and Minnesota (1/2).

The improvement was not only produced on offense and defense, but there was significant progress on the team's special teams units in virtually every aspect. KR Stefan Logan, who earned Pro Bowl alternate honors, was one of those catalysts as the team's kick returner. Detroit had the League's third-best improvement on kickoff returns, gaining 3.5 yards per return more in 2010. Logan finished second in the NFL in total kick return yards (1,810) and was the only player to finish in the Top-5 in both kickoff return average (26.8) and punt return average (12.1). Logan tied a franchise record with a 105-yard kickoff return in the team's win over St. Louis (10/10).

With respect to the cover units, the Lions were much improved in that area as well. The team's kickoff return unit allowed 2.7 yards less per kickoff return last year (fourth-best improvement). S John Wendling, who was also named an alternate to the Pro Bowl as a special teamer, led the entire NFL with 24 special teams tackles.

Schwartz' kicking units also persevered in the second half of the season as the team continued to produce despite missing K Jason Hanson for the most extended time in his 19-year career. Dave Rayner stepped in for Hanson and nailed 13-of-16 field goals (81.3 pct.) in the team's final eight games, including his final seven attempts. Rayner was critical in the Lions win at Tampa Bay in December as he became the first kicker in team history to hit a field goal on the final play of regulation and then win the game in overtime on a game-winning kick. During the team's four-game win-streak to end the season, Rayner was 6-of-7 on attempts with his only miss coming on a 55-yard attempt.

Additionally, the across-the-board improvement was shown in the team's ability to secure the football and generate turnovers. In 2010, Detroit registered 29 takeaways and 25 giveaways for a +4 turnover margin and had a difference of +22 in turnover margin when comparing the past two seasons—the biggest improvement in the NFL.

The Lions were the most-improved team in terms of giveaways as well, as they gave the ball away 16 less times than they did in 2009. Among the team's giveaways, 16 occurred via interception, an improvement of 16 picks from the year before (32 in 2009). They were the second-most improved club in terms of throwing interceptions and were one of only two teams to throw at least 10 interceptions less than the year before. They accomplished that while starting three different quarterbacks.

While the Detroit Lions made the 2010 season notable for the franchise's overall improvement, Schwartz understands that the most important element is winning more games. "Nothing is going to detract or take us away from where we're going as a team," Schwartz remarked just prior to the team's four-game winning streak last season. "This team has great things ahead of it. There is no question in any one of our minds that this team has great things ahead."

Before his tenure in Detroit began in 2009, Schwartz spent 10 seasons with the Tennessee Titans, including eight (2001-08) as defensive coordinator. While with the Titans, he worked under Head Coach Jeff Fisher, who was one of the most successful coaches in the NFL for 16-plus seasons (1994-2010). In 2008, Schwartz's defense guided the Titans to an NFL-best 13-3 record and an AFC South title. The Titans' defense finished the season ranked in the top 10 in several key defensive categories, including: defensive points allowed (third, 14.2), total yards allowed (seventh, 293.6), rushing yards allowed (sixth, 93.9), passing yards allowed (second, 161.0), third down percentage allowed (6th, 35.0) and sacks (fifth, 44).

Tennessee's defense was one of only six teams to finish among the top 10 in the league in both rushing yards and passing yards allowed.

As the Titans' defensive coordinator since 2001, Schwartz's defensive unit held firm in two major categories that factored significantly in the team's overall success; rushing defense and third down conversion. From 2001-08, Tennessee ranks fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.5) and sixth in third down conversion (36.1). Through 2008, the Titans allowed just nine rushers over 100 yards through 64 home games.

During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Titans claimed two AFC South titles (2002 and 2008), earned two other AFC Wild Card spots (2003 and 2007), and in four seasons finished with 10 or more wins, including 2002 (11-5), 2003 (12-4), 2007 (10-6) and 2008 (13-3).

In Schwartz's last two seasons (2007-08) in Tennessee, the Titans claimed 23 victories and their winning percentage of .719 (23-9) was the third-best in the NFL. They are one of only three teams (New England and Indianapolis) with 23-or-more wins. From 2006-08, the Titans record was 31-17 (.646), which was tied for the fourth-best record in the league.

The Titans 2007 defense helped rejuvenate the team and led the team's return to the playoffs. Among the NFL's rankings, Schwartz's defensive unit completed the season among the league best in the following categories: total yards allowed (fifth, 291.6), rushing yards allowed (fifth, 92.4), passing yards allowed (10th 192.2), defensive points allowed (17.3, 7th), first down yards per play allowed (4.34, first), sacks (40, seventh) and takeaways (34, sixth).

The Titans limited three teams in 2007 under 200 total offensive yards, and All-Pro RB LaDainian Tomlinson was held to the lowest rushing total of his career (42) with 20 or more carries in the Titans' playoff game at San Diego.

Schwartz managed a defense that, much like the rest of Tennessee's team, was in transition during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. That unit replaced seven regular starters from the 2004 squad with new and, often younger, talent. Schwartz's defense held their own throughout the process, and one example of that was when Tennessee held the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts and their high-powered offense in 2006 to a combined 31 points in both games, the lowest tally allowed by a Colts division opponent in the history of the AFC South.

In 2005, the Titans defense was one of the youngest defenses in the NFL with their average years of experience being only 3.5 years. That defense included two starting rookie cornerbacks for only the second time in the team's 46-year history, and the unit ranked eighth in third down percentage allowed (35.5), ninth in sacks (41) and second in three-and-out drives (31.3 pct.).

For just the second time in franchise history, and first since 1993, Schwartz put together a defense that finished first in the NFL in rushing defense. Finishing in the top 10 in rush defense extended the team's streak of nine consecutive seasons ranked in the top 10. That nine-year streak was also the longest streak in the league at the time.

As remarkable as it was for the Titans defense to finish first in rushing yards allowed, it was even more remarkable of a feat considering the talented rushers they faced nearly week-in and week-out. That year, the Titans faced eight (total of 10 games) of the NFL's top 13 rushers who combined for 12,018 yards on the season. The Titans' defense dominated the league's leading rusher, Ravens RB Jamal Lewis who rushed for over 2,000 yards that season, in the AFC Wild Card game as the team held Lewis to just 35 yards. It was Lewis' second-lowest career single-game rushing tally as a starter in the NFL through that year.

Combined with the stellar rushing defense was the strong effort by the defense on third down, once again proving a common theme of Schwartz's defense. The Titans led the league in third down defense by allowing an opponent conversion percentage of 27.7. It was the lowest in franchise history and the lowest in the NFL since 1998 (Oakland Raiders, 26.3).

Beyond those two categories the Titans defense ranked fourth in the AFC in red-zone defense (43.9 pct.), fifth in the AFC in takeaways (34) and it recorded the most interceptions (21) by a Titans defense since 1995.

In just his second-year as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz's defense finished in the top 10 as they persevered through a season which they lost All-Pro DE Jevon Kearse to injury and added six new defensive starters. In 2002, the Tennessee defense finished fifth overall in defensive points allowed (282).

Prior to his eight seasons as the Titans defensive coordinator, Schwartz contributed to the Titans defense as the linebackers coach where he also coordinated the team's third down package in 2000. That year, the Titans led the NFL in opponent third down efficiency by allowing a league-low 30.8 percent. He also was instrumental in the integration of newly-acquired linebacker Randall Godfrey into the Titans defensive scheme, as he set career highs in tackles (169) and interceptions (2).

Schwartz originally joined the Titans in 1999 as defensive assistant/quality control. In his first year with the club, the team claimed the AFC Championship and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Before joining the Titans in 1999, he spent three years (1996-98) as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens. During his tenure in Baltimore, he also coached the team's outside linebackers. After the Cleveland Browns moved to Baltimore following the 1995 season, Schwartz made the transition from player personnel to coaching. From 1993-95, he worked in the Browns' player personnel department, serving as both a college and pro scout. During his time with the Browns, he also assisted the coaching staff, headed by Bill Belichick, on defense with film breakdowns and scouting reports.

In addition to his pro coaching and scouting experience, Schwartz worked on the college level for four years before moving onto the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' linebackers from 1989-90 and then served as graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota (1990-91). He became a position coach in the secondary at North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

The Baltimore, Md., native was a four-year letter winner as a linebacker at Georgetown University, where he earned a degree in economics. He received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown, and in 1989 he earned numerous honors that include Division III CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, All-America and team captain.

In the community, Schwartz supports the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International and stresses the importance of giving back through entities like Detroit Lions Charities. For the past two years, Schwartz served as chairman of the Detroit Lions Invitational Golf Tournament and was the co-chairman for the Lions Celebrity Bocce Ball Tournament in 2010.

GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM

Assistant Head Coach/ Defensive Coordinator

Years with Lions: 3; Years in NFL: 30

Cunningham is a 42-year coaching veteran on the college and pro levels, including the past 29 seasons in the NFL. He has been a defensive coordinator in the league for 12 seasons and a head coach (Kansas City, 1999-2000) for two. Cunningham has also worked with linebackers and defensive linemen for 16 of his seasons in the pros. As a coach in the NFL, Cunningham has earned the respect of both his peers and players for his intense and straightforward approach to coaching. He is known as a strong motivator who emphasizes the importance of an aggressive and hard-hitting defense. Additionally, Cunningham also brings the elements of being a talented defensive teacher and tactician.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

The Detroit Lions had one of the most improved defenses in the NFL. Detroit was one of six teams to improve their overall total defense ranking by 11 spots (32 in 2009 to 21 in 2010), and they were one of just three teams to improve their pass defense by 16 (32 in 2009 to 16 in 2010).

- In the passing game, the defense was the most-improved unit in the NFL, allowing 751 less yards (46.9 yards per game) than in 2009.
- Detroit was also the most-improved defensive unit in the League in points allowed with 125 points fewer (7.8/game) than the previous season.
- The Lions defense was the NFL's fourth-most improved unit in regards to total yards allowed, giving up 777 yards less than in 2009, which equates to 48.6 less yards per game.
- In Week 13, the defense was instrumental in the team's 7-3 win over the eventual Super Bowl Champion Green Bay Packers as they held the Packers to 0 points in the first half. The Lions allowed a season-low 258 total yards and a season-low 66 rushing yards.
- Detroit's defense forced 29 takeaways (14 interceptions, 15 fumble recoveries) in 2010, six more than the year before, which made them eighth-most improved unit in the NFL in 2010.

The Lions defense is being built around young playmakers and improved by quality veterans. Cunningham believes in putting tremendous pressure on opponents upfront, and the team's front four, led by 2010 Rookie of the Year and All-Pro DT Ndamukong Suh and 11-year veteran DE Kyle Vanden Bosch, is beginning to make its mark in the League. That unit will lead the way for the Lions defense in the foreseeable future.

The success by a defense many times can be measured by pressure and turnovers. Cunningham's defense in 2010 registered 44 sacks – the sixth most in the NFL – and 25 takeaways. These elements continue to improve as the team adds talent to all three units on defense.

From 2004-08, Cunningham served as the Kansas City Chiefs defensive coordinator during his second stint with the organization. In 2008, he also coached the team's linebackers as the Chiefs' defense began a transition with six new starters and endured numerous injuries throughout the season. From 2004-07, his imprint on the defense was prevalent in several areas.

In 2007, Cunningham's defense ranked in the top five in nine different defensive categories, including a league-high in third-down defense (30.2 pct.), negative plays forced (121) and 10+-play drives (1). The Chiefs ranked second in allowing touchdowns on defensive possessions (37.2 pct.) and in Red Zone defense (37.2 TD pct.). Kansas City was third in the league by allowing just 28 offensive touchdowns, the lowest tally for the team since 1997. The defense allowed 18.6 offensive points per game, the lowest for the Chiefs since 1999.

Overall, Kansas City's pass defense ranked fifth in the NFL in 2007 allowing only 188.9 yards per game. They also tied for fifth in three-and-outs forced (47) and first downs allowed (278).

After just two seasons following his return to Kansas City, Cunningham improved the Chiefs rushing defense that ranked 30th in the league in 2003 (146.5 yards allowed per game) to seventh in the NFL in 2005 (98.1 yards allowed per game). The 98.1 rushing yards allowed per game was the lowest the Chiefs yielded since 1997. In 2005, the Chiefs were ninth in Red Zone defense (46.7 TD pct.) after ranking 27th the previous season. They also tied for the second highest tally of forced fumbles that year with 33.

In 2004, Cunningham began the process of improving the team's defense as Kansas City tied for seventh in the NFL with 41.0 sacks, the club's best total since 2000, Cunningham's last year as Kansas City's head coach.

Cunningham coached alongside Schwartz in Tennessee (2001-03) under Head Coach Jeff Fisher. He served as the Titans assistant head coach/linebackers. In those three seasons, the Titans defense helped the franchise earn two playoff berths. From 2001-03, the Titans led the league in rushing yards allowed (86.5 yards per game) and were third in opponent's third down percentage (33.6). In 2003, Tennessee's defense led the NFL in both rushing defense (80.9 yards per game) and opponent's third-down percentage (27.7). That year, LB Keith Bullock earned a spot in the Pro Bowl under Cunningham's tutelage as his position coach.

As head coach for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1999-00, Cunningham compiled a record of 16-16 (.500). In 1999, the Chiefs were 9-7 and tied with the Seattle Seahawks with the best record in the AFC West but lost out on a playoff tie-breaker. Cunningham became the first coach in Chiefs' history to claim nine wins in his first season as Chiefs' head coach. In 1999, the Chiefs led the NFL with a +21 turnover margin and set a team record by scoring nine defensive touchdowns. In his two seasons, his club was 4-0 against Denver and defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion St. Louis Rams, October 20, 2000, 54-34, in a high-scoring affair.

As defensive coordinator for the Chiefs from 1995-98, the defense was a key cog in Kansas City compiling a 42-22 (.656) record, including a 23-9 record (.719) against the AFC West. In those four seasons, the Chiefs allowed a NFL-low in offensive points (16.4 points per game), and led the league in scoring defense during the 1995 (15.1 points per game) and 1997 (14.5 points per game) seasons. Cunningham's defenses were critical in Kansas City producing an AFC-best +30 turnover margin from 1995-98, as they were responsible for 127 takeaways. They also scored 77 points on 10 touchdowns and four safeties. The Chiefs produced 172.0 sacks over those four years, a total which ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL over that span.

The 232 points allowed by the Chiefs in 1997 was a franchise record for a 16-game season. That season, they set a NFL record, previously held by the 1934 Detroit Lions, by not permitting a second half touchdown in 10 consecutive games. They led the AFC in interceptions (21) and total takeaways (34), and ranked second among NFL teams in opponents' third-down percentage (31.6). Kansas City's 54.0 sacks in '97 were the second-highest total in team history, leading the AFC and ranking third in the NFL.

In '95, Kansas City's defense was even better in terms of actual offensive points allowed as opposing offenses scored an average of just 12.9 point per game, and they were ranked second in the entire league by allowing just 284.3 yards per game. They also ranked third in rushing defense (82.9 yards per game). Additionally, the Chiefs led the league in scoring defense, turnover margin (+12), touchdowns allowed (23) and yards allowed per play (4.3).

Cunningham not only has compiled great defensive units, but he has coached and mentored several Pro Bowl and All-Pro players. He shared a special bond as a mentor to the late, great nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas, who concluded his illustrious career as the all-time leading sack artist in Chiefs history with 126.5 QB takedowns. Cunningham served as Thomas' position coach in '97, helping him earn his final Pro Bowl invitation. He also coached DE Neil Smith (second in Chiefs history with 86.5 sacks) and DE Jared Allen, who earned his first spot in the Pro Bowl after the 2007 season when he lead the league in sacks with 15.5. Another defensive linemen who excelled under Cunningham was DT Dan Saleaumua. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 1995 after anchoring the team's defensive front.

In the secondary, CB Dale Carter and CB James Hasty were the most formidable cornerback tandem in Chiefs history, as they combined for six Pro Bowl berth, and each intercepted 21 passes.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Cunningham spent four seasons (1991-94) with the Los Angeles Raiders, as linebackers coach (1991), defensive coordinator (1992-93) and defensive line coach (1994). As the Raiders defensive coordinator, his defense ranked ninth in the NFL both seasons, and they allowed a NFL-low 11 touchdown passes in 1992.

Cunningham was the San Diego Chargers defensive line coach for six seasons (1985-90) after originally being hired by the team's player personnel department. During those six seasons, the chargers led the AFC in sacks three times and garnered a club record 62.0 in 1986. As the defensive line coach, he developed DE Lee Williams and DE Leslie O'Neil into Pro Bowl players.

In 1982, Cunningham entered the NFL coaching ranks when he joined the Baltimore Colts coaching staff, learning from the late Bud Carson. He was the team's defensive line/linebackers coach from 1982-84. Before entering the NFL ranks, his previous pro coaching experience was as the defensive line/linebackers coach for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1981 with head coach Frank Kush who also hired Cunningham in Baltimore.

As a college coach, Cunningham's last stop was at California. Cunningham coached the Bears defensive line from 1979-80, the linebackes in 1978 and secondary in 1977.

Prior his stop in Berkeley, Cunningham coached at Stanford from 1973-76. He was hired by Head Coach Jack Christensen, a Hall of Fame defensive back for the Detroit Lions in the 1950s and a member of the Lions 75th Season All-time Team. While at Stanford, he coached the defensive line from 1974-76 and was the assistant offensive line and freshmen coach during his first year in 1973.

Cunningham worked at the University of Arkansas in 1972 on a staff headed by Frank Broyles that included Joe Gibbs and Raymond Berry.

In 1969, Cunningham began his coaching career at the University of Oregon, his alma mater. He was with the Ducks program for three years from 1969-71 where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive coach, George Seifert. Cunningham was a graduate of Oregon and was a linebacker and kicker for the Ducks from 1966-68.

Cunningham played his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California. He was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College by Hall of Fame coach John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced as head coach by Ernie Zampese.

Cunningham, who became a naturalized U.S. citizen on April 6, 2010, is just one of four foreign-born individuals in league history to ever serve as an NFL head coach, joining Hugo Bezdek (Cleveland Rams, 1937-38), Jock Sutherland (Pittsburgh, 1946-47) and Al Saunders (San Diego, 1986-88). Born in Munich, Germany, he moved to Greenfield, Mass., at the age of 10 in 1956 with his mother Katharina and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham.

Cunningham and his wife, René, have two children, Natalie and Adam.

SCOTT LINEHAN

Offensive Coordinator

Linehan begins his third season as the Lions offensive coordinator after joining the club in 2009. He is now entering his 10th season as an NFL coach, going on 22 years of coaching experience.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

The Lions were one of just seven teams to improve at least nine positions in total offense from 2009, as they went from 26th to 17th. In the passing game, they were one of just three teams to improve their ranking by nine spots (21 in 2009 to 12 in 2010).

- Detroit had the third-most improved scoring offense in the NFL, scoring 100 more points than they did in 2009, which accounted for an average of 6.3 more points per game.
- The Lions had the fourth-most improved offense in the NFL in 2010, gaining 639 more yards than they did in 2009 (39.9 more yards per game).
- Detroit's pass offense accounted for 642 more yards in 2010 than it did in 2009, which was a total of 40.1 more yards per game and made the Lions' pass offense fifth-most improved unit in the League.
- Detroit's offense was the NFL's most improved unit in giveaways with 16 less in 2010 (25) than 2009 (41).
- With 16 fewer interceptions in 2010 (16 in 2010 and 32 in 2009), the Lions were the second-most improved club when it came to throwing picks. They were one of only two clubs (Tampa Bay) to throw at least 10 less interceptions when compared to the year before.
- The Detroit offense was the third-most improved unit in Red Zone touchdowns with 12 more touchdowns in 2010 than 2009. That equates to a 17.2 percent difference, which made the Lions' offense the second-most improved unit in Red Zone touchdown percentage as well.
- Detroit had the fifth-highest increase of Red Zone possessions in the League. The Lions had 45 red zone possessions in 2010 compared to 36 in 2009.

Linehan's work with the team's quarterbacks and offense was quite valuable in 2010 as the team started three quarterbacks in at least three games (QB Matthew Stafford, 3 games; QB Shaun Hill, 10 games; QB Drew Stanton, 3 games). As part of his duties directing the Lions offense, he works closely with the development of the team's quarterbacks.

In Stafford's three games, he either won or left the game with a lead. Against Washington (10/31), he led the team to a 37-25 win by tossing four touchdown passes. Overall, he passed for six touchdowns to one interception in his three starts.

Hill registered career highs in completions (257), attempts (416), yards (2,686) and touchdowns (16).

Linehan's continued development of Stanton, the team's third quarterback, paid dividends in December as he started the first two games of the Lions season-ending four game winning streak. Stanton completed the season 2-1 as a starter with career highs in attempts (119), completions (69), completion percentage (58.0), yards (780) and touchdown passes (4).

In 2009, his first season directing the Lions offense, Linehan focused on implementing a versatile offensive attack along with the maturation of the team's young, talented offensive playmakers.

Working directly with the team's quarterbacks, Linehan was instrumental in the growth of rookie quarterback Matthew Stafford, who became one of the youngest players to ever start the season at quarterback in the NFL. Stafford steadily progressed with each outing until injuries slowed him down towards the end of the year. Stafford finished the season ranking near the top of almost every franchise rookie passing record, including first in touchdown passes (13) and second in yards (2,267), completions (201) and completion percentage (54.1) despite starting only 10 games.

Another 2009 rookie who showed great promise under Linehan was TE Brandon Pettigrew. Although he missed the season's final five games, he led all NFL rookie tight ends in receptions (30) and receiving yards (346), and was tied for a league-high with two touchdowns.

Linehan joined the Lions coaching staff after spending three seasons (2006-08) as the head coach of the St. Louis Rams.

As a first-time NFL head coach, Linehan quickly put his stamp on the Rams in 2006 via the ground game, giving the ball to RB Steven Jackson 346 times in 2006 – the most by a St. Louis player in 20 seasons. Jackson finished the year with 1,528 rushing yards (3rd, NFC), 105 first downs (1st, NFC) and 2,334 all-purpose yards (1st, NFL), earning his first-career Pro Bowl appearance. Jackson averaged 21.0 carries per game over Linehan's three-year span with the Rams compared with 16.9 carries per game in 2005 and established himself as one of the NFL's big running threats.

Other Rams saw career bests under Linehan. QB Marc Bulger passed for a career-best 4,301 yards in 2006, setting franchise records with a 1.4 interception percentage and 588 passing attempts. His 370 completions for 24 touchdowns were also second in Rams' history. That season, WR Torry Holt and WR Isaac Bruce finished with 1,188 and 1,098 yards, respectively, combining for 167 pass receptions.

In addition to his three seasons as an NFL head coach, Linehan brings four years of league experience as an offensive coordinator. He spent the 2005 season with the Miami Dolphins, improving the team's total offense from 4,960 yards (29th, NFL) in 2004 to 5,198 yards (14th, NFL) in 2005 and bettering the run game from 402 rush attempts (31st, NFL) in 2004 to 444 (12th, NFL) in 2005.

That year, the Dolphins' two primary running backs – Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams – combined for 1,650 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. WR Chris Chambers earned his first-career Pro Bowl appearance under Linehan, finishing with 82 catches for 1,118 yards and 11 touchdowns, marking his only 1,000-yard season.

Linehan broke into the league as an offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002, helping the franchise to some of its best offensive seasons to date, ranking second, first and fourth from 2002-04. During his tenure, the Vikings compiled a franchise-best 36 consecutive games of 300-yards-or-more of total offense (2002-04) and, in 2004, compiled a franchise-best five games of 400-yards-or more of total offense.

In Vikings history, his offenses also rank first and second in total yards (6,339 yards, 2004; 6,294 yards, 2003), first and second in first downs (351, 2004; 350, 2002), second and third in touchdowns (51, 2003; 50, 2004), second in points (416, 2003), first in passing first downs (225, 2004), first in rushing touchdowns (26, 2002) and second and third in rushing yards (2,507 yards, 2002; 2,343 yards, 2003).

Minnesota's top offensive players had some of their best years under Linehan, including QB Daunte Culpepper and WR Randy Moss, who each had career years while he was with the Vikings. Moss became the team's featured 'big man' in 2002 after the departure of WR Cris Carter, starting 45 games over that span and garnering two Pro Bowl selections (2002, 2003) under Linehan.

Moss finished with 106 catches for 1,347 yards and seven touchdowns in 2002 while his 111 receptions for 1,632 yards in 2003 were a career best. He also tied a career high in 2003 with 17 touchdowns, a personal best he held until he brought in 23 in 2007 with New England.

Culpepper also had some of his best seasons with Linehan calling the plays, including a career year in 2004. That year, his second Pro Bowl season, Culpepper finished with a passer rating of 110.9 for the fourth-highest in NFL history and his 69.2 completion percentage (379-of-548), league-leading 4,717 passing yards, 8.6 yards per play average and 39 touchdowns still mark career bests.

Linehan was able to effectively utilize the Culpepper-Moss tandem over his three seasons with the Vikings, bettering the team's total points to 390, 416 and 405, respectively, after Minnesota scored 290 points in 2001. He maintained the team's solid performance through the air, as the offense ranked 9th, 4th and 2nd, respectively, throughout his three seasons.

But even with the dynamic passing game, Linehan also made significant improvements to the team's running game. Prior to his arrival in 2001, the Vikings finished 25th in the league with 376 rushing plays for 1,609 yards (4.3 average). In 2002, Linehan helped the Vikings to the league's top ground game, finishing with 473 rushing plays for 2,507 yards (5.3 average).

That year, Minnesota's running game was led by Michael Bennett, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 2002 season. He finished the year 11th in the NFL in rushing with a career-best 1,296 yards – his only 1,000-yard performance to date – on 255 attempts. In 2003, Linehan utilized a trio of runners – Moe Williams, Onterio Smith and Bennett – to finish third in the league in rushing with 493 rushing plays for 2,343 attempts.

Linehan coached collegiately for 13 years on teams that played in seven bowl games and won five conference titles: one Pac-10, two Conference USA and two Big Sky. Five of Linehan's quarterbacks were drafted by NFL teams: Louisville's Chris Redman and Dave Ragone, Washington's Brock Huard and Marques Tuiasosopo and Idaho's Doug Nussmeier.

He was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Louisville from 1999-2001, coaching the team to three bowl games and becoming the first Conference USA team to win consecutive league championships. A Louisville quarterback earned Conference USA Player of the Year honors in each of Linehan's three seasons.

Prior to his time in Louisville, Linehan spent five years at the University of Washington (1994-98), advancing to four bowl games and winning the 1995 Pac-10 title. He also spent four total seasons at Idaho, his alma mater, as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1992-93) and as the wide receivers coach (1989-90) and Linehan spent one season at Nevada-Las Vegas (1991) as the quarterbacks coach. While a coordinator with Idaho in 1993, the Vandals led the nation in scoring (47.5 points per game) and total offense (532 yards per game).

Linehan was a quarterback for Dennis Erickson's Idaho Vandals from 1982-86, winning the Big Sky Championship in 1985 and earning Division I-AA playoff appearances in three straight seasons (1984-86). He signed as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career.

Born in Sunnyside, Wash., Linehan and his wife, Kristen, have three sons: Matthew, Michael and Marcus.

DANNY CROSSMAN

Special Teams Coordinator

Danny Crossman came to Detroit in 2010 after working the previous seven seasons (2003-09) with the Carolina Panthers, including the final five seasons (2005-09) as special teams coordinator. He originally joined the Panthers in 2003 as special teams assistant and he also assisted with the team's strength and conditioning program.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Crossman's impact on the Lions' special teams was evident in his first season with Detroit as the unit improved in several key areas. The return game that was fueled by Pro Bowl alternate WR Stefan Logan, who had one of the better seasons in club history as a kick returner, and the cover teams took a giant step forward led by Pro Bowl alternate S John Wendling (special teamer).

- The Lions' kick return unit was the third-most improved unit in the League in kickoff return average with 3.5 more yards per return than in 2009.
- Detroit had the NFL's 10th-most significant improvement in punt return average: the Lions had an 8.8 punt return average in 2009 and improved to an average of 12.1 yards per return in 2010.
- In average kickoff return yardage allowed, Detroit had the fourth-most improved coverage unit, allowing an average of 2.7 less yards per each kick return.
- The team's specialists under Crossman's direction made great adjustments after the Lions all-time scoring leader Jason Hanson missed the final 8 games of the season due to a knee injury. The team rolled with K Dave Rayner who was 13-of-16 on field goal attempts in eight games. Rayner also helped the Lions snap their road-losing streak by making field goals at the end of regulation and in overtime to defeat Tampa Bay (12/19).

During Crossman's tenure with the Panthers, the team's kicking and cover groups contributed significantly to the team's success during his time in Carolina which included three playoff appearances (2003, 2005 and 2008), two NFC South titles (2003 and 2008).The Panthers also finished with at least eight wins five of those seven seasons.

In 2008, the Panthers ranked third in the NFL with an opponent average drive start following kickoffs of 24.7. They were one of only three teams that did not allow an opponent to start a drive following kickoffs past the 50-yard-line. Carolina led the NFL in touchbacks (30) and touchback percentage (33.7), and the team was ninth in the league by allowing a 21.9 opponent kickoff return average.

In his first season (2005) as special teams coach, Crossman's group ranked among the best in the league. That season, the Panthers ranked ninth in the comprehensive Dallas Morning News special teams ratings which was highlighted with rankings of second in punt coverage and seventh in kickoff coverage.

Under Crossman's tutelage, Panthers P Jason Baker set the franchise record in net punting average in both 2005 (38.9) and 2006 (39.0). In both seasons, Baker's net punting average ranked first in the NFC and third in NFL. From 2005-09, Baker ranked eighth in the NFL with a combined net punting average of 38.0.

In 2003, Crossman's first year assisting the Carolina's special teams, the Panthers were second in the special teams ratings compiled by the Dallas Morning News.

Crossman entered the pro ranks following 10 seasons as a college coach where he worked with special teams in each season and also coached multiple defensive positions. In 2002, Crossman served as the linebackers and special teams coach at Michigan State.

From 1999-2001, Crossman was on the coaching staff at Georgia Tech. All three seasons, he was the Yellow Jackets special teams coordinator along with defensive ends coach (1999-2000) and defensive backs coach (2001). In both 1999 and 2001, Georgia Tech ranked high nationally in kickoff return average, net punting average and punt return average. Georgia Tech led the ACC in kickoff return average and punt return average during the 2000 season. Two of Crossman's specialists, K Luke Manget and KR Kelley Rhino, were first-team All-ACC in 2001.

Before arriving at Georgia Tech, Crossman was the defensive backs and special teams coach at Central Florida for two seasons (1997-98). Crossman served a three-year stint (1994-96) at Western Kentucky as special teams and secondary coach (1994-95) and outside linebacker and special teams coach (1996). He entered the coaching

Crossman earned three letters at the University of Pittsburgh as the team garnered a 22-12-1 record those three seasons and appearances in 1987 Bluebonnet Bowl and 1989 Sun Bowl. He moved to strong safety as a senior and was named team MVP. Crossman earned second-team All-America honors as he recorded 62 tackles and one interception. He originally began his college career at the University of Kansas. As a freshman in 1985, Crossman made eight starts at defensive back, posted 48 tackles, recorded one interception and collected freshman All-America honors.

Following his college playing career, he spent time with the Washington Redskins in 1990 and the Detroit Lions during training camp in 1991. He played for the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football in 1991-92. In the inaugural World Bowl in 1991, he was named MVP in the 21-0 shutout of Barcelona. Crossman intercepted three passes in the championship game and returned one for a 20-yard touchdown.

Crossman earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and communications from Pittsburgh in 1990. He and his wife, Susan, have a son, Kyle, and a daughter, Kaylie.

JASON ARAPOFF

Jason Arapoff enters his 11th season directing the Lions' strength and conditioning program. His primary role is to oversee the physical fitness of all Lions' players.

Focusing equally on the off-season regimen and the regular season program, Arapoff utilizes high-end cardiovascular strength training and free weight equipment in the team's state-of-the-art facility. His hands-on training techniques emphasize a balance of muscular strength and cardiovascular fitness, and are underscored by a comprehensive, personalized approach to each athlete. He also has introduced a shift toward more football-specific activities that encompass high-intensity protocols to train the entire body.

Arapoff arrived in Detroit prior to the 2001 season with 13 years of experience with the Washington Redskins. While serving as the team's conditioning director for nine years, he was instrumental in computerizing and implementing the team's strength and conditioning and nutritional programs.

A frequently published author, Arapoff has been a monthly columnist for Scholastic Coach Magazine and is a frequent speaker for industry events, schools, universities and football camps. He has also served as a content expert for area media, including guest spots on a variety of television and radio programs.

During his playing career as a collegian, Arapoff was a four-year letter-winning defensive back at Springfield (Mass.) College, where he earned his undergraduate degree in health fitness. He went on to obtain his master's degree in exercise physiology from American University in Washington, D.C.

Arapoff and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters: Julia, and twins, Anna and Alexa.

BRADFORD BANTA

Assistant Special Teams

Bradford Banta, a former Lion, enters his fourth season as the assistant special teams coach. He returned to Detroit in 2008 after spending the previous season as a tight ends coach for the University of Tennessee Chattanooga. He played three of his 11 NFL seasons with the Lions (2001-03) primarily as a longsnapper.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Banta helped the Lions' special teams unit improve in several key areas in 2010. The return game was fueled by Pro Bowl alternate WR Stefan Logan, who had one of the better seasons in club history as a kick returner, and the cover teams took a giant step forward led by Pro Bowl alternate S John Wendling (special teamer).

- The Lions' kick return unit was the third-most improved unit in the League in kickoff return average with 3.5 more yards per return than in 2009.
- Detroit had the NFL's 10th-most significant improvement in punt return average: the Lions had an 8.8 punt return average in 2009 and improved to an average of 12.1 yards per return in 2010.
- In average kickoff return yardage allowed, Detroit had the fourth-most improved coverage unit, allowing an average of 2.7 less yards per each kick return.

After being drafted by Indianapolis in the fourth-round of the 1994 NFL Draft, Banta spent six seasons with the Colts and established himself as one of the league's best longsnappers. He joined the New York Jets for the 2000 season before coming to Detroit in 2001. He finished his career with Buffalo in 2004.

Upon his retirement from the NFL, Banta worked with George Wright Construction, as a supervisor, for a year and in Chase's Home Financial Division for nearly two years in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Banta was a two-year starter at tight end at the University of Southern California (1989-93) as well as a four-time letterwinner. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior and received his bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in sociology in 1993.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High School and helped them to the state championship (1988) while playing tight end and linebacker. He and his wife, Amy, have three children.

MATT BURKE

Linebackers

Years with Lions: 3; Years in NFL: 8

Matt Burke, in his third season as linebackers coach, came to Detroit after spending five seasons (2004-08) with the Tennessee Titans.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

In 2009, Burke was instrumental in the development of rookie LB DeAndre Levy who played in all 16 games with 10 starts, including two starts at middle linebacker.

- Levy finished tied for fourth among rookies with 85 tackles (according to NFL.com) and tied for seventh among all NFL defensive players with 8.5 tackles for loss.
- In 2010, Levy followed up with a strong season despite dealing with injuries. In addition to finishing third with 72 tackles, he had key interceptions in two of Detroit's season-ending victories, one of which he returned for his first career touchdown at Miami (12/26).

In 2008, Burke helped coach Tennessee to an NFL best 13-3 record and rank seventh in overall defense with 4,698 yards allowed as well as third in offensive points allowed with 227. In his first two seasons with the Titans, he worked as an administrative assistant in the football department assisting the coaching staff with scouting breakdowns during the week and on gamedays. Burke was promoted to defensive assistant/quality control coach in 2006. He was primarily responsible for breaking down film on upcoming opponents and self-scouting, also conducting on-field work with the linebackers.

Prior to joining the Titans, Burke was the assistant secondary coach for one season (2003) at Harvard, originally entering the college ranks at Boston College (2000) as a graduate assistant for recruiting before working with the defense from 2001-02. His first coaching position came at Bridgton Academy (Maine), where he worked in 1998 and 1999.

A native of Hudson, Massachusetts, Burke played safety at Dartmouth and was part of an undefeated Ivy League champion in 1996.

TODD DOWNING

Assistant Quarterbacks

Todd Downing enters his third season with the Lions and his second as the assistant quarterbacks coach after being promoted last offseason. He spent his first season with Detroit as an offensive quality control coach. Before joining the Lions, he coached three seasons with St. Louis as an assistant secondary/defensive quality control coach (2008) and a defensive assistant coach/assistant special teams coach (2006-07).

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS:

Despite injuries at the Lions quarterback spot, all three of the team's signal callers maintained production throughout the season and all three have led the Lions to victory. In all, the Lions started QB Matthew Stafford (3 games), QB Shaun Hill (10 Games) and QB Drew Stanton (3 games), and the team ranked third in the NFL in completions (383), third in attempts (633), 12th in gross passing yards (4,001) and were tied for 11th in touchdown passes (26).

- For the first time in team history, three quarterbacks each registered 20-or-more attempts and a passer rating of 90.0 each in two games during the same season.
- The quarterback unit also produced 26 touchdown passes and 16 interceptions for a +10 difference. The last team to finished the season having three quarterbacks start three games and finished with a +10 TD-to-Int ratio was the Philadelphia Eagles in 1993 (+10, 23 TD to 13 Int; Randall Cunningham, Bubby Brister and Ken O'Brien).

Downing originally entered the NFL with the Minnesota Vikings, spending three years on the Vikings coaching staff as the Offensive

Quality Control Coach (2005) and football systems analyst (2003-04), helping the Vikings to a Top 5 Offense in all three years and a playoff appearance in 2004. During the summers from 2000-02, Downing played quarterback for a semi-pro team, the Minnesota Maulers.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Downing began his coaching career with Eden Prairie High School in Minneapolis (1999-2000). In 2000, he helped his alma mater to the Minnesota Class 5-A state title.

A native of Eden Prairie, MN, Downing studied Business Communications at the University of Minnesota (1999-2002) and now resides in Michigan with his wife Julie.

BRANDON FISHER

Assistant to the Defensive Coaching Staff

Fisher joined Detroit this past offseason as an assistant to the defensive coaching staff after spending part of the 2010 season helping the Tennessee Titans' offensive coaching staff.

Fisher was a standout linebacker at the University of Montana where he played in 54 games (30 starts) and finished with 169 career tackles. As a senior, he was a second team All-Big Sky Conference pick and helped lead the Grizzlies to a 14-1 record with their only loss being to Villanova (23-21) in the Football Championship Subdivision title game. Fisher began his collegiate career as a safety, but began the transition to linebacker in 2008.

As a business marketing major at Montana, Fisher was named to the All-District 7 academic squad with a 3.9 GPA as well the as FCS Athletic Director Association's Academic All-Star team. He was also a three-time all-league academic team selection.

SAM GASH

Running Backs

Years with Lions: 5; Years in NFL: 7

Sam Gash enters his fifth season with the Lions and fourth as running backs coach. He came to Detroit in 2007 as assistant special teams coach. Gash will lead a running backs unit this season looking to generate explosive plays inside and out with the combination of second-year RB Jahvid Best and 2011 second-round pick RB Mikel Leshoure.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Gash helped rookie RB Jahvid Best make the transition to the pro game as he finished 2010 as the team's leading rusher.

- Best was second among all NFL rookies in receptions (58) and fourth in rushing yards (555).
- Overall, Best tallied 1,042 total yards from scrimmage and became the sixth rookie in team history with 1,000 yards from scrimmage.

Before joining the Lions, Gash spent two seasons (2005-06) as the New York Jets' assistant running backs and assistant special teams coach. He entered the NFL coaching ranks following a 12-year playing career with the New England Patriots (1992-97), Buffalo Bills (1998-99, 2003) and Baltimore Ravens (2000-02).

As a player, Gash earned a reputation as one of the most physical fullbacks in the league and was named to two Pro Bowls (1999-2000). In 1999, he became the first back ever selected to the Pro Bowl without recording a rushing attempt.

Gash was an eighth-round draft choice (205th overall) of the New England Patriots in the 1992 NFL Draft out of Penn State. He recorded 177 regular season games and also appeared in 11 postseason games. Gash carried the ball 121 times, scored two rushing touchdowns and added 169 receptions for 1,347 yards for an 8.0 average and 13 touchdowns. He was also active on various protection and coverage units throughout his career.

At Penn State, Gash was the top fullback as a junior and senior. He served as offensive captain as a senior and had a career-high 391 rushing yards and three touchdowns on 87 carries. As a junior, Gash started every game and posted 315 yards and five scores on 95 carries. He earned his undergraduate degree in liberal arts with an emphasis in speech communication, marketing and management. He and his wife, Alicia, have a daughter, Samantha, and sons Kolby, Elijah, Isaiah, Caleb, Samson and Gideon.

SHAWN JEFFERSON

Wide Receivers

Shawn Jefferson is in his seventh season coaching with the Lions. He was named wide receivers coach prior to the 2008 season after working with the team's wide receivers the previous three seasons as a coaching intern in 2005, an offensive assistant in 2006 and as the assistant wide receivers coach in 2007. Jefferson spent the 2003 season with the Lions as a player and brings 13 years of NFL playing experience to the club.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Jefferson's work with WR Calvin Johnson continues to pay dividends. Johnson finished the season as the team's leader in receptions (77), receiving yards (1,120) and touchdowns (12) and was the team's leading receiver for a third straight year. Johnson was named to his first Pro Bowl and was honored as second-team all-pro.

- Johnson finished seventh in the NFL (second in the NFC) in scoring (non-kickers) with 74 points (12 TDs and a 2-pt conversion). He was also ninth in the league in receiving yards (fourth in NFC) and was tied for 15th in receptions (ninth in NFC).
- Johnson was also tied for second in the NFL (tied for first in the NFC) with 12 touchdown catches.
- With 270 career receptions and 4,191 receiving yards, Johnson is the all-time leader among Detroit receivers in their first four seasons with the Lions.
- Free agent WR Nate Burleson was added to the wide receiver group in 2010 and gave the team another playmaker on the outside. He finished with 55 catches for 625 yards and six touchdowns. His 55 receptions and six touchdowns were the third highest in his first eight seasons.

Jefferson helped Johnson breakout as one of the NFL's best receivers in 2008 as he tied for first in touchdown receptions (12), fifth in receiving yards (1,331), second in yards per catch among receivers with 60 receptions (17.1), tied for second in 20+-yard receptions (21), tied for second in 40+-yard receptions (7) and tied for first in 25+-yard touchdown catches (6). Johnson was also named an alternate to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl squad.

In the Lions record books, Johnson became only the second player in team history to record 70 receptions, 1,200 yards and 10 touchdowns in a single season. He is the only player in Lions' history to record 1,300 yards with less than 80 catches. His 12 touchdowns (2008, 2010) tied for the most touchdown grabs by a first- or second-year player with the Lions and his 1,331 receiving yards are the second-most in team history by a first- or second-year player.

In 2007, the Detroit Lions were the only team in the NFL and the first in franchise history to have four different players finish with more than 650 receiving yards (Shaun McDonald, 943; Roy Williams, 836; Calvin Johnson, 756; Mike Furrey, 664). Detroit's wide receiving unit was also second in the NFL in receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,370).

While working as an offensive assistant in 2006, Jefferson helped WR Roy Williams to a NFC-leading and career-high 1,310 receiving yards. He also worked with the NFC's receptions leader Mike Furrey (98 receptions for 1,082 yards). It was the first time since 1999 that two Lions receivers finished with more than 1,000 yards.

In addition to his time with the Lions as a player, Jefferson spent five seasons with San Diego, four with New England and three with Atlanta, accumulating over 7,000 yards receiving and 29 touchdowns. Jefferson also played in Super Bowl XXIX with the Chargers and Super Bowl XXXI with the Patriots.

Jumping right into the coaching ranks following his playing career, Jefferson spent the 2004 season as a volunteer coach with his high school alma mater, William Raines H.S. During his tenure at William Raines, he spent the month of June with the Jacksonville Jaguars as part of the team's scouting seminar.

Jefferson attended Central Florida where he starred as a wide receiver and kick returner. He finished with 67 catches, 1,087 yards and 11 touchdowns. As a returner, Jefferson returned 39 kickoffs for 782 yards (20.1 avg.).

KRIS KOCUREK

Defensive Line

Kris Kocurek was promoted to defensive line coach just before the 2010 offseason. He came to Detroit as the Lions' assistant defensive line coach in 2009 after spending the previous season coaching defensive line at Stephen F. Austin State.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

In Kocurek's first season as the Lions' defensive line coach, Detroit had the most-improved pass rush in the NFL. Even though teams threw the ball nine times less against the Lions in 2010 season than they did in 2009, the Lions picked up 18 more sacks, which accounted for an increase of 3.28 sacks per pass play.

- Of the Lions' 44 sacks, 39 (second most in the NFL) were attributed to the defensive line, 23.5 more than the Lions defensive line accounted for in 2009.
- The Lions defensive line, featuring three new starters in DE Kyle Vanden Bosch, DT Corey Williams and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh, was also the most-improved unit in the League in regards to sack yardage with 179 more sack yards lost than the previous season.
- Kocurek was also instrumental in the development of Suh who led all NFL defensive tackles with 10.0 sacks and had 66 tackles (49 solo). Suh was voted as a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad and was named to the AP All-Pro team. He was also the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. During his rookie season, he set a new team record for sacks by a rookie since the stat became official in 1982.
- DE Cliff Avril (8.5), DE Lawrence Jackson (6.0), DE Turk McBride (5.0) and DT Sammie Hill (2.5) all garnered career highs in 2010.

In 2009, Kocurek helped rookie DT Sammie Hill, who was drafted out of Stillman College in the fourth round (115th overall), emerge as an opening day starter. He finished the season with 26 tackles (14 solo) and two fumble recoveries in 13 games while making the transition from a small college prospect to NFL starter (12 starts).

In 2007, Kocurek served as the assistant head coach and defensive line coach at West Texas A&M where he helped coach the Buffaloes to the 2007 Lone Star Conference title as well as the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. The Buffaloes became one of the top defensive units in the LSC and led the conference in scoring defense.

Under Kocurek's guidance, Brandon Swain became one of the top defensive players at the Division II level and was a 2007 First-Team Daktronics, AFCA and AP Little All-American and conference defensive lineman of the year after recording 24.5 tackles for losses and 14 sacks.

Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2006 and helped guide the Lions' top-ranked defensive unit which finished with No. 1 in total and scoring defense.

For two seasons (2004-05) Kocurek served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M-Kingsville and coached the Havelina's defensive line where he was active in the development of Wilbert Martin, who was twice selected as first team All-LSC and was a free agent signee of the Baltimore Ravens.

Kocurek began his coaching career in 2003 as a student assistant at Texas Tech. He assisted with the defensive linemen and helped coach the Red Raiders to a 2003 Houston Bowl win over Navy.

Prior to coaching, Kocurek played two years iin the NFL (Tennessee Titans in 2002 and Seattle Seahawks in 2001) after being selected in the seventh round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by Seattle.

Kocurek played collegiate football at Texas Tech and was a three-time All-Big 12 selection. As a senior, he was selected as team captain and named defensive player of the year.

TIM LAPPANO

Tight Ends

Tim Lappano returns for a third season coaching the Lions' tight ends. Previously, Lappano served four seasons (2005-08) as the offensive coordinator at the University of Washington. He is entering his 29th season as a coach and his sixth in the NFL.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

TE Brandon Pettigrew had one of the best seasons ever for a Lions tight end in 2010 while returning from a knee injury sustained late in his rookie year. He started all 16 games and was second on the team with 71 receptions for 722 yards – both of which were the most by a tight end in team history – and four touchdowns.

- Pettigrew had the third most receptions (71) and was seventh in receiving yards (722) among all NFL tight ends.
- TE Tony Scheffler finished with 45 receptions (378 yards) as the Lions were the only team in the NFL to have two tight ends with 45 or more receptions. Pettigrew and Scheffler combined for 116 catches, the second most by a tight end pair in the NFL.
- In 2009, Pettigrew led all rookie tight ends in receptions (30) and yards (346) despite being forced out of the lineup after 11 games with a season-ending knee injury.
- Veteran tight end Will Heller also flourished in 2009, setting career-highs with 29 receptions, 296 yards and three touchdowns.

Lappano's last pro coaching opportunity was with San Francisco where he was the running backs coach. In his first season with the 49ers, their running game was third in the NFC with 2,279 yards as FB Fred Beasley made his first Pro Bowl appearance and RB Kevan Barlow rushed for a career-high 1,024 yards despite starting only four games.

In 1998, Lappano made his NFL coaching debut as the running backs coach for Seattle. There he helped Ricky Watters rush for 1,239 yards and nine touchdowns, earning team Offensive Player of the Year honors.

In between, Lappano was the offensive coordinator at Oregon State (2000-02) and contributed heavily to the resurgence of the Beavers program. OSU led the Pac-10 in rushing yards (1,933) and in rushing offense, averaging 148.7 yards per game in 2002. Current St. Louis Rams RB Steven Jackson led the conference with 1,690 yards while earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors.

Lappano began his coaching career as the running backs coach at Idaho where he was a four-year letterman after finishing his collegiate career as the school's second all-time leading rusher with 2,196 yards. In 1985, he helped the Vandals to a Big Sky Conference championship before leaving to coach running backs for Wyoming (1986). He then served as running backs coach at Washington State (1987-88) before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989. In his first season as offensive coordinator, he led the Cougars to a top-10 finish with former NFL Pro Bowl quarterback Drew Bledsoe and Pac-10 Offensive Player-of-the-Year running back Steve Broussard.

Lappano moved on to the University of California in 1992 as assistant head coach and running backs coach. While in Berkeley, Lappano coached Heisman Trophy candidate Russell White and helped lead Cal to an Alamo Bowl victory over Iowa in 1993. He returned to Wyoming in 1996 as receivers coach, helping the Cowboys to an WAC Championship while coaching All-American Marcus Harris to the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver.

In 1997, Lappano joined the Purdue coaching staff as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach. The Boilermakers led the Big Ten in offense that season and ranked seventh in the nation.

Lappano earned a bachelor's degree in general studies at Idaho in 1983. He played high school football at Gonzaga Preparatory School in his native Spokane, WA and earned All-State honors as a senior. Lappano and his wife, Sandi, have two sons, Taylor and Kyle.

TED RATH

Strength & Conditioning Assistant

Ted Rath returns for his third season as the Lions strength and conditioning assistant after joining the team during the 2009 offseason. He had spent the previous two years as the assistant director of strength and conditioning for his alma mater, the University of Toledo. Rath was a linebacker for the Rockets (2003-2006) and helped them claim the 2004 MAC Championship and earn two bowl game berths, including the 2004 Motor City Bowl at Ford Field.

While working with Toledo's strength and conditioning program, Rath directed the strength regimens for all 15 of their olympic sports. He also assisted with all phases of football training protocols, including design and implementation of their workouts. Prior to being named assistant director, Rath worked as a graduate assistant and focused on the strength programs for men's basketball, baseball, track, cross country, golf and swimming.

After graduating from Toledo with a degree in Physical Education, Rath started his professional career at nearby Crestwood (Dearborn Heights, Mich.) High School where he was an assistant football coach as well as their director of speed and strength training. The Monroe, Mich., native is certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (C.S.C.C.A.) and has been published on www.speedandstrengthcoach.com..

KYLE VALERO

Offensive Coaching Assistant

Valero enters his second season as the Lions offensive coaching assistant after joining the staff in 2010. In addition to opponent film breakdown and self scouting, he assists with coaching the wide receivers during practice.

Before coming to Detroit, Valero spent the previous two seasons with the coaching staff at Florida State. He served as an Offensive Student Assistant in 2008 and then became the Offensive Graduate Assistant for the 2009 season. Valero was set to be the Seminoles' Offensive Quality Control coach for 2010 before leaving for the NFL.

Valero got his first coaching experience with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during the 2002-2003 seasons. While his primary responsibility was helping with special teams, he also assisted two futures head coaches – Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin and Buccaneers Head Coach Raheem Morris – with the defensive backs throughout training camp.

TIM WALTON

Secondary

Tim Walton joined the Lions as secondary coach in 2009. Before coming to Detroit, he was the defensive coordinator at the University of Memphis (2008) and had additional responsibilities coaching the safeties. Throughout his 14-year collegiate coaching career, Walton coached 13 players who were eventually drafted into the NFL, including five first round picks (Patriots S Brandon Merriweather, Seahawks CB Kelly Jennings, Giants CB Kenny Phillips, Redskins S LaRon Landry and Cardinals S Antrel Rolle) and four second round picks (S Idrees Bashir, WR/KR Devin Hester, S Michael Stone and CB Corey Webster).

2010 LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Detroit's secondary showed continued improvement in 2010 and garnered 10 interceptions which was more than the previous two seasons combined (7 in 2009; 1 in 2008).

- CB Alphonso Smith, a second-year player who was acquired from Denver at the end of the 2010 preseason, led the team with a career-high five interceptions, including one for a touchdown.
- Rookie DB Amari Spievey made the transition from cornerback to safety and went onto start eight of the last nine games at strong safety. He finished with 46 tackles (33 solo) and two interceptions.
- In 2009, rookie S Louis Delmas finished second on the team with 91 tackles. His other defensive tallies included: two interceptions (130 yds), eight passes defensed, one sack and one fumble recovery. He became the only rookie in NFL history to record a safety (vs. GB 11/26), an interception return for a touchdown (Arz 12/20) and return a fumble for a touchdown (at NO 9/13) in the same season.
- Delmas led the defense with 84 tackles (62 solo) in 2010 despite playing most of the season with a groin injury.

Prior to joining Memphis, Walton spent four seasons (2004-07) with the Miami Hurricanes. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in February 2007 and helped propel the defense to a national ranking of 33rd in total defense. In his first three seasons at Miami, he coached the defensive backs and the Hurricane's secondary ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass defense in 2004 (ninth) and 2005 (first).

In 2005, Walton's pass defense led the nation, allowing only 152.17 yards per game, and featured All-Americans safety Brandon Meriweather and cornerback Kelly Jennings as well as Freshman All-American Kenny Phillips.

Walton was at LSU in 2003 and his defensive backs were a key factor in the Tigers earning the 2003 BCS National Championship and a Southeastern Conference title. The LSU defense ranked among the nation's top three in four-of-five major defensive statistical categories: total defense (first, 252.0 yards per game), scoring defense (first, 11.0 ppg), pass efficiency defense (second, 89.8 rating) and rushing defense (third, 67.0 yards per game). Additionally, LSU ranked 18th nationally in passing yardage defense (185.0 ypg) while leading the SEC in four of the five defensive categories, including a No. 2 ranking in the league in pass defense.

In his first stint with Memphis (2000-01), Walton coached defensive backs. In 2000, the Tigers ranked fifth in the nation in total defense (first in rush defense), allowing only 275 yards per game and placed in the top 15 nationally in passing and scoring defense. He left Memphis to coach defensive backs at Syracuse for the 2002 season.

Walton began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green in 1995. He was promoted to running backs coach in 1996 and then moved to coach the defensive backs in 1999.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Walton has had three summer internships with NFL teams. He spent the summer of 1998 serving as a defensive intern with the Chicago Bears, the summer of 2001 as a defensive intern for the Green Bay Packers and in 2004 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under current Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin.

As a defensive back at Ohio State, Walton lettered four seasons and served as co-captain for the Big Ten champions in 1993. During his time with the Buckeyes, OSU went to four bowl games, including the Liberty Bowl in 1990. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from OSU in 1994.

Walton and wife, Tracy, have three children: Trei, Timia and Tyler.

JEREMIAH WASHBURN

Assistant Offensive Line

Jeremiah Washburn joined the Lions coaching staff as the assistant offensive line coach in 2009. Before coming to Detroit, he had spent six seasons working in the Baltimore Ravens player personnel department. Washburn was the Ravens' area scout for the Southwest from 2005-08 and covered schools from the Big 12, SEC, WAC and Conference USA. He also assisted with the acquisition of rookie free agents following the draft.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Detroit's offensive line allowed only 27 sacks in 2010 while having the third-most pass attempts in the league (633).

- The Lions finished with a sacks-per-pass play percentage of 4.09, the third-lowest sacks per pass play percentage allowed by Detroit since 1960.

During his first two years in Baltimore (2003-04), Washburn was a player personnel assistant. He assisted in pro scouting, including some advance scouting of opponents, unrestricted free agents, NFL Europa and other free agents, and he also assisted the college scouting director in preparation for the NFL Draft.

In 2002, Washburn entered the NFL as a football operations assistant with the Carolina Panthers.

Washburn was a three-year guard at the University of Arkansas. He was an international economics major and was a graduate assistant for the athletic department while he earned his MBA.

Washburn and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Ally and Megan, and a son, Drew.

GEORGE YARNO

Offensive Line

George Yarno enters his third season as Detroit's offensive line coach. Prior to joining the Lions' coaching staff, Yarno spent the 2008 season as the assistant offensive line coach with Tampa Bay after spending 17 years at the college level working with the offensive line.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Detroit's offensive line was one of the top pass protecting lines in the NFL in 2010, allowing only 27 sacks (sixth lowest in the League) while having the third-most pass attempts (633).

- The Lions pass protection stayed consistent despite the team starting three different quarterbacks in 2010. Among the teams in the Top-5 in sacks per pass play, only the Lions started more than one quarterback.
- For the season, the Detroit finished with a sacks-per-pass play percentage of 4.09. It was the third-lowest sacks per pass play percentage allowed by the Lions since 1960.

From 2003-07, Yarno worked at his alma mater, Washington State, in his second stint as the school's offensive line coach. During the 2003 season, he guided All-Pac-10 selections Josh Parrish (first team) and Calvin Armstrong (honorable mention) to become 2003 Holiday Bowl champions. Yarno began his coaching career with the Cougars from 1991-94.

Over the course of his 17-year college coaching career, Yarno served as an offensive line coach at both LSU (2001-02), winning a SEC title (2001), and at Arizona State (2000). Yarno also served as an assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Houston (1998-99) and as an offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Idaho (1995-97).

Prior to coaching, Yarno was a two-time PAC-10 conference honoree as a defensive lineman at Washington State (1975-79). In1979 he signed as a free agent with Tampa Bay where he played for five years (1979-1983). Yarno later joined the Denver Gold of the upstart USFL (1984-85) before returning to the Buccaneers (1985-87). Yarno finished out his NFL playing career with Atlanta (1988), Houston (1989) and Green Bay (1990).

Born August 12, 1957, Yarno and his wife, Cindy, have three children, Josh, Adrianne and George.

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Years with Lions: 3

James Harris joined the Lions' player personnel department after spending six seasons (2003-08) as the Jacksonville Jaguars vice president of player personnel. While directing the Jaguars player personnel area, he oversaw all player acquisitions, including: college draft, free agency, undrafted player signings and the scouting of players in other professional leagues.

Known affectionately as "Shack," Harris has 36 years of NFL experience, with the past 24 years working in player personnel and scouting.

Harris originally began his front office career in 1987 when he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a scout, a position he would hold for six years (1987-92). He then moved on to the New York Jets and served as the team's assistant general manager from 1993-96. In 1997, Harris was named the director of pro personnel for the Baltimore Ravens. He was a member of the Ravens' player personnel department from 1997-2002, and he earned a Super Bowl ring with the Ravens as the team claimed a world championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXV.

In 1969, Harris was drafted by Buffalo in the eighth round of the draft—an achievement of its own right since he was just one of a few blacks ever drafted at quarterback at the time. He would play for the Bills from 1969-71, and he would become the first black in NFL history to open the season as a starting quarterback. Harris then played for Los Angeles from 1973-76. While with the Rams, he was the Pro Bowl MVP in 1975 after throwing two touchdowns in a 14-13 win over the AFC. In 1976, he led the NFC with an 89.8 passer rating, which included a 436-yard outing against the Miami Dolphins. He concluded his career in San Diego where he played for the Chargers from 1977-81.

Harris has also impacted the community through the Shack Harris Doug Williams Foundation, which is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to creating opportunities for economically disadvantaged youth. The foundation, established in 2005 with fellow NFL quarterback pioneer and Grambling State alumnus Doug Williams, provides grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance.

Harris' front office work has been recognized by numerous organizations. For two years in a row (2003 and 2004), he was one of the top-50 most influential minorities in sports by Sports Illustrated, and in 2005 he received recognition as one of "the most powerful African Americans in sports" by Black Enterprise. In March 2006, he was awarded the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award that recognized his efforts to level the playing field and improve life for minorities. In February 2007, William Rhoden featured Harris as a member of the Field Generals in ESPN's "Third and a Mile: The Trials and Triumphs of the Black Quarterback." Last year, Harris received the Onyx Awards Achievement in Sports by Onyx Magazine.

Prior to being drafted in 1969, Harris played for one of college football's most legendary coaches, Eddie Robinson, at Grambling State. During each of his four seasons (1965-68), the Tigers won or shared the SWAC title. He was named MVP of the 1967 Orange Blossom Classic and was named Pittsburgh Courier Player of the Year in 1968. As a legendary athlete and quarterback at Carroll High School in his hometown of Monroe, La., Harris received two-time All-State honors as he led Carroll to two unbeaten seasons and a state title.

Harris and his wife, Vickie, have two sons, James and Aaron, and two daughters, Felicia and Ashley.

SHELDON WHITE

VICE PRESIDENT OF PRO PERSONNEL

Years with Lions: 15

Sheldon White is entering his 15th season with the Lions. During his first three years in the Lions' personnel department, White fulfilled a myriad of roles: in 1997 as the team's BLESTO area scout, in 1998 as an area scout and in 1999 working in both the college and pro scouting areas.

In his current capacity, White heads a team of personnel scouts that are responsible for evaluating all of the players in the National Football League as well as the current Lions roster. He plays a key role in free agency and assists in the draft. White is also involved in some salary cap issues, negotiating contracts for selected draft choices from Rounds 2-7 and selected free agents, and he handles the budgeting for the pro scouting department. Additionally, he is responsible for official daily personnel transactions and ensures that the team is in compliance with the NFL Player Personnel rules and regulations.

In 2004, White completed the NFL's career development program at Stanford's Graduate School of Business.

White, a Lions' defensive back from 1990-92, initially re-joined the organization in '97 as a BLESTO scout after coaching wide receivers at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio) from 1994-96. That post followed a six-year NFL playing career in which White also saw action for the New York Giants in 1988-89 and the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, White was a four-year starter at Miami (Ohio) from 1984-87, and was named to their first team All-Century team. He earned first-team All-MAC honors in 1986-87 and served as a key contributor to the school's MAC title in '86.

In 1988, he was selected by the Giants in the third round of the NFL Draft, and was named to the All-NFL Rookie first-team by College & Pro Football Weekly. White was also named the team's Rookie of the Year after leading the club with four interceptions. Following a two-year stint in New York, White signed with the Lions. He played three seasons in Detroit and was a member of the 1991 team that won the NFC Central title and advanced to the NFC Championship game. White then signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Bengals, where he spent the '93 campaign, before entering the coaching ranks at Miami (Ohio) in 1994.

In July 2004, White began serving as a member of the Business Advisory Council Executive Committee of the Richard T. Farmer School of Business at his alma mater, Miami University.

White is a graduate of Miami with a bachelor's degree in business administration, majoring in finance. He and his wife, Amy, have four children: sons, Sheldon II, Jordan and Cody, and a daughter, Lacy.

SCOTT McEWEN

Director ofCollege Scouting

Years with Lions: 25

Scott McEwen is now in his 25th season working in the Lions' personnel department. He manages the college side of the team's scouting department, and he is a key cog in the team's evaluation of college players throughout the country. McEwen plays an integral role in the team's planning and preparation for the annual college selection meeting.

McEwen is the team's elder statesman among the members of the player personnel department, having been a member of the scouting staff for the longest period of time. He originally joined the organization in 1987.

A 1980 graduate of West Liberty State (W.V.), McEwen began his tenure with the Lions as an area scout after spending two seasons working for the BLESTO Scouting Service. Prior to his scouting career, the East McKeesport, Pa., native served as the defensive line coach at his alma mater from 1980-81, and later coached four seasons at Duquesne University (Pittsburgh, Pa.).

McEwen and his wife, Colleen, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa., and have four sons: Scott Jr., Matthew, Patrick and Michael.

MILLER McCALMON

Assistant Director of Pro Personnel

Miller McCalmon joined the Lions' player personnel department in 2009 and has more than 30 years of experience in the NFL as a scout, coach and administrator. From May 2000-May 2007, McCalmon was the Houston Texans' associate director of pro scouting. McCalmon previously was a college scout with the Washington Redskins for 10 years, and during the 1999 season he worked with General Manager Martin Mayhew who was an intern in the Redskins scouting department.

From 1988-89, McCalmon served as a scout for BLESTO, the national scouting combine that represents 12 NFL teams.

Prior to his stints as a scout in the NFL, McCalmon served in several coaching capacities. From 1986-87, he was an assistant coach with the Houston Oilers and was in charge of special teams and tight ends. Before spending a year (1985) in private business, he worked with the Buffalo Bills from 1980-84. For three years (1980-82), he was on special assignment with the Bills under Head Coach Chuck Knox before working as special team's coach under Kay Stephenson (1983-84). From 1978-79, he was an administrative assistant for defensive planning for Head Coach Ted Marchibroda and the Baltimore Colts. He originally broke into the NFL as a personnel scout for Head Coach George Allen and the Redskins from 1976-77.

Before entering the pro ranks, McCalmon was the head coach at Erie (Colo.) High School from 1973-75. McCalmon was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1971-72. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tulsa in 1970 while he earned his master's degree in educational administration.

McCalmon is a native of Denver, Colo., and he and his wife, Georgia, have three daughters: Piper, Katherine and Jennifer. They also have six grandchildren: Sabina, Noel, Ana, Brooklyn, Caroline and Elijah.

CHARLIE SANDERS

Long-time Lions' player and coach Charlie Sanders re-joined the club in a scouting role February 18, 1998. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Personnel March 1, 2000 after serving the previous two seasons as a pro scout. Sanders compiles reports and evaluations on upcoming Lions' opponents and players throughout the league and aids in preparation for the NFL Draft.

Sanders is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2007 and is only the seventh tight end in NFL history to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Overall, Sanders has spent 38 years affiliated with the Detroit Lions organization, including 10 years as a player (1968-77), seven as a broadcaster (1983-88, 1997), eight as a coach (1989-96) and the last 13 as a player personnel scout (1998-10).

After eight years on the Lions' coaching staff (tight ends in 1989-90 and wide receivers in 1991-96), Sanders spent the 1997 season as a radio broadcaster on the team's flagship station, WXYT. That assignment added to a radio broadcast resume that includes time as the club's color commentator from 1983-88.

One of the best tight ends of his era, Sanders caught 336 passes (fifth on the team's all-time list) during his 10-year career (1968-77) for 4,817 yards. He appeared in seven Pro Bowls, was twice named All-Pro and missed only 12 games during his career.

Drafted by the Lions in the third round from the University of Minnesota in 1968, Sanders was the only rookie that season selected to play in the Pro Bowl and he finished second to then-teammate Earl McCullough for NFL Rookie of the Year honors. He was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1990, the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, his native state, in 1997 and the Guilford County Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

Sanders and his wife, Georgianna, have nine children -- Mia, Charese, Mary Jo, Georgianna, Charlie Jr., Nathalie, Tallisa, Wayne and Jordan. Daughter Mary Jo was a professional boxer and a six-time world champion and his son Wayne played football for the Saginaw Valley State University.

LANCE NEWMARK

Years with Lions: 13

Lance Newmark enters his 13th year in the Lions' player personnel department and his fourth as Assistant Director of College Scouting. Newmark, 36, continues to evaluate prospects as a National Scout, and has added responsibilities within the club's college scouting effort.

Newmark's time with the Lions began in 1998, assisting the player personnel department with various pro and college scouting assignments during the season and in preparation for the 1999 draft. Newmark was officially hired as a personnel scout on May 1, 1999. Newmark worked six seasons in that role before being promoted to National Scout in 2005.

Raised in La Mesa, California, Newmark played wide receiver for two years at San Diego Mesa College, before transferring to the University of San Diego for one year, where injuries ended his playing career. Newmark holds a degree in Social Sciences.

Prior to his time with the Lions, Newmark worked two years for the San Diego Chargers as a staff assistant.

Newmark, and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Commerce Township, Michigan with their daughters, Laci, Kendall and Ava.

CARY CONKLIN

Regional Scout

Cary Conklin, who serves at the team's West Coast regional scout, brings both scouting and coaching experience to the team's player personnel department. From 2006-08, Conklin was a scout for the St. Louis Rams and was a scout for the Washington Redskins in 2003. As a coach, Conklin coached quarterbacks at Eastern Michigan from 2000-01 and was the wide receivers coach at the University of Washington in 1998. He began his coaching career at Washington where he was a student assistant and worked with quarterbacks from 1996-98.

In 1990, Conklin was a fourth-round pick at quarterback by the Washington Redskins in the NFL Draft. He played for the Redskins from 1990-94 and with the San Francisco 49ers in 1995. Conklin was a teammate of Mayhew with the Redskins during the 1990-92 seasons.

In college, Conklin set numerous passing records for the Washington Huskies. He was recruited to play for the Huskies after being named Washington's Gatorade Player of the Year while attending Eisenhower High School in Yakima, Wash.

Conklin is married to wife, Demetra, and has two daughters, Cosette and Violet, and a son, Canon.

CHAD HENRY

Regional Scout

Chad Henry, one of the team's regional scouts who evaluates college talent throughout the year, enters his 14th year working full-time in the Lions' player personnel department and 15th year overall in the organization. He originally served as the team's BLESTO scout before being promoted to area scout in 2000.

Henry possesses a variety of experience, both in coaching and scouting at all levels of football. Before being hired full-time in 1998, he spent a year as an intern in the Lions' personnel department and assisted in numerous capacities in both college and pro scouting. He also served as a personnel and coaching staff assistant for the San Diego Chargers during training camp in 1996. Among Henry's coaching stops were at his alma mater, Indiana (Pa.) Area Senior High School in the Fall of '97, and as a scholastic level summer league baseball coach in 1996-97.

Although side effects from a bout with cancer during high school ended Henry's playing career prematurely, he continued in football as a student assistant at Penn State from 1991-93. He was also an undergraduate assistant coach and recruiting assistant at Indiana University of Pennsylvania upon transferring there in the spring of 1994.

In May 1996, Henry received his bachelor's degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in English. He completed his master's work in labor and industrial relations from the same school in May 1998.

Henry, and his wife, Holly, reside in Pittsburgh, Pa. They have three children: Leah (4), Madeline (3), and Trent (1). Henry's father, Jack, coached the Lions' offensive line from 1997-99, and retired in 2009 after a 40 year coaching career.

JOE KELLEHER

BLESTO Scout

Years with Lions: 1

Kelleher joins the Lions' Player Personnel Department having worked most recently as a scouting assistant for National Football Scouting and the National Invitational Camp (NFL Combine). After his hiring by National Football Scouting in November 2009, Kelleher assisted in several aspects of the organization's operations, including the review of scouting reports, overseeing daily management of the NFL Medical Database website and assisting in the preparation and operations of the NFL Combine held annually in Indianapolis.

Earlier that year, Kelleher served a six-month internship as a scouting intern for BLESTO Scouting.

In 2008, Kelleher interned for the Lions Football Operations Department, as he assisted with the team's training camp logistics, team travel and other aspects of the team's day-to-day football operations.

While a graduate student at Ohio University, Kelleher was an operations graduate assistant for GamePlan, a sports video technology firm, and he interned with the New York Giants Pro Personnel Department during training camp in 2007.

Kelleher attended Butler University and played offensive tackle and tight end for the Bulldogs football team. He was on Butler University's athletics academic honor role every semester while in college and was the 2004 recipient of the Hilton U. Brown Mental Attitude Award. Kelleher graduated from Butler with a bachelor's degree in business-marketing. He went on to earn a master's of business administration and a master's of sports administration from Ohio University.

ROB LOHMAN

College Scouting Cooridinator/ Regional Scout

Years with Lions: 5

Rob Lohman enters his fifth season with the Lions. He serves as the team's college scouting coordinator, handling various administrative duties within the college scouting department, and is also a regional scout.

He originally joined the player personnel staff in May 2007 and had a variety of responsibilities in both college and pro scouting, including serving as the team's advance scout during his first season.

Previously, Lohman spent six years with the Houston Texans, and was a member of the organization before it began play in the NFL in 2002. From 2004-06, he served as the team's northeast regional scout, and was the team's pro administrator from 2002-03. Additionally in 2003, he handled all the team advance scouting duties. Lohman joined the Texans in 2001 as a scouting intern.

Before entering the NFL ranks in 2001, he was a graduate assistant at Syracuse University, where he earned his master's degree in higher education.

In 1998, Lohman was a special teams and recruiting assistant at Hofstra.

Lohman graduated from the University of South Carolina, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management and worked with the Gamecock's football program as an undergraduate recruiting assistant. He and his wife, Mari, have a son, Brenden.

SILAS MCKINNIE

Regional Scout

Years with Lions: 9

Silas McKinnie enters his ninth season as personnel scout with the Lions. Prior to joining the club in 2003, McKinnie spent five NFL seasons (1997-2002) as a regional scout with the Minnesota Vikings.

Before joining the Vikings, McKinnie concluded a 20-year career as a college basketball coach, including a three-year stint as an assistant coach for the University of Miami (1994-96).

McKinnie played football at the University of Iowa from 1965-67, where he earned All-Big 10 honors as a running back. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in speech and dramatic arts. Following graduation, McKinnie played five seasons of professional football with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1968-71, '73). He signed with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972, but played the season with the Atlanta Falcons and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Silas Anthony McKinnie was born in Detroit. He attended Robichaud High School in Dearborn, Mich., where he earned all-state honors in both football and basketball. He has a daughter, Ixchel, and a son, Lance.

DAVE SEARS

Regional Scout

Dave Sears joined the team as a regional scout in May 2007 after spending seven seasons with the Houston Texans organization. He joined the Texans' personnel department in May 2000 to scout the central region.

Prior to his stint in Houston, Sears spent three seasons (1997-2000) working with Washington's scouting department. He started with the Redskins as an intern in January 1997 and was hired as their scouting administrator in May. Sears was promoted as the Redskins' BLESTO scout in May of 1998. He also spent time interning for the Springfield Falcons in the American Hockey League.

Sears earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Springfield (Mass.) College and he was a four-year linebacker for Springfield's football team. He attended Hauppauge High School in his hometown of Hauppauge, N.Y., and lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse.

Sears is married to wife, Nancy and together they have a daughter, Delaine.

DAVE UYRUS

National Scout

Dave Uyrus joined the Lions' personnel department as an area scout in June 2000, and 2011 marks his 12th season with the club. Prior to joining the club's scouting staff, Uyrus spent seven years (1994-2000) with New England. He started as their assistant director of pro scouting (1994-96) and then was director of pro scouting for three years (1997-99). Uyrus worked as a national scout for the Patriots in 2000.

Uyrus has been coaching and scouting in the collegiate and professional ranks for the past 30 years, beginning with his first job in 1974 as freshman coach of his alma mater, Middlebury College. In 1975, he coached the varsity tight ends at Brown University and the following year he was an assistant coach at Lee High School in Lee, Massachusetts. He then joined Dick MacPherson's staff at Massachusetts as a graduate assistant in 1977-78 before moving on to American International in 1979 and Merchant Marine Academy in 1980.

Following those stints, Uyrus then re-joined MacPherson's staff at Syracuse in 1981. He spent 10 seasons (1981-90) with the Orangeman, six as the tight ends and special teams coach (1985-90). He moved into the professional ranks after MacPherson was named the head coach of the Patriots in 1991. He spent the 1991-92 campaigns as the Patriots' assistant defensive line and special teams coach before coaching the tight ends and special teams at Cornell in 1993.

Uyrus earned honorable mention Little All-American, All-ECAC and All-New England Small College honors as a junior at Middlebury.

He and his wife, Heidi, have two daughters: Haley and Gwendolyn.

CEDRIC SAUNDERS

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Years with Lions: 6

Cedric Saunders is in his sixth year with the Lions and was named vice president of football operations September 24, 2008. In 2007, Saunders was promoted to director of football operations in his second season with the club. He came to Detroit after spending the previous five seasons with Tampa Bay.

Saunders works closely with Sr. Vice President and General Manager Martin Mayhew and oversees football operations, including the coordination of the year-round football calendar. Among his duties, Saunders oversees the Lions' player development department, video department, equipment operations, team travel, athletic training staff, strength and conditioning, cafeteria operations, security department and human resources. Along with the coordination of those departments, he handles the annual budgets for the coaching staff, coaching support staff and player personnel department.

He also assists with player personnel, including the development of the team's roster, college scouting and on-campus visits and pro talent evaluation. Saunders plays a role in the coordination of the team's free agency and draft agenda, including free agent and draft eligible visits.

Each season, Saunders is responsible for interviewing and hiring coaching interns as part of the NFL Minority Coaching Program.

In addition to his various football operations responsibilities, he also assists with contract negotiation.

While directing the player development department in Tampa Bay, Saunders helped get players involved in continuing education programs, off-season internships and jobs to prepare for possible post-NFL careers. He was also the main contact between the players and the club's community relations department and encouraged player involvement in charities and community activities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Saunders spent the previous two seasons as an area scout for the Kansas City Chiefs, evaluating college talent in the Midwest. A native of Sarasota, Fla., Saunders was in training camp for three seasons with Tampa Bay (1994-96), and saw action on both the practice squad and active roster in 1995 as a tight end and special teams player. He also played with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1997.

A four-year starter at Ohio State, Saunders posted 68 career receptions for 853 yards for the Buckeyes. He recorded 27 catches and earned second-team All-Big 10 honors as a senior in 1993 and was an honorable mention selection as a junior.

Saunders and his wife, Bashi, have two daughters, Reegan and Charlie Bleu, and two sons, Cayden and Kai.

DEAN KLEINSCHMIDT

COORDINATOR OF ATHLETIC MEDICINE/ ATHLETIC TRAINER

Years with Lions: 5

Dean Kleinschmidt, who was hired in April 2007, has acquired over three decades of experience in the athletic medicine field, most of which occurred on the NFL level. Kleinschmidt, now in his fifth season with the Lions, oversees the team's athletic training and medical operations.

Kleinschmidt's distinguished career as an athletic trainer includes 36 years in the NFL and three seasons in Division I college athletics. Prior to joining the Lions, he completed three seasons (2004-06) as the head athletic trainer for Indiana University's football program.

Previous to his stint at Indiana, Kleinschmidt was the head athletic trainer for the Washington Redskins (2002-03). For a two-year period, he worked in the private sector as the administrative director at East Jefferson Hospital Wellness Center in Metairie, La. (2001-02).

For 31 years, Kleinschmidt served as an assistant (1969-70) and head athletic trainer (1971-99) for the New Orleans Saints. He was promoted to head athletic trainer in 1971, becoming the NFL's youngest ever head athletic trainer at the age of 24.

Kleinschmidt is a 1970 graduate from Indiana University where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and safety and a major in athletic training. His work has been well-recognized throughout his career, and he is an inductee in the Senior Bowl Hall of Fame (2008), Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association (National Athletic Trainers Association District IX) Hall of Fame (2007), New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame (2002), National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1994) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame (1990).

In 2003, Kleinschmidt was awarded the National College Football Foundation Athletic Trainer of the Year and has received distinguished awards from Indiana University and the U.S. Sports Academy.

In 1986, he directed an athletic training department for the Saints that was named the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

In addition to his duties over the years, Kleinschmidt has coordinated all sports medicine efforts at the Senior Bowl All-Star Game in Mobile, Ala., since 1971. He also has served on the board of directors and as president, including three terms, of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. During his career, Kleinschmidt has been a member of two NFL advisory committees to the Commissioner: Drugs of Abuse & Alcohol and Anabolic Steroids & Related Substances.

Dean and his wife, Marlene, have a son, Rhett, and a daughter, Morgan. Rhett, who played wide receiver at Indiana University, is now a weekend sports anchor and reporter for the NBC affiliate WHDH-TV in Boston. Morgan is a sophomore at Louisiana State University.

AL BELLAMY

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Years with Lions: 11

Al Bellamy enters his 11th season as athletic trainer. In his role, Bellamy helps manage the team's athletic training staff and works closely with the team's physicians.

Bellamy arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. Bellamy began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI.

In 2009, Bellamy also served on the Gatorade Advisory Board.

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (Fla.) football team (1986-87). During this span, he worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship and included former Lions' safety Bennie Blades and wide receiver Brett Perriman. That assignment was his first full-time job and came after he had earned his master's degree in physical education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in health education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop John Carroll High School in Washington, DC. In recognition of Bellamy's career in athletic training, the school's annual Student Athletic Trainer and Manager of the Year Award is named in his honor.

He and his wife, Sharon, reside in Northville, Mich., with their son, Chase, and daughter, Ashley.

BILL KEENIST

SR. VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

Bill Keenist embarks upon his 27th year within the Lions' organization. In 2001, he was promoted to the post of senior vice president of communications. Keenist, the team's chief spokesman on organizational matters, oversees communications, community affairs and new media, and he works closely with other team business initiatives, including broadcasting, marketing, sales and tickets.

For seven years prior, Keenist served as a team vice president supervising the areas of communications, broadcasting and marketing. In 1994-95, Keenist directed the team's launch of several in-house media programs, including: a team television show, radio shows, a state-wide preseason TV and highlight show network, team newspaper, magazine and Internet site. Many of those entities are still in operation today.

Keenist has over the years assisted in the negotiations of broadcast contracts for local radio and TV, most recently including the Lions' radio deal in 2005 when the Lions renewed their relationship with Infinity Broadcasting by inking a new five-year deal that includes greater presence on the team's flagship station, 97.1 FM, and other auxiliary programming.

In 1997, Keenist directed a restructuring of the Lions' ticket office, which included the establishment of both telemarketing and group sales departments. In the season prior to these changes, the season ticket base had fallen to near 30,000. In 2002, the first year at Ford Field, the Lions sold out their regular season ticket packages and, for the first time, have a waiting list for prospective season ticket buyers.

Keenist has been with the Lions since 1985 when he was hired as assistant public relations director. In 1987 he was named director of public relations, a position he held until his appointment as director of marketing, broadcasting and communications in 1991. He held that position until 1994 when he was promoted to vice president for administration and communications.

In 1981, Keenist's NFL career began when he worked for the Washington Redskins as a public relations assistant. He was a member of the Redskins staff when the team won Super Bowl XVII in 1983 over Miami. He also served as the Redskins' director of promotions in 1983.

After leaving the Redskins, Keenist returned home to the Pittsburgh area where he was the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League in 1984. After the Maulers' one season in the USFL, Keenist served as the sports public relations director for the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, where he worked primarily with the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Keenist's talents have been recognized around the NFL. For Super Bowls XXIV through XXVIII he had the honor of being selected a public relations co-captain, which involves the coordination of all media-related activities at the Super Bowl. In all, he has worked a total of 18 Super Bowls for the NFL. In the past, he has served on the following NFL PR/Marketing Committees: Broadcasting; Governmental Affairs and Insider Magazine. Keenist has been the P.R. Chairman of the NFC Central division and Chairman of the Public Relations Special Projects Committee.

In 2002, Keenist was honored by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association with the "Best of the Best" award, which annually honors the top sports public relations person in the Detroit media market. In 2003, the Lions' 2002 club seat ticket commercial, produced by Keenist, was nominated for an EMMY, a first for any Lions' production.

Also among Keenist's accomplishments, he served as a member of Detroit's Super Bowl XL Communications Task Force Committee, and played a key role in the organization's public relations efforts during several Super Bowl XL related events.

Keenist holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. He also received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Ohio and was a recipient of a Sports Administration Scholarship from the NFL in 1981. As sports editor of The Ohio University Post in 1980, his sports section was named the Best College Sports Section in America by a national panel of sportswriters and columnists, an honor for which he received a post-graduate scholarship.

He then served a graduate internship at Duke University where he worked in the athletic department.

In 2004, Keenist was inducted into the Elizabeth Forward High School Hall of Fame in his hometown of Elizabeth, Pa., and was a member of the school's Class of 1976.

In 2006, Keenist was awarded a medal of merit by Ohio's Alumni Association, which annually honors alumni who have distinguished themselves in their respective professions.

Keenist, 53, lives in Oxford with his wife Cindy and their three children: sons, Billy and Christopher, and daughter, Lindsay. He is an active member of Oxford High School's Athletic Boosters, a member of the Oxford School District Strategic Planning Committee and serves on Oxford's School Board.

LUIS PEREZ

SR. VICE PRESIDENT - CFO

Year with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 7

Perez joined the Detroit Lions front office as Senior Vice President CFO this past offseason. His role will consist of overseeing the club and stadium's financial, insurance, banking, information technology, business systems, retail store and purchasing operations. Perez reports directly to President Tom Lewand. Before joining the Lions, he spent seven years as the managing director at Modell Ventures.

Perez comes to Detroit with 12-plus years of financial related experience in the sports industry. He has served as the chief financial officer for the Baltimore Ravens (1998-2004) as well as controller for the New York Knicks and the New York Rangers (1997-98). Prior to joining the Knicks and Rangers, Perez was controller for the Philadelphia Phillies (1992-97). He began his career as a member of the international accounting firm of KPMG (1986-92), becoming a CPA in 1990.

In 1986, Perez graduated from the College of New Jersey with a B.S. in accounting. While at the College of New Jersey, he was a captain of the baseball team and was an Academic All-America nominee after his junior and senior years.

Perez has sat on the board for The SEED Foundation since 2007. SEED (www.seedfoundation.com) partners with urban communities to provide innovative educational opportunities that prepare underserved students for success in college and beyond.

Born in Las Villas, Cuba, Luis moved to the United States at the age of four. He and his wife, Joanne, have three daughters: Kelly, Allison and Christina.

Complete biographical information available on Detroitlions.com.

MANE FACTS

- Having not started playing football until the 11th grade, Avril looked up to RB Barry Sanders and RB Emmitt Smith. When he started playing football, he'd pay attention to LB DeMarcus Ware and guys that played in the 3-4 scheme.
- Avril loves watching television shows Martin and the Fresh Prince.
- Avril enjoys playing basketball, but has slowed down a little now that he dedicates much of his time to football. He also likes to sit at home and play video games.
- During the offseason Avril likes to go home and chill out with his family since he doesn't see them much for half of the year.
- After football, Avril would like to own a couple of businesses. He wouldn't mind owning a few clothing stores, or a few stores in the mall back at home.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round (92nd overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft.

PRO

Through three NFL seasons, Avril has proven effective as a pass rusher and has a knack for forcing fumbles while taking down opponent's quarterbacks. In his career, he has played 41 games (28 starts), collected 93 tackles (65 solo), registered 18.0 sacks (120.5 yards lost), knocked down 7 passes, recovered 2 fumbles, forced 8 fumbles and has 3 special teams tackles.

- It didn't take long for Avril to prove himself as a pro during his rookie season as he quickly emerged as a regular contributor in the defensive end rotation. Among all rookie pass rushers in 2008, he finished tied for first with 5.0 sacks and was first with four forced fumbles.
- Avril ended his first season with 22 tackles, having played 15 games, including the final four as a starter.

2010: Team's starting left end. Registered career single-season high 8.5 sacks, despite missing three games due to injury, on the year to go along with 31 (22 solo) tackles and three pass defenses.

- His 8.5 sacks were the most by a Lions defensive end since DE James Hall registered 11.5 in 2004.
- Recorded a fumble recovery for a 10-yard gain which helped set up a 4-yard touchdown from RB Jahvid Best on the ensuing drive at Chicago (9/12). Also tallied a solo tackle.
- Inactive vs. Philadelphia (9/19) after suffering a knee and finger injury in opener at Chicago.
- Returned to the starting line-up at Minnesota (9/26) and recorded 3 tackles (2 solo) and a pass defensed. Avril's deflected pass resulted in a CB Alphonso Smith interception which led to a Lions field goal to end the first half.
- Recorded a career high 2.0 sacks for a loss of 16 yards, five tackles (3 solo), three tackles for loss and had two quarterback hits against the Washington Redskins (10/31).
- Registered a 9-yard loss on sack, and forced a fumble against New York Jets (11/7).
- Inactive (quadriceps) at Buffalo (11/14) and at Dallas (11/21).
- Returned to lineup against New England (11/25), recording two tackles (2 solo).
- Career-high 3.0 sacks against Chicago (12/5) for a loss of 21 yards. Added four tackles (4 solo). Became the first Lions defensive player to register 3.0 sacks in a game since DE Dwayne White had 3.0 sacks vs. Tampa Bay Oct. 21, 2007.
- Limited playing time as he injured ribs during game against Green Bay (12/12).
- Recorded eighth sack of the season with a 3-yard loss at Tampa Bay (12/19). Added one tackle for loss and two quarterback hits.
- Had two solo stops and one pass defense at Miami (12/26).
- Recorded a 0.5 sack for a loss of four in Lions win over Minnesota (1/2) in the season finale. Added five tackles (3 solo) and one pass defense.

COLLEGE

Avril moved to defensive end in his final two seasons for the Boilermakers and registered 30 of his 35.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage and 12.5 of his 13 sacks from the left end position. In 40 games at Purdue, he started in 35 contests, with 12 starts coming at strong-side linebacker and the other 23 at left defensive end. He was 12th in school history with 13 sacks for minus-79 yards and finished 11th in Purdue annals with 35.5 stops for losses of 137 yards.

- Named All-Big Ten Conference by the NFL Draft Report and second-team by the league's media in 2007 after starting all 13 games at left defensive end, where he led the team and tied for tenth in the conference with 6.5 sacks and returned an interception for a touchdown
- Started the first four games at strong-side linebacker in 2006 before shifting to left defensive end for the final 10 games.
- Played in 10 games as a sophomore in 2005 before a midseason back fracture forced him to sit out for the rest of the year and limited him in drills the following spring.
- Saw considerable action as a true freshman in 2004 while appearing in 12 games, starting four contests at strong-side linebacker.

PERSONAL

Attended Clay High School (Fla.) where he earned second-team All-State honors as a defensive end as a senior and was rated the 37th best outside linebacker in the nation by Rivals.com

- Named to the Florida Times-Union Super 24 team and twice earned All-Conference accolades.
- As a senior led the team to an 11-2 record and registered 80 tackles, 9.0 sacks, 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage and four passes defensed.
- Named to Class 3A All-State team by the Florida Sports Writers Association in his senior year.
- Lettered in basketball, track and field and weight lifting.
- Retail management major.
- Enjoys playing basketball.

- Named Lions 2009 Ed Block Courage award winner.
- Backus is only the second player out of the University of Michigan to be taken in the first round by the Lions, and the first since Detroit selected Bob Westfall in 1942 with its first pick.
- Although he spent most of his childhood in suburban Atlanta, Backus was born in Midland, Mich.
- Donated Lions' tickets for each home game to C.S. Mott's Children's Hospital through the Lions CATS (Caring Athletes Ticket Service) for Kids program.
- Took part in a special wall-raising ceremony to begin the building of the first Habitat for Humanity home sponsored by the Lions.
- Works with Mott Children's Hospital on numerous fundraisers throughout the season.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed with the Detroit Lions July 14, 2006 to a long-term contract extension (six-year deal).
- Designated by the Detroit Lions as the team's Franchise Player February 23, 2006 and signed one-year tender May 15, 2006.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (18th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

PRO

Backus has been the Lions' mainstay at left tackle since being drafted in the first round (18th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft, and has never missed a game or start (160 consecutive starts) in his career. He has more consecutive starts than any Lions offensive lineman in team history.

- Has longest streak among active interior (offense and defense) linemen in the NFL and streak is fourth longest in the NFL among active players.
- His 160 consecutive starts rank second all-time in team history behind Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau (171).
- Only player drafted in 2001 who has started every game as a pro.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, with his start vs. Minnesota in the 2010 season finale, Backus became the 10th offensive lineman since 1970 to start 160 consecutive games. Among offensive linemen who started their career since 1970, Backus is the first to begin their career starting their first 160 games.

- Part of an offensive line against Philadelphia (9/19), that helped team gain 115 yards rushing, including 78 yards and 2 touchdowns from rookie RB Jahvid Best.
- Part of offensive line unit that allowed just 1 sack on 33 pass plays in the Lions 44-6 win vs. St. Louis.
- Started his 150th consecutive game at the New York Giants (10/17). Became only second player in Lions history to start 150 consecutive games (CB Dick LeBeau, 171).
- In 37-25 victory over Washington (10/31), part of offensive line that allowed only 1 sack on 46 pass plays.
- Key member of offensive line unit that forged 190 rushing yards (season-high) against Packers (12/12), the most team rushing yards since the Lions registered 193 at Green Bay, Dec. 12, 2004.
- Rushing game ground out 181 yards at Tampa Bay (12/19) in the team's 23-20 overtime win and did not allow any sacks on 37 pass attempts. Paved way for RB Maurice Morris to gather 109 yards on the ground. Of the team's 63 yards that set up game-winning field goal in OT, 49 were on the ground including runs of 26 and 14 that started the drive.
- Offensive line helped team gain 180 yards in consecutive games for the first time since Dec. 2004 (215 vs. Arizona 12/5/04 and 193 at Green Bay 12/12/04).
- Started his 160th consecutive game in the Lions 20-13 win over Minnesota in the season finale.

COLLEGE

Starter for the Wolverines at left tackle from 1997-2000. Finished his career with 49 consecutive starts, one shy of the school record of 50 by current Detroit Lions' right tackle, Jon Jansen (1995-98).

- Teamed with Seattle Seahawks 2001 first-round pick, guard Steve Hutchinson, to man the left side of Michigan's offensive line in every campaign since their freshman year.
- Earned All-Big Ten honors four straight years and was an All-American second-team selection by College Football News and ABC Sports. Honorable mention from CNN/Sports Illustrated. Consensus All-Big Ten first-team pick as a senior.
- Co-recipient of the Hugh H. Rader Award for his junior and senior years, given to the team's top offensive lineman.
- In 1999, he was an All-Big Ten first-team selection by the media, and earned University of Michigan Athletic Academic Achievement honors after starting every game at left tackle.
- Started at left tackle during Michigan's Mar. to 1997 Rose Bowl and had a hand in Wolverines winning A.P. National Championship.
- Earned general studies degree in Dec. 2000.

PERSONAL

Selected to the first-team All-USA squad by USA Today at Norcross (Ga.) High. Was picked to Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super 11 and Super Seven of the Macon Touchdown Club and Chosen as the Gwinnett Touchdown Club Lineman of the Year.

- Selected to play in the Florida-Georgia All-Star Game following his senior season.
- Named All-American by Scholastic Coach, Schutt Sports, Reebok, Prep Football Report, Super Prep and was a member of Blue Chip Illustrated's Dream Team.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (30th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft.

PRO

Selected in the first round (30th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft. Best brings speed and elusiveness to the Lions backfield.

- Played in 15 games (11 starts) as a rookie and garnered 555 rushing yards on 171 attempts and scored 4 touchdowns. He also was a weapon out of the backfield as he set a Lions rookie record with 58 receptions that went for 487 yards along with two long touchdowns (75 and 53).

2010: Best proved his versatility during his rookie campaign despite battling injuries as he led all rookies with 1,042 total yards from scrimmage (555 rushing, 487 receiving) and scored 6 touchdowns (4 rushing, 2 receiving).

- Best was the first rookie in the league to score 5 touchdowns in his first two career games since Lions RB Billy Sims (4 rushing, 1 receiving).
- In regular season opener at Chicago (9/12), carried the ball 14 times for 20 yards and 2 touchdowns for 7 and 4 yards respectively. Best also caught 5 passes for 16 yards. Best's 2 rushing scores are the most by a Lions rookie running back in their first game since RB Billy Sims had three at the Los Angeles Rams Sept. 7, 1980. Both Best and Sims performances occurred on opening day. Best was the only rookie on opening day to record two rushing touchdowns.
- Against Philadelphia (9/19) rushed for 78 yards and 2 touchdowns and caught 9 passes for 154 yards and a touchdown. Best is the first rookie in NFL history with at least 75 yards, 150 receiving yards and 3 touchdowns in a single game. He is also the first player to accomplish the feat since Buffalo RB Joe Cribbs vs. Cleveland 11/1/81 (85 rushing, 163 receiving). Best's 232 all-purpose yards and 3 touchdowns are the fifth-most single-game total yards from scrimmage by a Lions player since 1960 and his 232 yards are the most by a rookie since 1960. His 232 total yards from scrimmage against the Eagles were the highest single-game tally by an NFC player in 2010.
- With 154 receiving yards, Best has most receiving yards in a game by a rookie running back during the Super Bowl era and most single-game receiving yards by a Lions rookie running back. 154 yards are the most since Dave Middleton recorded a team record 168 yards vs. Chicago (11/20/55). Best's 9 receptions are the most by a rookie running back in team history. Best's 75-yard screen pass for a touchdown in the second quarter ties for the fourth longest reception by a Lions rookie since 1947.
- Rushed 7 times for 26 yards and caught 2 catches for 13 yards at Minnesota (9/26) before having to leave the game with a toe injury.
- Combined for 96 yards against St. Louis (10/10), including 59 rushing yards and 37 receiving yards. It was his second-highest tally of total yards from scrimmage on the season. Career high 18 rushing attempts.
- Carried 9 times for 65 yards on the ground vs. Chicago (12/5), including a career-high 45-yard rush near the end of the second quarter that set up a Lions' touchdown. Added one catch for 32 yards.
- Had a 14-yard run on the second play of overtime at Tampa Bay (12/19) to help put the Lions in position to kick the game-winning field goal.
- Scored on 53-yard reception to bring Detroit within three with 4:37 left to play in come-from-behind victory over Miami (12/26). Added six carries on the ground for 24 yards.

COLLEGE

Best started 18-of-31 games at California, carrying the ball 364 times for 2,668 yards (7.33 yards per carry) and 29 touchdowns. Also caught 62 passes for 533 yards (8.60 yards per catch) and six scores. As a return specialist, Best had 32 kickoff returns for 844 yards (26.38 avg). Gained 4,045 all-purpose yards, an average of 130.48 yards per game. His 1,580 yards on the ground in 2008 rank second on Cal's season-record chart.

- His 311 rushing yards vs. Washington in 2008 set a new school record, topping the previous mark of 283 yards by Jerry Drew vs. Oregon State in 1954. His 311 yards also rank fourth in Pac-10 Conference history.
- Best's 29 TD runs tied for third on the school's career-record list.
- 13 100-yard rushing performances. Average of 8.14 yards per rushing attempt shattered the old school season-record. Best's 4,045 all-purpose yards ranks fifth in school history.
- His 2,247 all purpose yards in 2008 set a new school record. His career average of 26.38 yards per kickoff return topped the previous Cal all-time record of 25.3 yards per return by Isaac Curtis (1970-71).
- In 2009, All-Pac-10 Conference second-team selection by the league's coaches and The NFL Draft Report. Co-recipient of team's Bear Backers Offensive MVP Award. Started 8-of-9 games before being injured, carrying 141 times for 867 yards (6.15 ypc) and 12 TDs. His 12 scoring runs tied Jim Monachino (1949) for eighth on the school's season-record list. Had 22 carries for at least 10 yards (15.60%), including 12 for 20 yards or longer (8.51. Caught 22 passes for 213 yards (9.68 ypc) and four touchdowns, adding 18 yards on one kickoff return. Had eight receptions of at least 10 yards, including three that went for 20 or more yards.
- 2008 All-American second-team selection by The NFL Draft Report and College Football News. First-team All-Pac-10 Conference choice for the second straight year (special teams in 2007), as well as sharing the Bear Backers Award, given to the Team MVP, with seniors Zack Follett and Alex Mack, while taking home the team's Most Valuable Back honor. Led Pac-10 and ranked third in country in rushing, averaging 131.67 yards per game, as he finished with 1,580 and 15 TDs on 194 carries (8.14 yards per carry). His rushing yards were the second-highest ever at Cal, behind only J.J. Arrington's 2,018 yards in 2004.
- His 15 touchdowns on the ground in 2008 tied the school season-record. Led league and ranked second in the nation with 187.25 all-purpose yards per game. Led Pac-10 in kick return average (26.31), as he gained 421 yards on 16 attempts. Tied for the league lead in scoring with an average of 8.0 points per game. Became the first non-quarterback to pace Cal in total offense (eighth in the Pac-10) since Gary Fowler co-led the team in 1969, and the first running back to lead by himself since John Olszewski in 1952. Ran for over 100 yards in eight contests.
- In 2007, selected as the team's Most Valuable Freshman as well as Cal's J. Scott Duncan Award (Most Valuable Special Teams Player). Earned All-Pac 10 Conference first-team honors as a special team performer. As a true freshman, Best was the primary backup to Justin Forsett. On only 29 carries, he totaled 221 yards (7.62 ypc) and two touchdowns, adding 74 yards and a score on thirteen receptions (5.69 yards per catch). Returned fifteen kickoffs for 405 yards (27.0 avg). Gained 700 all-purpose yards, an average of 70.0 yards per game. Tallied 20 or more yards on 28.0% of his touches (16-of-57 plays).

PERSONAL

Attended Salesian High School (Richmond, Calif.). Earned Super Prep and Parade All-American honors as a senior. The consensus Bay Area Offensive Player of the Year rushed for 3,325 yards and 48 touchdowns as senior, setting Bay Area prep season-records. Was a "Best in the West" first-team choice by the Long Beach Press-Telegram, adding first-team All-State honors from CalHiSports.com that year.

- As a junior, Best ran for 1,444 yards and added 271 yards in receptions with 20 total touchdowns, including ten carries for 50 yards or longer.

COLLEGE

Started 16 of 27 games during his two-year career at Auburn, recording 88 tackles (50 solo), 13.0 sacks for minus 89 yards, 27.5 stops for losses totaling 126 yards and 32 tackles-for-loss, posting 28 quarterback pressures. Fairley also forced two fumbles and recovered three others, intercepted one pass and added a blocked kick. In 2010, Fairley set a school record with 11.5 sacks, topping the previous mark of 11.0 reached by Gary Walker (1994), Kevin Greene (1984) and Craig Olgetree (1989). Was the recipient of the Rotary Lombardi Trophy, awarded annually to the nation's top collegiate lineman and was named Defensive Most Valuable Player of the BCS Championship game in 2010 after registering 5 solo tackles and 1.0 sack for minus seven yards, three stops for losses of 14 yards and a forced fumble against the Ducks.

- Helped lead the Tigers' defense to be the NCAA's ninth-ranked rushing defense in 2010, allowing just 109.07 yards per game, in comparison to 2009 where Auburn ranked 78th vs. the run (156.08 yards per game) and 2008 when the run defense ranked 54th nationally (138.92 yards per game).
- Part of a defense that held Oregon, who averaged 49.33 points per game, to just 19 points in the BCS Championship game.
- In 2008, earned an All-Region XII selection after collecting 63 tackles with 7.0 sacks and nine stops for loss in seven games.
- Played and started in all 14 games in 2010, finishing with 60 tackles (36 solo), 11.5 sacks for minus 74 yards, 2 fumble recoveries, 1 interception and 21 quarterback pressures. Earned consensus All-American first-team selection (AP, Walter Camp and FWAA) and All-SEC first-team choice. Finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award (Top Defender) and honored as the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year.
- Earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors vs. Mississippi State, and Defensive Lineman of the Week honors vs. Louisiana-Monroe, Arkansas, Louisiana State and Alabama.
- Started the entire year at defensive tackle, ranking fifth on the team.
- Led the SEC and placed 12th nationally with 0.82 sacks per game. Also posted 24 stops for losses of 106 yards, as he led the conference and ranked third in the NCAA with 1.71 tackles-for-loss per game.
- Led a unit that was top in the SEC and ranked ninth in the nation, allowing 109.07 yards per game on the ground.
- Made 58 plays vs. the ground game, holding those ball carriers to minus 25 yards (-0.43 yards per carry), as the defender limited those runners to just three first downs while producing 12 third-down stops.
- Played in all 13 games in 2009 with just two starts and finished 13th on the team with 28 tackles (14 solo), including 1.5 sacks for minus 15 yards and 3.5 stops for losses totaling 20 yards. Added seven quarterback pressures, recovered a fumble and blocked a kick.
- Began collegiate career at Copiah-Lincoln Community College (2007-08) in Wesson, Mississippi.

PERSONAL

Attended Lillie B. Williamson High School (Mobile, Al) playing football for head coach Bobby Parrish. Was a 5A All-State selection by the ASWA and finalist for the 5A Lineman of the Year Award.

- Graded out a 97-percent on the offensive line and added 5 receptions for 150 yards as a tight end in 2007.
- Posted more than 90 tackles on defense while his Lions' squad registered a 6-5 record.
- Participated in the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star Classic as a senior and the AHSAA North/South All-Star game as a junior.
- Given a three-star rating by Rivals.com, who listed him as the 28th-best offensive guard prospect in the nation and the 15th-best recruit from the state of Alabama.
- Rated the 32nd-best offensive tackle recruit according to ESNP.com.
- Offered scholarships from Alabama, Kansas State, Louisville, Southern Mississippi and West Virginia before committing to Auburn.

COLLEGE

Fox started 47 games for the Hurricanes, ranking third in their history among offensive linemen behind the 48 registered by Mike Sullivan (1987-90) and Richard Mercier (1995-96, 98-99). The only other Hurricanes with more starting assignments than Fox was safety Ed Reed (48, 1998-2001) and defensive tackle William Joseph (50, 1999-2002).

- 39 of his starting assignments came at left offensive tackle, with eight other starts at right tackle during his freshman season.
- During his last two seasons serving as team captain, Fox recorded 177 knockdowns/key blocks, with 21 touchdown-resulting blocks and twelve downfield blocks, as he was penalized six times and allowed just 3.0 quarterback sacks, along with five pressures on the team's last 827 pass plays.
- Named first team All-ACC and an honorable mention Associated Press All-American in 2009. Two-time ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week after wins against Oklahoma and Virginia. Helped a Miami offense rack up 4,549 yards (3,056 passing, 1,493 rushing), which is the most since the 2004 season (4,593 yards).
- One of three team captains in 2008. Started 12 of 13 games for the Hurricanes at left tackle, missing his first career game against Virginia Tech.
- Scored a rushing touchdown on a tackle-throw-back play against Florida State from five yards out.
- In 2007, season-long starter at left tackle, moving over from the right side during spring practice. Started at left tackle against Marshall, Oklahoma, FIU, Texas A&M, Duke, North Carolina, Georgia Tech, Florida State, NC State, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Boston College.
- As a freshman in 2006, started the first 11 games of the season and returned to the starting lineup in the bowl game. Did not allow a sack all season. Started eight games at right tackle and four games at left tackle. Named first-team Freshman All-America by CollegeFootballNews.com and second team by The Sporting News and Rivals.com. Selected to The Sporting News ACC All-Freshman team.
- Named the team's Offensive Rookie of the Year. One of eight UM players who were selected to the 2006 ACC Academic Football Team.

PRO

The 20-year veteran, and one of the NFL's most productive kickers, is the Lions' all-time scoring leader with 1,890 points as well as the all-time leader in field goals (439) and extra points (573). Hanson is only the sixth player in NFL history to connect on 400 career field goals. With a 51-yarder at Indianapolis (12/14/08) Hanson recorded his 41st 50+-yard field goal and set the all-time record for 50+-yard field goals in his career by surpassing Morten Andersen.

- Voted team captain for fourth-straight year (2007-10).
- Hanson is the first kicker in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50+-yard field goals in a single season.
- In 2008, he was named to the Lions 75th Season All-Time Team.
- Hanson became only the eighth player in NFL history to surpass the 1,700-point mark in 2008, and with 1,890 career points he ranks second in all-time scoring amongst active players and seventh all-time.
- Also holds NFL record making 24 consecutive field goals of 40+ yards.
- Hanson ranks first in every statistical category for a place kicker in Lions history with longest field goal (56), field goals made (439), field goals attempted (536), points scored (1890), extra points made (573) and extra points attempted (581).
- He is also the franchise leader in games played with 295 and is the franchise's all-time leader in seasons played with 19.
- Is tied for the second-most games (295) played by a player with one team in NFL history.
- Hanson, who made Pro Bowl appearances following the 1997 and 1999 seasons, has led the Lions in scoring in each of his 18 pro seasons, one of two active players to lead his team in scoring for at least 18 seasons. He is the only player in NFL history to lead the same team in scoring for the first 18 years of their career.
- He is a five-time winner of the Lions' Yale Lary Special Teams Player of the Year Award (1993, '99, '03, '06 and '08).
- Has connected on 394-of-453 (.870) career field goal attempts inside the 50-yard line and is a remarkable 276-of-290 (.952) from inside the 40-yard line for his career. From 40+ Yards, he is 163-of-246 (.663).
- Hanson has proved to be a valuable asset to the Lions as the team is 69-63 (.523) in his career when he kicks two-or-more field goals in a game, 40-20 (.667) when he makes three-or-more and 17-5 (.773) when he converts four field goals in a contest.
- In addition, Hanson has made 17 game-winning, fourth quarter or overtime kicks during his career (10 in regulation; seven in overtime).
- The Spokane, Wash., native has only missed eight extra points in his career (570-of-578) and has been perfect in PAT tries in 11 different seasons (1992-93, 1995-96 and 2000-02, 2004-06, 2009).
- Hanson has been quite accurate at Ford Field since the Lions began play there in 2002, going 120-for-136 (.882) on field goal attempts, which include five fourth-quarter or overtime game-winners and a long of 54 yards. He has made the second-most field goals at home (119) in the NFL since 2002.
- On kicks from 40+yards at home since 2002, Hanson is 50-of-63 (79.4). He has the best field goal percentage at home for that range among kickers with at least 40 attempts.

2010: The season opener marked Hanson's 19th NFL season and his 288th game. Hanson is tied for third for the most seasons a player has played with the team that originally drafted them. He is behind Hall of Fame T Jackie Slater 20 with L.A. Rams) and Hall of Fame CB Darrell Green (20 with Washington Redskins). He is also 11th overall in League history in career games. On the season, he was 3-of-4 (.750) on 50-yard attempts and 7-of-9 (.778) on 40+-yard attempts.

- Was 3-of-3 on PATs and connected on a 49-yard field goal vs. Philadelphia (9/19) in the second quarter to put the Lions ahead, 10-7.
- Was successful on four field goals, including a 52-yarder at Green Bay (10/3). The 52-yarder was his 43rd career 50-yard field which extended his NFL record for the most career 50-yard field goals. Hanson has made a 50-yard field goal in 16 of his 19 NFL seasons, including the last 6 seasons. He is now tied with K Gary Anderson for third place in NFL History for the most games with four field goals.
- Connected on three field goals against St. Louis (10/10) and was a perfect 5-of-5 on PATs.
- Scored 14 points against the Rams marking the first time in his career he has scored at least 14 points in back-to-back games.
- Connected on two 50-yard field goals (50, 50) at the New York Giants (10/17), his 44th and 45th of his career. Tied an NFL Record with three other players (Josh Brown, Martin Gramatica and John Kasay) by making two 50-yard field goals in a game for the fourth time in his career.
- Played in his 295th career game vs. the New York Jets (11/7) and tied Hall of Fame CB Darrell Green (Washington Redskins, 1983-2002) for the second-most games played by a player with one team.
- Was 2-for-2 in PATs against the New York Jets (11/7). Suffered injury on a roughing the kicker penalty following short field goal attempt during the third quarter Was not able to perform normal kickoff duties for rest of game, but kicked extra point in fourth quarter.
- Missed only his second game of his 19-year career (inactive) due to a right knee injury at Buffalo (11/14).
- Inactive at Dallas (11/21) and against New England (11/25), after suffering knee injury at the New York Jets (11/7).
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list for the first time of his career Dec. 1, 2010.

MANE FACTS

- Hill earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. St. Louis (11/16/08), where he became the first 49ers quarterback to post a perfect QB rating in the first half.
- Loves to fish. Quarterback started reeling in fish inhabiting farm ponds in his home state of Missouri during high school. When he lived in Minnesota as a member of the Vikings, Shaun caught a 30-inch, 9-pound walleye on his first trip out. He was able to lure the fish using a leech for bait 40-feet deep. Also in his fishing repertoire is a 48-inch muskie.
- Shaun owns all of the weightlifting records for quarterbacks at Maryland - power clean (303 lbs), bench press (320 lbs), and squat (500 lbs).
- Has supported the Muscular Dystrophy Association.
- Hosts annual fundraising golf tournament at high school alma mater to benefit booster club. Hosts annual football camp in conjunction with the Parsons Police Football League.

TRANSACTIONS

- Signed one-year contract extension (thru 2011) July 10, 2010.
- Acquired by the Detroit Lions via trade from the San Francisco 49ers Mar. 16, 2010.
- Signed by the San Francisco 49ers as an unrestricted free agent June 2, 2006.
- Signed as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Minnesota Vikings Apr. 25, 2002.

PRO

As a proven, veteran quarterback, Hill adds valuable depth to the team's quarterback position. Has a 13-13 record as a starter (9-3 at home).

- Through first 16 career starts (10-6), his career .625 winning pct. as a starter was the fourth-highest winning percentage among all undrafted quarterbacks since 1970 (min. 10 starts). All 16 starts at quarterback occurred while with the San Francisco 49ers (2006-09) and winning percentage (.625) is the third highest winning percentage in 49ers history.
- In his first NFL start, he set a record for the highest completion percentage in NFL history for a player making his first pass attempts.
- Entered NFL as undrafted rookie free agent in 2002 with Minnesota where he served primarily as the team's third quarterback from 2002-05.
- While with Minnesota, he worked with Lions Offense Coordinator Scott Linehan (2002-04) who served in the same role for the Vikings.

2010: Team's back-up quarterback. Completed 257-of-416 passes (60.7 pct) on the year for 2,686 yards and 16 touchdowns.

- Came in during the third quarter in season opener at Chicago (9/12) after QB Matthew Stafford had to leave the game with a shoulder injury. Finished with 9 of 19 pass completions for 88 yards and an interception.
- Started and connected on 25-of-45 passes for career-high 335 yards, including a career-long of 75 on screen pass to RB Jahvid Best for a TD vs. Philadelphia (9/19).
- At Minnesota (9/26), Hill completed 67.4-percent of his passes (29-of-43) for 237 yards and a touchdown. His 5-yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler in the first quarter gave Detroit a 7-0 lead.
- At Green Bay (10/3), completed 34-of-54 for 331 yards and two TDs. 237 yards in first half were a career high in first two quarters. 34 completions and 54 attempts were both single-game career highs. 34 pass completions are the second-highest single game tally for a Lions' quarterback in team history.
- Hill completed 21-of-32 passes for 227 yards and three touchdowns against St. Louis (10/10). His passing rating on the day was 117.6. His passer rating was the second highest of his career, second only to his 142.3 rating vs. St. Louis (11/16/08). 117.6 rating was the highest by a Lions' quarterback since QB Jon Kitna registered 137.3 vs. Chicago (9/30/07). Also highest rating by Lions QB with 30 pass attempts since QB Joey Harrington recorded a rating of 121.8 vs. Arizona (11/13/05).
- When Hill connected with WR Nate Burleson on a 26-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter against the Rams, it was Hill's third touchdown pass of the game, which is the most he's thrown for since joining the Lions and it ties his career high (3 vs. Tampa Bay 10/23/07).
- Left game in second quarter at the New York Giants (10/17) with broken arm. Threw one TD to Nate Burleson (14 yards) in the first quarter.
- Listed as inactive vs. Washington (10/31) after breaking forearm in game at New York Giants (10/17). Also next week vs. New York Jets (11/7/)
- Was 29-of-50 for 323 yards at Buffalo (11/14). Threw TD pass to Calvin Johnson 0:14 seconds left in game to bring Lions within two points. Surpassed the 300-yard mark in passing--fourth career 300-yard passing game and third highest tally of season in six starts.
- Threw for 289 yards passing and was 32-of-47 with two TDs at Dallas (11/21). 32 completions tied for team's sixth-highest single-game tally.
- Completed 27-of-46 passes for 285 yards vs. New England. Connected with Calvin Johnson for a 19-yard score at the end of the first quarter.
- In return from a broken index finger, Hill helped steer the Lions to a 34-27 win at Miami (12/26)--team's first-ever win at Miami in five tries. Was 14-of-26 for 222 yards, tossed two TDs (no picks) and garnered 108.2 passer rating in a game played in windy conditions (22 MPH).
- Hill gave Lions a 10-7 lead in the second quarter against Dolphins when he hit TE Brandon Pettigrew on 20-yard pass for the team's first TD of the game. Trailing 17-10 in the third quarter, Hill engineered an 14-play, 86-yard drive on Lions first possession in second half that was capped off by 5-yard run by RB Maurice Morris. On the drive, Hill was 5-of-7 for 60 yards. After Lions forced Dolphins punt in fourth quarter, Hill changed game on next play when he found rookie RB Jahvid Best over the middle and he raced 53 yards for a TD that pulled the Lions within 3 points of the Dolphins (24-27). The TD was first of 17 points scored by Lions with under 5 minutes to play on way to fourth quarter come-from-behind win for the third week in a row.
- Led team to a 20-13 victory against Minnesota (1/2). Finished with 258 yards passing and was 28-of-39 with one touchdown pass.

- Pro Bowl: 2011
- 2011 AP All-Pro Second Team
- Calvin Johnson, Jr. Foundation was established in 2009 that focuses on the self-development and empowerment of aspiring youth. The Calvin Johnson Jr. Foundation, Inc.'s vision is to see youth emerge out of seemingly difficult situations and change into productive members of society. The foundation's motto is "Catching Dreams", and it provides scholarships to Metro Detroit and Metro Atlanta football athletes, gives toys to children during the Christmas holidays in Detroit and Atlanta, collaborates with The Department of Corrections Metro Atlanta Transitional Women's Center in providing toys to inmate children, conducts a free Wide Receiver Camp for rising 9th-12th grade Metro Atlanta football athletes on football and life skills along with other miscellaneous donations and support.
- Growing up in Atlanta, Johnson was a big Deion Sanders fan. But on Sundays, he was a Denver Broncos fan, mostly because he loved to watch Terrell Davis.
- When Johnson first started playing football, he was a defensive back and running back. He started playing receiver when he got to high school.
- Johnson enjoys drawing and wants to finish his degree in management and eventually buy a business franchise.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (2nd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

PRO

One of the NFL's elite receivers who possesses a unique blend of size, strength and speed. With 4,171 yards, Johnson has the most receiving yards by a Lions player in their first four years with the club. His 270 receptions and 33 receiving touchdowns are all first in each category among Lions' players in their first four season with the team.

- 2010 post-season accolades include: NFC starter for 2011 Pro Bowl. Johnson is first Lions wide receiver to be named to the Pro Bowl since WR Roy Williams in 2007 and he is the seventh Lions Pro Bowl receiver in team history. Became the first Lions offensive player to be elected to the original Pro Bowl squad (non-alternate) since TE David Sloan in 2000 and first receiver since WR Herman Moore in 1998.
- Second Team AP All-Pro in 2010.
- Career rushing totals include 18 attempts for 175 yards (9.7 avg) and one TD.
- Since the 2008 season, Johnson is tied for second with 29 receiving touchdowns, sixth in receiving yards (3,435) and is fifth in the NFL with 32 receptions of 25+ yards.
- Since entering the NFL in 2007, Johnson has recorded 38 receptions of 25+ yards.
- Johnson's 13 career 100-yard games are tied for fifth on the Lions' all-time list.
- Only player in team history with 1,000 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns in 2 separate seasons (2008 and 2010).
- Fastest player in team history to reach 4,000 career receiving yards (59 games).
- Johnson is the only player in Lions history with two receptions of 85+ yards.
- With three career receptions of 75+ yards, he is tied with WR Herman Moore and WR Cloyce Box for the second-most receptions of 75+ yards in franchise history behind WR Leonard Thompson (4).
- With four career receptions of 70+ yards, Johnson is tied with WR Herman Moore for the second-most receptions for 70+ yards in team history behind WR Leonard Thompson (5).
- Johnson has now caught passes in all 60 games he has played in his career. His streak of 60-consecutive games with a reception is the longest active streak by a Lions receiver.
- In 2008, he led Detroit with 78 receptions for 1,331 yards (17.1 avg.) and 12 touchdowns. Johnson finished the 2008 season with some of the top offensive statistics in the NFL: tied for first in touchdown receptions (12), fifth in receiving yards (1,331), second in yards per catch among receivers with 60 receptions (17.1), tied for second in 20+-yard receptions (21), tied for second in 40+-yard receptions (seven) and tied for first in 25+-yard touchdown catches (six).
- He was also named an alternate to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl squad.

2010: Caught 77 catches for 1,120 yards and 12 touchdowns. Tied for second in the NFL in TD catches (12), seventh in receiving yards (1,120) and tied for 12th in receptions (77). Earned starting spot on 2011 NFC pro Bowl squad. Named Second Team AP All-Pro.

- Became first player in team history to record 12 receiving touchdowns in two separate seasons.
- Surpassed most career receptions (270), receiving yards (4,191) and receiving touchdowns (33) by a Lions player in their first four seasons with the club in 2010.
- Recorded 4 receptions for 45 yards in season opener at Chicago (9/12). Made a spectacular reception in the end zone with :31 seconds remaining on the clock, however the play was ruled an incomplete pass.
- Caught 6 passes for 56 yards, including a long of 21 at Minnesota (9/26). Also added a carry for 2 yards.
- Third two-touchdown game of his career at Green Bay (10/3), the other two also came against the Packers. Had six receptions for 86 yards.
- Had four catches for 54 yards and a touchdown (1-yard grab) against St. Louis (10/10). Left game late with shoulder injury.
- The 146-yard effort at the New York Giants (10/17) was his 10th 100-yard receiving game of his career, becoming the seventh player in team history with 7 100-yard receiving games. His 146 yards are the third-highest single-game tally of his career.
- Touchdown reception for 87 yards against the Giants was his second longest reception of his career, and became the first Lion to record two 85+-yard receptions in a career.
- Second 100-yard receiving game of the season against Washington (10/31) with 101 yards. He tied a career high nine catches, and had a career-high three touchdowns in the win (each TD took lead in game). The first time a Lions receiver had three touchdown receptions since Roy Williams Nov. 13, 2005.
- It marked the fourth time in his career that he caught at least two touchdowns in a game and the first time against a team other than Green Bay.
- With 3 touchdown receptions, Johnson passed WR Roy Williams (28, 2004-07) for the second-most receiving touchdowns by a Lions receiver in their first four seasons.
- His 101 yards marks the 11th time in his career that he has recorded 100 yards in a game. He has 100 receiving yards in the past two games (146 at New York Giants 10/17) for a two-game tally of 257 yards.
- It is the second time in his career that he has recorded 100 yards in back-to-back games and first since he did so in 2008 (107 at Atlanta 9/7/08 and 129 vs. Green Bay 9/14/08).
- With 101 receiving yards, Johnson passed WR Gail Cogdill (3,534 yards, 1960-63) for the second-most receiving yards by a player in their first four seasons with the Lions.
- Johnson surpassed WR Brett Perriman (226, 2004-07) for the second-most receptions by a Lions' receiver in their first four seasons with the club.
- In the four games he played in Oct., Johnson was quite formidable throughout the month of Oct. as he caught 24 passes for 387 yards and scored 7 touchdowns in the four games the Lions played in the month. He was a critical piece to the Lions going 2-2 in Oct. and winning both home games.
- Johnson's set a franchise record with 7 receiving touchdowns for the month of Oct.. He broke the previous mark of 6 touchdown receptions by WR Herman Moore in 1995. Johnson also set a franchise record with 7 total touchdowns in Oct.. He broke the previous record of 6 held by QB Dutch Clark (Portsmouth Spartans in 1930, 6 rushing), QB Greg Landry (1972, 6 rushing) and WR Herman Moore (6, 1995).
- He became the first receiver in the NFL to score 7 touchdowns in Oct. since 2000 (San Francisco WR Terrell Owens, 7; Minnesota WR Randy Moss, 7), and he is the first player to record 7 total touchdowns in the month since 2006 (San Diego RB LaDanian Tomlinson, 8; Kansas City RB Larry Johnson, 10).
- His 387 receiving yards are the most by a Lions receiver in Oct. since WR Herman Moore registered 415 receiving yards.
- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against Washington (10/31) in Week 8.
- Had a career high 10 catches for 128 yards and 1 touchdown at Buffalo (11/14). His 10 receptions marked the first time a Lions' receiver caught 10 passes in a game since WR Mike Furrey (11) at Dallas Dec. 31, 2006.
- Johnson's 128 receiving yards was his 12th career 100-yard receiving game, and third in the past four games. With 12 career 100-yard games, Johnson tied WR Gail Cogdill for the sixth-most career 100-yard receiving games by a Lions' receiver.
- Johnson caught a 20-yard touchdown pass from QB Shaun Hill with :14 seconds left in the game to set up a potential game-tying two-point conversion. The touchdown reception was Johnson's 30th career reception and he joined WR Cloyce Box (32 from 1949-50, '52-53) as the only players in Lions history to register 30 receiving touchdowns in their first four years with the Lions.
- With 128 receiving yards against the Bills, it pushed his career total to 3,750 yards. He moved past WR Roy Williams (3,652 from 2004-07) for the most receiving yards by a Lions' receiver in the first four years with the club.
- Caught 6 passes, including one touchdown, for 46 yards at Dallas (11/21). With six receptions vs. the Cowboys, he has now tallied 248 career catches, and he passed WR Roy Williams (245) for most catches by a Lions receiver in their first four years with the club.

- With a 14-yard touchdown reception at Dallas, he became the first Lions player to register 10 total touchdowns in the first 10 games played in a season since Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders (9 rushing, 1 receiving) in 1991. All 10 of Johnson's touchdowns have been pass receptions, and he is the first Lions receiver to record 10 receiving touchdowns in the first 10 games he played in a season since WR Terry Barr in 1963.
- Johnson joined Barr and E Leon Hart (1951) as only players in team history with 10 receiving TDs through first 10 games played in a season.
- By reaching 10 receiving touchdowns in 2010, Johnson became only the third player in Lions history to register 10 receiving touchdowns in two different seasons. Johnson recorded 12 touchdowns in 2008. He joined E Cloyce Box (11 in 1950 and 15 in `1952) and WR Herman Moore (11 in 1994 and 14 in 1995) and the only receivers in franchise history to accomplish this feat.
- Finished with 4 receptions for a team-high 81 yards and 1 TD vs. New England (11/25). Also added a rush for 15 yards.
- Touchdown catch in first quarter was Johnson's 32nd career touchdown reception, tying E Cloyce Box (1949-50, 52-53) for the most touchdown catches by a player in their first four seasons with the Lions.
- He is the first Lions player to score 11 total touchdowns in the first 11 games he played in a season since Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders (14) in 1991. He is the eighth player in team history (11th overall) to record 11 touchdowns in the player's first 11 games of a season.
- Caught 12th touchdown pass of the season on 46-yard score from Drew Stanton against Chicago (12/5). Second season in his career to record 12 touchdowns in a season.
- Passed E Cloyce Box (1949-50, '52-53) for most receiving touchdowns in first four season of their career with the Lions with 33.
- Johnson became the fifth player in team history (sixth-time overall) to record 12 total TDs in the first 12 games played in a season, and the first to do so since Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders (14) in 1991. Johnson joined E Cloyce Box (15 in 1952) and E Leon Hart (12 in 1951) to register 12 receiving touchdowns in the first 12 games played in a season.
- Had a single catch for 44 yards against Green Bay (12/12).
- Tied career-high with 10 catches at Tampa Bay (12/19) to help guide the team to a 23-20 overtime win on the road. Finished with 152-yards receiving. His 152 receiving yards is the third highest single-game tally of his career.
- His clutch performance was most apparent on the team's game-tying drive at the end of regulation and in overtime. With 1:39 to play in the game and no timeouts, the team mounted a 10-play, 58-yard drive that set up the game-tying field goal at the end of regulation. On that drive, Johnson caught two passes for 4 and 23 yards on consecutive plays. The 23-yarder moved the ball from the Buccaneers 45-yard line down to the 22-yard line and put the team in great position for a field goal.
- In overtime, Johnson again put the team in great position for a field goal when he made a highlight, 12-yard reception along the sideline that moved the ball to the Buccaneers 25-yard line as the team faced 3rd down and 8. Four plays later the team kicked a 34-yard game-winning field goal.
- At Tampa Bay, Johnson surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and became the first player in Lions history to record 1,000 receiving yards and 12 touchdown receptions in two seasons (also accomplished in 2008).
- Johnson joined WR Terry Barr (1963-64), WR Brett Perriman (1995-96), WR Herman Moore (1994-97) and WR Johnnie Morton (1997-99, 2001) as the only players in team history with two 1,000-yard receiving seasons.
- He also surpassed 4,000 career receiving yards during the team's overtime win against the Buccaneers and reached that mark in 59 games to become the fastest player in team history to reach 4,000 receiving yards (previous best was WR Gail Cogdill in 62 games from 1960-64).
- Johnson's 152-yard outing was the 13th 100-yard game of his career, moving him into a tied with WR Roy Williams (2004-08) for fifth place on the team's all-time list for 100-yard receiving outings. He also joined E Cloyce Box (3), WR Gail Cogdill (3), WR Leonard Thompson (3), WR Herman Moore (5) and WR Jonnie Morton (3) as the only players in team history with three 150-yard receiving games.
- Recorded four catches for 52 yards at Miami (12/26) before leaving the game early with an ankle injury.
- Against the Dolphins, Johnson surpassed 1,100 receiving yards on the season, which marks the second time in his four-year career he has reached 1,100 yards (1,331 in 2008). He joins WR Herman Moore (4 times 1994-97) and WR Johnnie Morton (twice, 1999 and 2001) as the only receivers in team history to record 1,100 receiving yards twice in a season.
- Did not play (ankle) in final game of season vs. Minnesota (1/2).

COLLEGE

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on injured/reserve list (Achilles) on August 13, 2011
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (57th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

PRO

Suffered ruptered Achilles tendon in training camp and will miss entire rookie season.

COLLEGE

Started 17 of 33 games at Illinois, carrying the ball 424 times for 2, 557 yards (6.03 yards per carry) and 23 touchdowns. Added 37 receptions for 439 yards (11.86 yards per catch) and 5 touchdowns to his career total. His 2,557 rushing yards tie Juice Williams (2006-09) for sixth place on the school career-record list, while his 23 touchdown runs tie the legendary Red Grange (1923-25) and Ty Douthard (1993-96) for seventh on the school career-record chart. In 2010, his 1,697 yards on the ground broke the previous Illini season-record of 1,681 yards by Rashard Mendenhall (2007), and his 281 rushing attempts are the second-highest season total by an Illinois player, surpassed by only Robert Holcombe (297 in 1997).

- Gained 330 yards rushing vs. Northwestern in 2010, topping the old school game-record of 315 by Robert Holcombe vs. Minnesota in 1996. They are the only Illini ball carriers to gain 300 yards rushing in a contest.
- Ran for 100 yards in 12 contests, tying Jim Grabowski (1963-65) for second in school annals behind Robert Holcombe's 16 (1994-97).
- Generated 1,893 all-purpose yards in 2010, joining Mendenhall (1,999 in 2007) and Keith Jones (1,818 in 1988) as the only Illini players to gain over 1,800 all-purpose yards in a campaign.
- Had a career-best vs. Northwestern his senior year, the most by a Big Ten player in a game since Ron Dayne of Wisconsin amassed 341 yards vs. Hawaii in 1996. His 341 all-purpose yards rank second on the school game-record chart behind Grange's 402 vs. Michigan in 1924.

2010: Started in all 13 games played, rushing for 1,697 yards on 281 carries for 17 touchdowns. His 281 carries rank second-best season total in Illini annals while his 17 scores tied the Illini annual record that Mendenhall first set in 2007. Ranked second in the league and fifth in the nation with an average of 130.54 yards per game rushing. Also added 17 receptions for 196 yards and 3 touchdowns. His 20 total touchdowns and 122 points scored established a pair of school season records. Finished 20th nationally and second in the conference with an average of 145.62 alll-purpose yards per game. All-American second-team selection by the NFL Draft Report and the Associated Press, earning third-team recognition from Rivals.com and honorable mention from Sports Illustrated.

- Ran for over 100 yards nine times, surpassing Mendenhall's record of eight in 2007.
- Was a consensus All-Big-Ten Conference first-team pick, adding Big Ten Player of the Week honors three times and Walter Camp Football Foundation National Player of the Week accolades vs. Northwestern.
- Broke the Illini annual mark with nine 100-yard rushing performances.
- Generated 84 first-down carries, converting 14-of-26 third-down snaps and all seven of his fourth-down tries.
- On 264 non-touchdowns runs, it took more than one defender to take him down 93 times (25.23%).
- Gained at least 10 yards on 43 carries, including 16 for 20 yards or longer.
- Had crucial rushing attempts that led to 29 Illini touchdowns and on twelve other possessions that resulted in field goals.
- Carried for positive yardage 43 times inside the red zone, including 18 times on goal-line plays.

2009: Started in 3 of 11 games played, rushing for 734 yards on 108 carries for 5 touchdowns, and placed fifth on the team with 14 receptions for 177 yards and 2 scores. His 108 carries placed first on the team. All-Big Ten Conference honorable mention.

- Recorded 3 solo tackles, 1 vs. Missouri and 2 at Ohio State.
- His average of 66.73 yards per game rushing ranked sixth in the Big Ten and 77th nationally.

2008: Played in nine games and started in one contest at tailback vs. Indiana as a true-freshman. Ranked fourth on the team with 126 yards on 35 carries (3.6 yards per carry) that included 1 touchdown. Add 66 yards on 6 receptions (11.0 yards per catch).

PERSONAL

Attended Centennial High School (Champaign, Ill), playing football for Head Coach Mike McDonnell. Received a three-star prospect rating from both Rivals.com and Scout.com after his senior season. Rated the tenth-best overall prospect in the state and the nation's 28th-best running back by Rivals.

- Named first-team All-State by the Champaign News-Gazette, earning special mention All-State honors by the Chicago Tribune in 2007.
- The Prep Star All-American was also a member of Scouts.com's Midwest Hot 100 squad.
- During his sophomore season, he rushed for over 1,400 yards.
- As a junior, he received All-Area, All-Conference and All-State first-team honors and accumulated 2,474 yards, averaging 6.4 yards per carry, scoring 29 touchdowns on the ground and picking up 192 yards and 3 more scores receiving in only 10 games.
- Closed out his Chargers career by 4,652 yards on 681 carries for an average of 6.8 yards, as he scored 52 rushing touchdowns.
- Son of Jacqueline Frazier-Jones and resides in Champaign, Illinois.

- Favorite TV shows are The Wire, The Office, True Blood and Entourage.
- Levy has always had an interest in traveling and looks forward to having more opportunities. Future travel plans include a trip to Botswana where he wants to go on a nine-day safari.
- After his football career, Levy would like to do something back in Milwaukee with some of the high school kids whether it be mentoring them or getting them active in the summer so that they have something to look forward to.

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round (76th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

Tough, young linebacker whose speed and physical play is an asset for the Lions' defense. Moved to starting middle linebacker position in 2010 after playing outside as a rookie. Emerged as one of the league's top rookie linebackers in 2009.

- Has played in 27 career games (21 starts), and has recorded 151 tackles (109 solo) and six special teams tackles thus far in his career.
- Became a regular starter for the team's linebacker corps mid-way through his rookie season.

2010: Levy battled through injuries and solidified team's starting middle linebacker. Recorded 72 tackles (54 solo) in 11 games (11 solo).

- Was inactive for the season opener at Chicago (9/12) and vs. Philadelphia (9/19) due to a groin injury.
- Returned to the starting line-up at Minnesota (9/26), recording 2 solo stops.
- Inactive at Green Bay (10/3), vs. St. Louis (10/10) and at the New York Giants (10/17) due to a groin injury.
- Returned to starting lineup against Washington (10/31) after being out three weeks due to a groin injury. Recorded four tackles (4 solo).
- Led the team with 10 tackles (9 solo) against the New York Jets (11/7).
- Recorded 6 tackles (3 solo) at Buffalo (11/14). Had one forced fumble.
- Led team with 6 solo (7 total) tackles at Dallas (11/21). Fumble recovery near end of second half to set up Nate Burleson touchdown catch from Shaun Hill.
- Led team with 8 tackles (2 solo), two pass defenses and interception against Green Bay (12/12). Interception in endzone that stopped Green Bay's drive.
- Led the team with 11 tackles (11 solo) along with one pass defense at Tampa Bay (12/19).
- Capped off Lions fourth quarter come-from-behind win at Miami (12/26) when he returned an interception 30 yards for a touchdown that broke a 27-27 tie with 2:11 left in the game and catapulted the Lions victory. It was his third career interception and first career interception return for a touchdown. Along with the interception, Levy finished the game with 4 tackles.
- Levy's interception return for touchdown against the Dolphins marked just the third time since 1991 that a Lions player has returned an interception for a touchdown in the fourth quarter that gave the Lions the lead in a victory. The last time it occurred was when CB Keith Smith returned an interception 64 yards for a touchdown with 13:14 in the fourth quarter vs. the Chicago Bears Sept. 30, 2007 to make the score 17-3 (Lions won 37-27). Previous to that, the last time only other time it has occurred since 1991 was when CB Sheldon White (now the team's VP of Pro Personnel) returned an interception 18 yards for a touchdown with 9:41 to play in the fourth quarter at Buffalo Dec. 22, 1991 that gave the Lions a 14-7 lead which helped the claim a 17-14 win in overtime.
- Levy became the first Lions linebacker to return an interception for a touchdown since LB Paris Lenon registered a 61-yard interception return for a score vs. Kansas City Dec. 23, 2007.
- Led team with 11 tackles (4 solo) in season-ending win vs. Minnesota (1/2).

COLLEGE

The defense's sparkplug from the strong-side linebacker position at Wisconsin, Levy provided the Badgers with a quality blitzer with the quickness to easily cover receivers on deep routes. As a senior in 2008, Levy started in all 13 games at strong side linebacker and ranked second on the team with 73 tackles (28 solo) and five sacks for minus 41 yards.

- In 21 of his last 39 games, he registered at least one tackle behind the line of scrimmage or a sack.
- Creating turnovers became his specialty as he blocked one kick, intercepted two passes, caused six fumbles and registered six fumble recoveries during his time in the starting lineup.
- Levy closed out his career with 211 tackles (116 solo), 15.0 sacks for minus 105 yards, 28.0 stops for losses totaling 155 yards and 10 QB pressures. Also caused six fumbles and recovered six others, returning one 45 yards, deflected seven passes, intercepted two others and blocked a kick.
- Started all 13 games at strong-side linebacker in 2008 and ranked second on the team with 73 tackles (28 solos), collecting five sacks for minus 41 yards, 9.5 stops for losses of 51 yards and one quarterback pressure. All-Big Ten Conference honorable mention by the league's coaches and media. Recipient of the Tom Wiesner Award, given to a senior football player who most exemplifies the leadership and courage that Tom Wiesner displayed throughout his life.
- In 2007, Levy started all 13 games at strong-side linebacker as a junior. Finished second on the team with 70 tackles (49 solos) and placed third on the Badgers with 10 stops for losses of 53 yards. Credited with three sacks for minus 19 yards and two quarterback pressures. Caused two fumbles, recovered two others and deflected a pair of passes.
- Took over strong-side linebacker chores as a sophomore in 2006, ranking fourth on the team with 50 tackles (26 solos), including a career-high six sacks for minus 38 yards, leading the squad in that category. Accounted for 7.5 stops for losses totaling 44 yards and made seven pressures. Caused and recovered a pair of fumbles. Deflected two passes and intercepted another. Earned Academic All-Big Ten Conference honors.
- Played in 11 games as a true freshman (2005). Listed as a reserve at strong-side linebacker, but made his most impact on special teams. Finished with 18 tackles (13 solos), a 7-yard sack, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

Attended Vincent (Milwaukee, Wisc.) High School, playing football for head coach Elliot Lightfoot.

- Midwest Top 100 selection by Super Prep during his senior year.
- The two-time All-Conference selection added All-State first-team honors as a senior.
- Served as team captain in each of his last three seasons, twice earning squad Most Valuable Player honors.
- In his final season, the linebacker recorded 84 tackles, including 21 stops behind the line of scrimmage, along with five quarterback sacks and four forced fumbles. Also saw action on offense that year, catching 12 passes for 260 yards and three touchdowns.

TRANSACTIONS

- Claimed off waivers by the Detroit Lions Sept. 6, 2010.
- Signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers February 12, 2009.
- Signed with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League in 2008.
- Signed to the Miami Dolphins practice squad in 2007 prior to being released.
- Originally attended mini-camp with the New York Giants in 2007 but did not sign due to injury.

PRO

A powerful return specialist and solid contributor to special teams.

- Boosted Lions return game in first year and proved to be valuable taking back both kickoff and punts. Also added to the teams cover units.
- Set the Steelers single-season record for kickoff return yards with 1,466 in 2009. He also ranked second in the AFC with an average of 26.7 yards per kick return.

2010: Named alternate to 2011 Pro Bowl squad as a kick returner. Team's primary kickoff and punt returner as well as a back-up receiver. Finished fifth in the NFL in kickoff return average (26.8) and fifth in punt return average (12.1). Only player in NFL in the Top-5 in both kickoff return and punt return average. Second in League in total kick return yards (1,810).

- Logan's 1,448 kickoff return yards are the second-highest single-season total in team history, and his 26.8 kickoff return average ranks third (min. 20 returns) in the team record books for a season. He is the first player since WR Desmond Howard (1,446 in 2001) to register 1,400 kickoff return yards in a season, and his 1,400-yard effort is the fifth time in team history that a player has recorded 1,400 kickoff return yards in a season.
- Finished with 1,810 total kick return yards (362 PR, 1,810 KR), which is the third-highest single-season tally in team history and the most since WR Desmond Howard totaled 1,858 kick return yards in 2000.
- Had his first career rushing attempt (21 yards) at Minnesota (9/26) and returned 5 kickoffs for 142 yards (28.4 avg).
- Had one punt return for 15 yards, and returned four kicks for a 24.5 average at Green Bay (10/3). Recovered two fumbles on special teams.
- Returned a kickoff for 105 yards and a score against St. Louis (10/10). The 105-yarder ties a franchise record for the longest kickoff return in team history. He tied the record set by CB Terry Fair, who returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay Sept. 28, 1998.
- Two kickoff returns for a 41.0 yard average, including one 58-yard return at New York Giants (10/17).
- Career-high 71-yard punt return and totaled 79 yards on punt returns vs. Washington (10/31). Logan became the first player in Lions history to return a 100-yard kickoff return and a punt return for at least 70 yards in the same season.
- Quite productive vs. Chicago (12/5) with 1 punt return for 19 yards, 3 kickoff returns for 116 yards (38.7 avg.), including a 60-yard return in the fourth quarter and Had two rushing attempts for 18 yards, including a 17 yarder. His 60-yard kickoff return was his fourth kick return (three kickoff and one punt return) of at least 50 yards this season.
- Career-high five carriers and career-high 30 yards against Green Bay (12/12). With 37 punt return yards vs. the Packers, Logan became the first Lions returner to reach 300 punt return yards in a season (323 yards) since WR Eddie Drummond registered 316 punt return yards in 2004. Logan finished with 92 total kick return yards, giving him 1,617 kick return yards on the season, and he became only the seventh player to reach 1,600 total kick return yards in team history (accomplished six previous times by four players) The last time a Lions returner registered 1,600 total kick return yards in a single season was WR Eddie Drummond (1,645) in 2006.
- First career pass attempt at Tampa Bay (12/19). Carried the ball four times for 11 yards. His 29-yard kickoff return gave the Lions possession at the Bucs 32-yard line that set up game-tying FG drive at the end of regulation.
- Had one punt return of 23 yards at Miami (12/26). Occurred with 5:01 in fourth quarter that gave the Lions the ball near mid-field (Det 47-yard line), and on next play the Lions scored on a 53-yard pass play that reduced the deficit to 3 points (24-27).

COLLEGE

- Grew up fan of Bruce Matthews and the Dallas Cowboys.
- Uncle, John Muhlbach, is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Trustees, and is on the board's executive committee. From 1997-06, he served as chairman.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions Mar. 2, 2007 to a five-year deal.
- Signed by the Detroit Lions Nov. 9, 2004.
- Released by the Baltimore Ravens Aug. 30, 2004.
- Signed as an undrafted rookie free agent by the Baltimore Ravens Apr. 30, 2004.

PRO

Muhlbach's velocity and accuracy places him among the best in the league in his specialty, and he is a critical part of the snap-hold-kick trio that includes P Nick Harris (holder) and K Jason Hanson.

- A deep-snapping specialist who has a crisp and consistent delivery, Muhlbach spent 2004 training camp with Baltimore before joining the Lions later that season and has been the team's long snapper ever since.
- Has played in 100 career games and recorded 30 special teams tackles.
- Since Muhlbach teamed up with Harris (holder) and Hanson on the field goal team in 2004, that unit's accuracy has improved with the most significant increase coming on long-range field goals. Hanson's field goal accuracy with Muhlbach as the snapper has increased 5.7 percent on overall attempts. That improvement is 15.5 percent for field goals of 40-49 yards, 15.4 percent for field goals 40+ yards and 14.7 percent for field goals of 50+ yards.
- With Muhlbach snapping, Hanson is 41-of-49 (83.7 pct) on field goal attempts of 40-49 yards, 60-of-78 (72.9 pct) from 40+ yards and 19-of-29 (65.5 pct) on 50+-yard field goals.

2010: Served as the team's long snapper and registered 3 special teams tackles.

- Recorded first special teams stop of the season at Minnesota (9/26).
- Proved to be steady force with consistent snaps after K Dave Rayner filled in for the injured Jason Hanson in the final 8 games of the season. Muhlbach helped Rayner connect on 13-of-16 field goals (81.3 pct), including 7-of-10 (70.7 pct) from beyond 40 yards and 2-for-2 from 50+.
- Appeared in the 100th game of his seven-year career vs. Minnesota (1/2).

MANE FACTS

- Grew up a huge LSU and New Orleans Saints fan. His family had Saints season tickets and he attended every single home Saints game from birth to age 13, and he watched every away game with parents on TV. Proud to say he never missed a game!
- Favorite Saints players include: Ricky Jackson, Pat Swilling, Craig "Ironhead" Heyward, Sam Mills, Bobby Hebert and Dalton Hilliard.
- While with Dallas, despite an intense rehabilitation schedule for his knee Peterman got involved in the Dallas-Ft. Worth community. He attended a local Arlington (Texas) high school football game to present the Bank of America/Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week award and $2000 grant.
- Set-up the Stephen Peterman Foundation to provide aid to disadvantaged children and to enhance the lives of terminally ill children in Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions February 17, 2009 to a five-year deal (through 2013).
- Placed on the Reserve/Injured list by the Lions Nov. 20, 2009.
- Signed to the Lions active roster on Dec. 13, 2006.
- Signed to the Detroit Lions practice squad Oct. 17, 2006.
- Released by the Dallas Cowboys Aug. 23, 2006.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by the Cowboys Sept. 4, 2004.
- Drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the third round (83rd overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft.

PRO

Peterman, a seventh-year player, is a tough, physical offensive guard who has manned the right guard spot for most of the past four seasons. He signed a long-term deal with the Lions in 2009 and continues to be counted on to help anchor the Lions interior offensive line.

- Has played in 58 career games (54 starts).
- Peterman first signed to Detroit's practice squad in 2006 and was promoted to the active roster for the team's final three games.
- The following year, he was inserted into the starting lineup at right guard in Week 4 due to injuries and played himself into a full-time starting role and has since started 42 games over the past four seasons.
- He began his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 2004 but a knee injury slowed down his progress early in his career.

2010: Starting right guard. Member of offensive line unit that ranked fifth in NFL in Sacks per Pass Play (4.09 pct.), giving up just 27 sacks this year on 660 pass plays. Started in all 16 games for the first time in his career.

- Part of an offensive line against Philadelphia (9/19) that paved way for 115 team rushing yards, including 78 and 2 touchdowns from rookie Jahvid Best.
- Had to leave the game in the third quarter at Minnesota (9/26) after re-aggravating a foot injury.
- Starting right guard against Washington (10/31). As a unit, the offensive line allowed just a single sack on 46 pass attempts.
- Played in his 50th career game vs. the New York Jets (11/7).
- Made 50th career start against Chicago (12/5).
- Member of offensive line group that paved the way for a season-high 190 rushing yards, the most by the Lions since it recorded 193 rushing yards at Green Bay Dec. 12, 2010.
- Helped team gain 181 rushing yards in the team's 23-20 overtime win at Tampa Bay (12/20). It marked the first time the team has rushed for 180 yards in consecutive games since Dec. 2004 (215 vs. Arizona 12/5/04 and 193 at Green Bay 12/12/04). Along with 181 rushing yards, the team did not allow a single sack on 37 pass attempts.
- In overtime, the offense put together the game-winning drive (began at Lions 21-yard line) with runs of 26 and 14 yards on the first two plays. 49 of 63 yards on overtime drive occurred on the ground.

COLLEGE

An All-America and All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection as a senior, Peterman was a team leader and anchor of an offensive line that helped lead the LSU Tigers to the SEC title and a win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl to capture the 2003 national title.

- For his career, he appeared in 48 games at LSU, starting 35. He moved to right guard in his senior season, after starting 25 games over the previous two years at left guard, and allowed just one sack while playing a major role in leading an offense that averaged 418.4 yards-per-game.
- A first-team All-Southeastern Conference pick as a junior, Peterman started the entire season at left guard and allowed only one sack.
- Peterman started his collegiate career as a tight end and spent his freshman season at defensive end.
- He made the switch to offense as a sophomore and started all but one game at left guard during a very successful second season, allowing only one quarterback sack.
- He played a key role in the Tigers 10-3 season that featured a win over second ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game and a 47-34 win over No. 7 Illinois in the Sugar Bowl.

PERSONAL

Peterman attended St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, Miss.

- He was rated the 18th best player in Mississippi by Super Prep Magazine and was a first-team all-state selection and a two-time all-district choice.
- As a senior, Peterman caught 14 passes for 150 yards and one touchdown and was rated the best tight end in the state.
- He was selected for the Mississippi All-Star Game.
- He also played basketball in high school.
- Peterman majored in general studies at LSU.
- Despite an intense rehabilitation schedule for his knee, Peterman got involved in the Dallas-Ft. Worth community.
- He attended a local Arlington high school football game to present the Bank of America/Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week award and $2000 grant.
- He also set-up the Stephen Peterman Foundation to provide aid to disadvantaged children and to enhance the lives of terminally ill children in Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas.
- In the spring of 2005 and 2006, Peterman joined forces with fellow Louisiana State University (LSU) alumnus David Toms to host the Stephen Peterman Foundation and David Toms Foundation Fort Worth Dinner in Fort Worth, Texas.
- Proceeds from the fundraising dinner benefited Happy Hill Farm Academy/Home - a residential school/farm where socially and academically disadvantaged youth are given a second chance to prepare for a productive future – and the David Toms Foundation.
- He is married to the former Colleen Scheyd, and the couple has three sons, Stephen Frederick Jr., Timmy and Gerard.

Complete biographical information available on Detroitlions.com.

MANE FACTS

- Growing up in Texas, Pettigrew was naturally a Cowboys fan and his favorite players were QB Troy Aikman and WR Michael Irvin. He was also a fan of WR Jerry Rice.
- Goes bowling every week, often with teammates, and has around a 200 average.
- His favorite musical artist is Lil' Wayne; favorite actor is Denzel Washington; favorite movies include Man on Fire and Book of Eli.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by the Lions Dec. 1, 2009.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (20th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

Pettigrew is a big, athletic tight end who has the ability to stretch the field as a receiver and aggressively block at the line of scrimmage. Has emerged as one of the best young tight ends on the game.

- Has reached 100 career receptions the fastest by a Lions tight end by doing so in 27 games. The previous mark was 34 games by TE Jim Gibbons.
- Also reached 1,000 career yards in 26 career games, the second fastest tight end in team history to reach that milestone. Hall of Fame TE Charlie Sanders reached 1,000 career yards in 25 games.
- Fifth tight end in team history to register 100 career catches and 1,000 career yards.
- Started first 11 games of his career before a knee injury on Thanksgiving Day vs. Green Bay (11/26) forced him out for remainder of rookie season.
- Led all NFL rookie tight ends in 2009 with 30 catches for 346 yards, and was tied for the most receiving touchdowns (two).
- Regarded by many as the most complete tight end to enter the 2009 NFL Draft, Lions selected Pettigrew in first round (20th overall).

2010: Team's starting tight end. Had one of the best seasons in team history by a tight end, setting franchise single-season records for receptions (71) and yards (722). Also caught four touchdowns on the year. Third among tight ends in the NFL with 71 catches and seventh with 722 receiving yards.

- Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team. Rebounded from ACL injury suffered as a rookie to play and start in all 16 games.
- Only tight end in team history with 70 catches and 700 yards in a season.
- Only Lions second non-wide receiver to catch 70 passes in a season, joining FB James Jones (77 in 1984).
- Recorded 7 receptions, tied for a then career-best, for a career-high 108 yards, including a long of 35, against Philadelphia (9/19). It was his first career 100-yard game, and the first by a Lions tight end since TE Marcus Pollard had 105 yards vs. Carolina (10/16/05). Since the era of the modern day tight end (1960), Pettigrew's 108 yards are the fifth-most by a Lions tight end in a game.
- His eight catches at Green Bay (10/3) were a career high and they were the fourth-most by a Lions tight end in a single game since 1960. Led the team in receiving yards with 91.
- Caught first touchdown of year in Lions win vs. St. Louis (10/10) when he grabbed a 3-yard pass from QB Shaun Hill with :10 left to play in second quarter to give team a 24-6 lead heading into the half. He finished with four catches for 26 yards.
- Led team in catches with 7 for 61 yards at the New York Giants (10/17).
- Caught second TD of season in third quarter against Washington (10/31).
- Caught third TD of season against the New York Jets (11/7). Three TD receptions is a career high for the second-year tight end.
- Had four catches for 50 yards receiving at Buffalo (11/14), marking his sixth game this season with at least 4 catches.
- Led team as he tied a single-game career-high with 8 catches for 75 yards receiving at Dallas (11/21). Became first Lions tight end since 1960 to record at least 8 receptions twice in a single game.
- With 8 receptions vs. the Cowboys, Pettigrew reached 50 receptions on the season. Pettigrew became only third Lions tight end since 1960 to register 50 receptions in a season. Pettigrew joins TE David Hill (53 in 1978) and TE Jim Gibbons (51 in 1960) as the only Lions tight ends to record 50 catches in a season since 1960.
- Caught five balls for 67 yards against New England (11/25). Caught his 4th pass of the day on the Lions third quarter scoring drive that gave the team a 24-17 led and moved Pettigrew past TE David Hill (53 in 1978) for the most receptions by a Lions tight end in a single season.
- Pettigrew's 5 receptions against the Patriots marked the sixth time in 2010 he caught 5 passes in a game and the eighth time he has registered at least 4 catches in a game.
- Led team with five catches against Chicago (12/5), adding 36 receiving yards. First tight end in team history to reach 60 receptions in a season.
- Two catches for 25 yards at Tampa Bay (12/19). 25 yards moved him into third place on team's single-season receiving yards list by tight ends.
- Four catches for 74 yards, including one TD catch at Miami (12/26).
- Pettigrew's 33-yard reception in second quarter at Miami (12/26) moved him past Hall of Fame TE Charlie Sanders (656 in 1969) for most receiving yards in a single season by a Lions tight end. Entered game with 629 receiving yards on season and moved his career total to 680 after the drive (first catch of game was for -2 yards). He finished game with 4 catches for 74 yards (18.5 avg) and 1 TD.
- Pettigrew also surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for his career. By reaching that mark in 26 games, he became the second-fastest tight end in team history to reach 1,000 yards, and was one game shy of the 25-game mark set by Hall of Fame TE Charlie Sanders.
- Had three catches for 19-yards in team's final game vs. Minnesota (1/2). Caught two passes on Lions' opening drive (18 yards) and became the first tight end in team history to reach 70 receptions in a season.
- He also joined RB James Jones (77 in 1984) as the only non-wide receivers to reach 70 receptions in a single season.

COLLEGE

Second tight end in Oklahoma State history drafted in first round first (Reuben Gant, 1974-Buffalo). Ended college career ranked ninth overall on the school's receiving yardage record list with 1,450 and averaged more than 54 knockdown blocks per season for the Cowboys. Became first tight end in school history to amass more than 100 receptions (112) in a career.

- In 2008, finished with a career-high 42 catches for 472 yards (11.2 avg). 23 receptions produced first downs (54.76%), as he converted 4-of-9 third-down (44.44%) and 1-of-2 fourth-down plays.
- All-American Dream Team and All-Big 12 Conference selection by The NFL Draft Report as a senior.
- Started all 13 games in 2007, ranking third on team with 35 receptions for 540 yards (15.4 avg) and four TDs. Paced Cowboys with 10 TD-resulting blocks, as his 72 knockdowns were a league-high for tight ends. All-Big 12 Conference first-team selection.
- Started all 13 games as a sophomore in 2006, ranking third on team with 24 receptions for 310 yards (12.9 avg), including four TDs. All-Big 12 Conference honorable mention.
- Played in every game in 2005, starting nine contests. Finished fifth on team with 11 receptions for 128 yards (11.6 avg) and 1 TD.
- Redshirted as a freshman (2004).

PERSONAL

Attended Robert E. Lee (Tyler, Tex.) High School, earning All-State honors in 2003. Despite playing primarily as a blocker, he was rated as the best tight end in Texas by numerous recruiting services.

- All-District and All-East Texas choice. Also competed on defensive line.
- Son of Elaine and Henry Pettigrew. Born February 23, 1985.
- Was an education major at Oklahoma State.

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by Lions September 4, 2011.
- Signed with the Detroit Lions as an undrafted free agent June 23, 2010.

PRO

Signed with Detroit as an undrafted rookie free agent August 4, 2010, spending most of the season on the team's practice squad. Had a strong preseason getting all four starts (2 at free safety and 2 at strong safety).
2010: Started the season on team's active roster before re-signing to practice squad in October. Elevated from practice squad in December to play on special teams and serve as a back-up free safety.
- Recorded 2 solo stops on defense in team's season opener at Chicago (9/12).
- Recorded 2 solo tackles against Philadelphia (9/19) and recovered an onside kick to give Detroit's offense possession with 1:50 remaining in the game.
- Returned to active roster at Miami (12/26). Recorded one special teams tackle and forced a fumble.
- Inactive against Minnesota (1/2).

COLLEGE

Spent five years at the University of Miami finishing his career with 130 tackles (89 solo), 5 fumble recoveries, 16 pass defenses and 6 interceptions for 126 yards.
2010: Returned for a fifth years after receiving a medical hardship in 2008 causing Phillips to miss all but two games of the season.
2009: Finished the year with 53 tackles (35 solo), 2 interceptions, 1 pass defensed and 3 fumble recoveries.
2008: Played in two games against Florida and Texas A&M, suffering an injury against the Aggies that forced Phillips to miss the remainder of the season.
2007: Played in all 12 games as a junior, with four starts. Made the switch to safety in the third game of the season and finished with 34 tackles (21 solo), 2 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery, 3 pass defenses and 2 interceptions for 56 yards.

- Regularly attends annual Detroit Lions Courage House Dinner to help benefit HAVEN, Oakland County's premier center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.
- A big fan of Al Pacino, he owns most of the movies the actor is in including his favorite, Scarface, which he has watched repeatedly.

TRANSACTIONS

- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions June 25, 2009 to a four-year contract extension (through 2013).
- Re-signed by the Detroit Lions Mar. 13, 2005 to a five-year contract extension.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (50th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft.

PRO

Raiola is in his 11th season in the NFL with the Detroit Lions, and his 10th as the starting center. Utilizes tremendous quickness, tenacity and intelligence to anchor the team's offensive front.

- Named team captain five-straight seasons (2006-10).
- Has played in 156 career games (140 starts).
- In 2008, a hand injury forced him to miss the first start of his career vs. Jacksonville (11/9/08). He had the second-most consecutive starts (104) behind Denver C Casey Wiegman (120) and Atlanta C Todd McClure (120) since 2001.
- In 2006, Raiola emerged as one of the most effective all-around centers in the league with his ability to get outside and block on the perimeter and to get to the second level.
- Prior to 2005 season, he signed a five-year contract extension (Mar. 13).
- In 2004, he centered an offensive line that developed into one of the top run-blocking lines in the NFL as the offensive line led the way for a rushing attack that ranked second in the NFL over the final seven games of the season.

2010: Team captain for fifth consecutive season and starting center. Leader along offensive line unit that ranked fifth in NFL in Sacks per Pass Play (4.09 pct.), giving up just 27 sacks this year on 660 pass plays.

- Part of an offensive line against Philadelphia (9/19) that helped the team rush for 115 yards, including 78 and 2 touchdowns from rookie Jahvid Best.
- In the Lions 44-6 win vs. St. Louis (10/10), Raiola led an offensive line unit that allowed just 1 sack on 33 pass plays.
- Center of offensive line that allowed a single sack on 46 pass attempts against Washington (10/31).
- Played in 150th career game at Dallas (11/21).
- Centered offensive line unit that was key in the offense rushing for 190 yards (season-high). It was the most by the Lions since the team had 193 rushing yards at Green Bay Dec. 12, 2004.
- Manned middle of offensive line unit that led the way for the team to gain 181 yards on the ground while allowing no sacks in the Lions 23-20 overtime win on the road at Tampa Bay (12/20).
- The 181 rushing yards, which included 109 by RB Maurice Morris, was the second consecutive game that the offensive line helped produce 180 rushing yards. It was the first back-to-back 180-yard team rushing tallies since Dec. 2004 (215 vs. Arizona 12/5/10 and 193 at Green Bay 12/12/10).
- Perhaps highlight of the game on the ground was the team opening overtime with runs of 26 and 14 yards on the first two plays that put the team in position for a game-winning kick. 49 of the team's 63 yards in overtime occurred on the ground.

COLLEGE

Turned pro after playing three seasons at Nebraska, but was a four-year collegian (redshirted in 1997).

- Cornhuskers' first freshman offensive lineman to start a game since Rob Zatechka in 1991.
- The two-time Nebraska Lifter of the Year finalist set a school record with 140 knockdown blocks (11.67 per game) as a sophomore in 1999, only to better that mark as a junior in 2000 with 145 (13.2 per game).
- Besides on-field accolades, he garnered Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors the last two years while making the conference's honor roll three times.
- In 2000, he was an All-American first-team selection by the Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association, rated the best center in the country by The Sports Xchange, a finalist for both the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top lineman and a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection.
- Junior year was first full year as starter and was named a consensus All-Big 12 first-team selection, the first sophomore Nebraska offensive lineman to earn such honors since Dave Rimington in 1980 and was a member of Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl Team.

PERSONAL

Three-year starter on the offensive line for St. Louis High School in Honolulu.

- Team went undefeated in each of his last three years and ranked 15th nationally in 1996, winning its 11th straight state championship.
- Earned first-team all-state honors as a junior in 1995 and as a senior in 1996.
- Also a National Honor Society member, a three-year scholar-athlete and ranked sixth in his class of 180.

TRANSACTIONS

- Acquired by the Detroit Lions via trade with the Broncos Sept. 6, 2010.
- Selected by the Denver Broncos in the second round (37th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

The third-year cornerback enters his second season in Detroit after arriving via trade at the end of the 2010 preseason. He emerged as one of the Lions defensive playmakers while leading the team with 5 interceptions, one in which he returned 42 yards for a touchdown vs. St. Louis (10/10).

- Posted 11 tackles (7 solo) and three pass defenses on defense. Also returned the second-most punts (10) among Broncos in 2009 and added 3 special-teams stops.
- Excelled on special teams at Wake Forest, blocking five punts during his collegiate career while also returning punts and kickoffs.
- Selected by the Broncos in the second round (37th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.
- Since the 16-game schedule was first played in 1978, Smith recorded the second-most interceptions (5) for the Lions through the season's first eight games. He became the first Lions player to register 5 interceptions in the first eight games of the season since S Kurt Schulz (6) in 2000.

2010: Moved into the team's starting lineup at RCB in Week 5 and pulled in a team-high 5 interceptions, along with 39 tackles (30 solo), 8 pass defenses, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery. Smith was the first player in the NFL in 2010 to record an interception in five different games.

- Recorded first career interception at Minnesota (9/23) with 0:54 remaining in the first half that set up a 33-yard field goal from Jason Hanson. Also added 3 solo tackles.
- At Green Bay (10/3), pulled in the second interception of his career, the season and for the second game in a row. Smith became the first Lions' defender to record interceptions in back-to-back games since CB Jamar Fletcher did so in 2006 (1 vs. Minnesota 12/10/06 and 1 at Green Bay 12/17/06).
- Recorded his third interception of the season in Lions 44-6 win vs. St. Louis (10/10), giving him a pick in three-straight games. The last Lions player with interceptions in three-straight games was CB Dré Bly when he did so in four-straight games in 2005 (at TB 10/2/05; vs. Baltimore 10/9/05, vs. Carolina 10/16/05 and at Cleveland 10/23/05).
- Smith registered his first career interception return for a touchdown when he picked off a pass in the fourth quarter and went 42-yards for the score.
- Recorded 5 tackles (5 solo), 1 tackle for loss and had 1 pass defense at the New York Giants (10/17).
- Interception of Donovan McNabb's pass in the fourth quarter, set up game-winning drive in win over Washington (10/31) 37-25. Added three tackles (3 solo) and a career-high two pass defenses in win. Became first Lions player to record four interceptions in a season since Dré Bly (6) in 2005.
- Picked off fifth pass of the season and had two pass defenses against the New York Jets (11/7). Added six tackles (5 solo).
- Smith became the first Lions defender to record 5 interceptions in a six-game span since CB Bryant Westbrook in 2000.
- Recorded four tackles (2 solo) at Buffalo (11/14).

MANE FACTS

- During the Lions' dramatic 38-37 last second, come-from-behind win against Cleveland at Ford Field when he set an NFL rookie passing records for yards (422) and tied a record for touchdowns (five), Stafford was mic'd up by NFL Films for that memorable win. Stafford suffered a shoulder injury on the last timed play of regulation. Following a pass interference penalty in the endzone and a Browns timeout, Stafford forced himself back on the field for one more throw that resulted in the game winning touchdowns to TE Brandon Pettigrew. As published in the Detroit Free Press: NFL Films president Steve Sabol said Stafford "earned a lasting place in the cinematic folklore of the NFL." Stafford was wired for sound when he suffered an AC joint separation, came back and threw the winning touchdown with no time left against the Browns. Sabol called it "the most dramatic player wiring ever" -- and NFL Films has wired more than 350 players since 1965.
- Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week and was voted Rookie of the Week for Week 11 of the 2009 season.
- Attended Highland Park High School in Dallas, Texas, the same high school that Lions Hall of Famers QB Bobby Layne and RB Doak Walker attended. Layne and Walker led the Lions to NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. Layne also led the team to the 1957 NFL Championship.
- While growing up in Texas, he was fan of the Dallas Cowboys.
- After his football career, he would like to either coach or work in broadcasting and then one way or the other play a lot of golf.
- Among his favorite TV shows are: Entourage and Eastbound and Down; favorite movies: Blood Diamond and Gladiator; favorite actor/entertainer: Will Ferrell.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured by the Lions Dec. 24, 2010.
- Placed on Reserve/Injured by the Lions Dec. 26, 2009.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (1st overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

PRO

As the Lions starting signal caller, Stafford combines great arm strength and accuracy with exceptional ability to read opponent's defenses to lead the team's offense.

- Rookie campaign was highlighted by his 13 touchdowns passes (Lions rookie passing record) and his gritty performance against Cleveland when he threw for an NFL record 422 yards and tied a league single-game rookie record with five touchdown passes.
- Selected by the Lions with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft and was named the team's starting quarterback to start the regular season. He was the youngest player to start the regular season at quarterback since Drew Bledsoe in 1993.

2010: Team's second-year starting quarterback who was named an offensive team captain.

- Started and played the first two quarters of the season opener at Chicago (9/12) before getting hit near the end of the half, forcing him out of the game with a shoulder injury. Finished with 11 of 15 completions for 83 yards.
- Inactive vs. Philadelphia (9/19), at Minnesota (9/26), at Green Bay (10/3) and vs. St. Louis (10/10) due to a shoulder injury suffered in season opener.
- Listed as third quarterback at the New York Giants (10/17).
- Returned as starting quarterback in 37-25 win against Washington (10/31) after missing previous five games due to shoulder injury. Threw four touchdown passes, including game-winning touchdown to Calvin Johnson with 3:12 to take 28-25 lead. Threw for 212 yards on 25 completions, and finished with a 90.2 passer rating. It marked Stafford's second career fourth-quarter come-from-behind win.
- His 4 touchdown passes are the second-highest single game tally of his career. He joins QB Bobby Layne (4), QB Gary Danielson (2), QB Eric Hipple (2) and QB Scott Mitchell (2) as the only passers in team history with at least two games of 4 touchdown passes, and Stafford is the first player in team history to do it twice in his first two years with the club.
- Stafford became the first Lions' quarterback to throw four touchdowns in a game which all four touchdowns gave the Lions the lead.
- In the second half vs. the Redskins, Stafford was 18-of-27 (66.7 pct) for 140 yards and threw for 3 touchdowns. His quarterback rating was 116.3, the highest tally in a second half of a game during his career.
- Completed 20-of-36 passes for 240 yards and threw for two touchdowns vs. the New York Jets, and he finished with a passer rating of 94.7. With a 90.2 passer rating vs. Washington (10/31), it marked the first time in his two-year career he has registered passer ratings of 90.0 in back-to-back games. Also ran for third career rushing touchdown. Left game in fourth quarter due to shoulder injury.
- Inactive (right shoulder) at Buffalo (11/14), at Dallas (11/21), against New England (11/25), against Chicago (12/50, against Green Bay (12/12) and at Tampa Bay (12/19).
- Placed on Reserve/Injured Dec. 24, 2010 due to right shoulder injury.

COLLEGE

Stafford closed out his three-year career at Georgia ranking third on the school's all-time record list for yards passing (7,731), pass attempts (987), completed passes (564), touchdown passes (51), touchdowns responsible for (57), and yards in total offense (7,944). In 34 starting assignments, he compiled a 27-7 record (.794).

- Stafford enjoyed his most successful collegiate season in 2008 starting in all 13 games and completed 235-of-383 passes (both fourth on the school season-record list) for 3,459 yards (second-best season total by a Bulldog passer), compiling a .6136 pass completion percentage. He also set the Bulldog season-record with 25 touchdown tosses and 10 interceptions and averaged 9.03 yards per pass attempt, the third-best season total in Georgia history. His passing efficiency rating of 153.54 is the second-best annual mark in school annals. Also ran for 40 yards and a score on 55 carries (0.7 avg).
- On 423 plays, he amassed a school season-record 3,499 yards in total offense (269.15 yards per game), along with being responsible for 26 touchdowns (third on the Georgia season-record list).
- Capital One Bowl MVP. Earned All-Southeastern Conference second-team honors from the league's coaches and Associated Press.
- Earned the team's Vince Dooley Most Valuable Player of the Year Award and received SEC Academic Honor Roll distinction for the fall semester.
- Stafford started every game, in 2007 as a sophomore compiling an 11-2 record. Completed 194-of-348 passes (55.75%) for 2,523 yards, 19 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. Carried 39 times for losses totaling 18 yards, but also scored twice on the ground. Averaged 192.69 yards per game on 387 total plays for 2,505 yards.
- The recipient of the Dr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, II, Football Scholarship.
- The team ranked 74th in the nation with an average of 375.62 yards per game, but Stafford proved to be an opportunist, as the Bulldogs placed 34th in scoring (32.62 points per game).
- The quarterback boasted a 7-1 record in the eight games that he threw for at least 200 yards.
- In 2006, became the first quarterback to start for Georgia right out of high school (graduated from high school early and enrolled at UGA in Jan.) since Eriz Zeier in 1991. Completed 135-of-256 passes (52.73%) for 1,749 yards, as he had seven touchdowns and 13 interceptions. Scored three times and gained 191 yards on 47 carries (4.1 avg). Participated in 303 plays, compiling 1,940 yards in total offense (149.23 yards per game).
- Appeared in 13 games, compiling a 6-2 record after taking over as the team's starter in the final eight contests.
- Selected to the Freshman All-SEC team by the league's coaches, twice earning SEC Freshman of the Week honors.
- Recipient of the Dr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, ILL, Football Scholarship.
- Named the team's Offensive Newcomer of the Year.

Attended Highland Park (Dallas, Tex.) High School, playing football for head coach Randy Allen. Parade, Super Prep and USA Today All-American selection.

- Rated as the best prep passer in the country by Rivals.com and ranked second nationally by both Scout.com and ESPN.
- Added Prep Star Top 100 honors, as that recruiting service ranked him third in the country at his position.
- Three-time All-State selection, adding Gatorade Player of the Year, EA Sports National Player of the Year and Dallas Morning News Area Offensive Player of the Year accolades as a senior.
- Received a five-star prospect rating from both Scout.com and Rivals.com. Chosen Class AAAA Player of the Year by Dave Campbells Texas Football. Named Class AAAA "Mr. Texas Football" from TexasFootball.com.
- As a senior, Stafford threw for 4,018 yards on 209 of 322 passing and 38 touchdowns, as he led his team to the Class AAAA championship, its first title since1957. Also rushed for 212 yards and eight touchdowns on 42 carries.
- In the first round of the 2005 state playoffs, he rallied .his team from a 17-0 deficit to win 38-31 with 411 yards passing and four touch-downs.
- Named the Most Outstanding Player of the Tom Landry Classic.
- Student Sports All-American and All-District choice after his final season.

TRANSACTIONS

- Placed on Reserve/Injured list by the Lions Aug. 3, 3007.
- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

PRO

One of the team's backup up quarterbacks who continues to progress in his development. Passer whose mobility adds dimension to abilities at quarterback.

- Has appeared in 12 games (four starts) during his career, and has completed 104-of-187 passes for 1,158 yards. Has also rushed 30 times for 166 yards and two touchdowns.
- Stanton saw his first game action during the regular season in 2008. He threw a touchdown pass on his first career pass attempt while being featured in a goal-line package.
- After being drafted by Detroit in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft, Stanton's rookie season ended before it really began as he was placed on Reserve/Injured after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery during training camp.

2010: Served as the team's third QB. Completed 69-of-119 passes (58.0 pct.) for 780 yards with 5 TDs. Started three games and was 2-1 as a starter.

- Came into the game at quarterback after QB Shaun Hill suffered a broken forearm at the New York Giants (10/17). Threw for 222 yards and 1 TD. 87-yard TD pass to Calvin Johnson was career long, and longest play from scrimmage for the Lions. Also established career highs in attempts (34), completions (19), yards (222), rushing yards (30) and longest rush (20).
- Saw action in the fourth quarter vs. the New York Jets (11/7) subbing for QB Matthew Stafford who left game with shoulder injury.
- Made second career start against Chicago (12/5). Threw for 178 yards and was 16-of-24 passing. Tossed one TD to Calvin Johnson (46 yards), and rushed for another. Registered a career-high passing rating of 102.4.
- Stanton registered a 102.4 passer rating vs, Chicago (12/5) in his second start with the club. Stanton is the first quarterback to record a passer rating of 102.0 in their first or second start with the team since QB Gus Frerotte (110.5) did it in his first start at Arizona Nov. 14, 1999. Stanton joins Frerotte, QB Eric Hipple (first start: 140.4 in vs. Chi 10/19/81), QB Bill Munson (128.4 vs. Chi 9/22/68; second start:107.5 at GB 9/29/68), QB Milt Plum (first start: 128.6 vs. Pit 9/16/62; second start: vs. SF 153.8 9/23/62) and QB Tobin Rote (134.8 at SF 11/3/57) and the only Lions passers since 1950 to accumulate a 102.0 passer rating in the first or second start with the team.
- Threw game winning 13-yard TD pass to TE Will Heller vs. Green Bay (12/12) in fourth quarter. Was 10-of-22 passing and rushed for 44 yards (4 att.), including a long of 17.
- Career high of 37 pass attempts, 23 completions and 252 passing yards, and tied career high one passing TD in OT win at Tampa Bay (12/19). It was his second career win, second career game-winning fourth quarter comeback and the second in consecutive weeks. 91.3 passer rating vs. Buccaneers was second-highest total among his career starts and second in three games that he tallied passing rating over 90.0.
- Led scoring drives at Tampa Bay in the final minute of the first half, regulation and in overtime.
- Engineered game-tying 58-yard drive with 1:39 left to play with no timeouts that culminated in a 28-yard field goal that notched the score at 20-20. All 58 yards on the drive occurred via pass.
- Back-up quarterback at Miami (12/26) and against Minnesota (1/2).

COLLEGE

- Pro Bowl: 2011.
- Associated Press All-Pro: 2011.
- Named 2011 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year

TRANSACTIONS

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the first round (2nd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

PRO

Selected in the first round (2nd overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft. Suh brought aggressiveness and instinct to the Lions' front-four and is expected to be a dominant mainstay in the middle for years to come. Possesses great versatility to move around in a variety of defensive packages and formations.

- Named starter to 2011 Pro Bowl as a rookie. Became first Lions rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since RB Barry Sanders was selected to the 1990 NFC Pro Bowl Squad. He also becomes the Lions first rookie defensive player to be named to the Pro Bowl since DE Al "Bubba" Baker in 1979.
- Among Lions defensive tackles, he is the sixth player at that position named to the Pro Bowl and the first ever to do so as a rookie. Suh is also the 10th rookie in team history named to the Pro Bowl and fourth Lions rookie defensive player.
- Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year. Suh became seventh rookie in team history to win an AP Rookie of the Year award, which is the most by any franchise since the AP began honoring Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1967. Joins RB Mel Farr (1976), CB Lem Barney (1967), WR Earl McCullough (1968), DE Al "Bubba" Baker (1978), RB Billy Sims (1980) and RB Barry Sanders (1989) as Detroit Lions honored as AP Rookie of the Year.
- Third Lions' rookie to be named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and the first since Baker in 1978.
- Since the AP Rookie of the Year Award was first established in 1967, Suh is only the sixth defensive tackle to win the honor and the first since Dolphins DT Tim Bowens in 1994.
- Named Rookie of the Year by the Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly/PFWA. Also named All-Pro by Sporting News and PFW/PFWA.
- Named to Associated Press All Pro Team. He is the first rookie defensive tackle to be named to the Associated Press All-Pro Team since the recognition was designated by offense and defense in 1951 and he is the first rookie defensive linemen to be named AP All-Pro since Titans DE Jevon Kearse in 1999.
- Joined RB Doak Walker (1950), DE Al "Bubba" Baker (1978), K Eddie Murray (1980) and RB Barry Sanders (1989) as only Lions rookie named to AP All-Pro Team, with Suh and Baker as the only Lions defensive players.
- Became Lions first rookie since RB Barry Sanders in 1989 to be named AP All-Pro.
- 2010 NFL Alumni Defensive Linemen of the Year.

2010: Put together one of the most impressive rookie campaigns by a rookie defensive tackle in League history. Started all 16 games and recorded 66 tackles and a team-high 10.0 sacks. Also had 3 pass defenses, 1 interception, 1 fumble recovery (returned for a 17-yard touchdown) and a forced fumble.

- Led all rookies and defensive tackles with 10.0 sacks.
- Passed DE Tracy Scroggins (7.5 in 1992) for the most sacks by a rookie in a season since sacks became official in 1982.
- Suh's 10.0 sacks are the third-most by a Lions defensive tackle (since 1982) and he is just the third Lions defensive tackle to reach 10.0 in a season. The top two spots are held by DT Doug English (13.0 in 1983) and DT Henry Thomas (10.5 in 1995).
- Became only the second rookie defensive tackle (10.5 by 49ers Dana Stubblefield in 1993) to ever record 10.0 since sacks became official in 1982.
- 10.0 sacks on the year are the most by a Lions defensive player since DE James Hall has 11.5 in 2004.
- Only rookie in NFL with an interception and a fumble returned for a touchdown.
- Suh became the first Lions' rookie to record sacks in the first two games of the season since sacks became an official stat in 1982.
- Recorded a solo tackle and first career sack for a loss of one yard in season opener at Chicago (9/12). Also blew up 3rd-and-1 play at goal-line resulting in 1-yard loss in first quarter to force Bears into a field goal.
- Recorded a team-best 8 tackles (6 solo) and snagged his second sack of the season for a loss of 7 yards in the third quarter vs. Philadelphia (9/19).
- Tallied 3 solo stops at Minnesota (9/26).
- Third sack of the season came at Green Bay (10/3), and he also added 3 solo stops.
- Recorded his first career interception in Lions 44-6 win vs. St. Louis (10/10) when he tipped Rams QB Sam Bradford's pass at the line of scrimmage and plucked the ball out of the air in the fourth quarter. He then returned the interception 20 yards to set up a Lions field goal.
- Suh's interception against the Rams was the first interception by a Lions' rookie defensive lineman since DT Thurman McGraw intercepted a pass vs. the Los Angeles Rams Oct. 15, 1950. Suh is also the first rookie defensive tackle to register an interception since Falcons rookie DT Trey Lewis had one at Tennessee Oct. 7, 2007.
- Led the team with 1.5 sacks at the New York Giants (10/17). Also added three tackles (2 solo).
- Scored first career touchdown on fumble recovery (17 yards) against Washington (10/31) in the fourth quarter to season Lions' 37-25 victory. Recorded career-high 2.0 sacks, five tackles (4 solo) and became the first rookie to record 2 sacks in a game since DE Kalimba Edwards at Arizona Dec. 8, 2002. He is the first Lions rookie defensive tackle to record two sacks in a game since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.
- With the 17-yard fumble return for a touchdown, Suh became the first Lions rookie defensive lineman to return a fumble for a touchdown since Bob Bell (25 yards) at Green Bay Nov. 1, 1971.
- In the month of Oct., Suh finished with 14 tackles, 4.5 sacks (29.5 yards lost), 1 interception, 1 pass defense and a 17-yard fumble return for a touchdown. Suh's 4.5 sacks in Oct. are the most for the month by a Lions rookie since sacks became official in 1982. They are the fifth-most among all Lions' defensive players for Oct. and the second-most (DT Doug English in 1983) among Lions defensive tackles.
- With 4.5 sacks in Oct., Suh became the first rookie defensive tackle to record 4.5 sacks in Oct. since Jacksonville DT John Henderson had 5.0 in 2002. He also became the first defensive tackle in the NFL to collect 4.5 sacks during Oct. since Tampa Bay DT Warren Sapp had 5.0 in 2005.
- Three solo tackles against the New York Jets (11/7). Attempted first career PAT in third quarter (miss, hit right upright).
- Three tackles (1 solo), tackle of loss and quarterback hit at Buffalo (11/14).
- Led team with 8 tackles (5 solo), half a sack and one quarterback hit at Dallas (11/21). Moved his rookie sack total to 7.0 which is the second-highest tally by a Lions rookie defender since 1982.
- Recorded four tackles (3 solo), including two tackles for loss against New England (11/25). Added a sack for a loss of three yards.
- Added four tackles (3 solo) and had one pass defense against Chicago (12/5).
- Recorded three tackles (2 solo) against Green Bay (12/12).
- Tallied three tackles (2 solo), along with two quarterback hits at Tampa Bay (12/19).
- Recorded ninth sack of the season at Miami (12/26) for a loss of three. Added 5 tackles (5 solo), a forced fumble, quarterback hit, tackle for loss and had one pass defense. His 5 tackles moved his season total to 60, and he became the first Lions defensive tackle to record 60 tackles in a season since DT Shaun Rogers (68) in 2004.
- Recorded tenth sack of season against Minnesota (1/2). Added six tackles (4 solo) and one quarterback hit.

COLLEGE

Started 39 of 53 games during his five-year career at Nebraska, recording 215 tackles (125 solos) with 24.0 quarterback sacks for minus 187 yards, 57.0 stops for losses of 252 yards and 39 pressures. Caused three fumbles and recovered another, intercepted four passes for 79 yards in returns that included two touchdowns and also recorded 15 pass defenses. Also added a two-yard touchdown pass and blocked six kicks. His 57 tackles behind the line of scrimmage rank second in school history behind Grant Wistrom (58.5, 1994-97). Those 57 stops for loss lead all active NCAA defensive tackles and rank second overall to defensive end George Selvie of South Florida (69, 2006-09).

- Suh's 24.0 stops behind the line of scrimmage in 2009 rank second on the school season-record list behind Jim Skow's 25.0 in 1985.
- His seven tackles for loss (five solo/two assisted) vs. Texas in the 2009 Big 12 Championship Game tied the Nebraska single-game record.
- Suh's 12.0 sacks in 2009 were the second-most ever by a Husker defensive tackle. His 10 pass defenses in 2009 set the school season-record for a defensive lineman and his 15 total pass break-ups are another Husker defensive lineman career-record.
- Holds the school game (two vs. Iowa State in 2009), season (three in 2009) and career (six) records for most kicks blocked by a down lineman.
- Set school season-record for a defensive tackle with two interceptions in 2008 and Husker lineman record by returning both for touchdowns.
- In 2009, named Unanimous All-American and All-Big 12 Conference first-team selection. Named the Associated Press College Player of the Year, CBSSports.com National Defensive Player of the Year, Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year/Defensive Lineman of the Year and was a finalist for the Walter Camp National Player of the Year Award. Was one of five finalists for the Heisman Trophy and the first defensive lineman to be named a finalist for that trophy since Warren Sapp in 1994. 2009 Rotary Lombardi Award, Outland Trophy, Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Chuck Bednarik Award, Bill Willis Award and Guy Chamberlin Award winner. Lott Trophy finalist (one of four), earning Lott Trophy Impact Player of the Week vs. Missouri and Iowa State. Nebraska Team MVP. Member of the Big Twelve Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll and garnered Academic All-Big Twelve second-team recognition. Set numerous position, game, season and career records, as he became the first Husker defensive lineman to lead the team in tackles in consecutive seasons.

- Recorded a career-best 85 tackles (52 solos), as he also led the team with 12.0 sacks for minus 77 yards, 24.0 stops for losses of 93 yards and 26 pressures. Second on the team with 10 pass defenses, a season-record for down lineman.
- Set the Husker position record with two blocked kicks vs. Iowa State and with a total of three blocked kicks for the season. Also intercepted a pass, as his total of 11 passes defended were the most by any college down lineman for the season (no other defensive lineman ranked in the top 100 in the FBS.
- Against the run, Suh made 94 plays, holding the ball carriers to 20 yards, as he stopped runners at the line of scrimmage 20 times for no gain, in addition to his 24 tackles in the backfield, delivering 10 of those hits inside the red zone (three on goalline snaps).
- All-American second-team selection in 2008 by The NFL Draft Report. Consensus All-Big Twelve Conference first-team choice. Named the team's co-Lifter of the Year and Defensive Most Valuable Player. Started all 13 games at nose tackle, becoming the first defensive tackle since 1973 to lead the team in tackles, as he totaled 76 hits (39 solos). MANE FACTS

- Vanden Bosch started the KVB S.A.C.K. (Supporting and Assisting Charities for Kids) Foundation in 2008. The foundation aims to give children more opportunities for success in life. Website: www.kvb93.com.
- His father, Doug, owns D&L Masonry, a construction company in Larchwood, Iowa, while his mother, Bonnie, is an accountant. Kyle began working for his father's company when he was just 12 years old, hauling bricks, cement and other materials. He says he owes much of his strength and work ethic to his experience with his father's business.
- Kyle and his older brother, Keith, played in high school together in Larchwood. Keith went on to star at Northwestern College in Iowa.
- Vanden Bosch has shaved his head since he was a freshman in college. The Nebraska defensive line members traditionally shave their heads at the start of camp, and Vanden Bosch decided to keep the look ever since.
- As a senior at Nebraska, he was one of six Div. 1-A players to garner National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete honors. He also received one of the most prestigious awards in the nation for student athletes, the St. Vincent de Paul Draddy Scholar-Athlete Award, which includes a $25,000 post-graduate scholarship.
- Vanden Bosch enjoys spending time at a close friend's property in Winner, South Dakota, one of the country's best locales for pheasant hunting. He also is a big fisherman and spent a lot of time catching catfish at a lake near his home in Arizona during his career there.
- List of favorites: (movie) "Scarface"; (TV show) "World Poker Tour"; (actor) Al Pacino; (music group) Rascal Flatts; (school subject) math; (car) Chevy Avalanche; (video game) Big Game Hunting; (vacation getaway) his cabin in Town Creek, Ala.; and (food) cheeseburgers.
- In one of the most unique fundraisers ever staged, Vanden Bosch organized the "KVB Birthday Brawl," which combined the worlds of pro football and pro wrestling, as Titans players teamed up with the superstars of TNA Wrestling for a wrestling event at The Wildhorse Saloon. The Nov. 2008 event raised more than $90,000 for foundation and its efforts to fund the first KVB Media Center at the Andrew Jackson Boys & Girls Club in Nashville.
- In 2009, Vanden Bosch received the Sydney F. Keeble Distinguished Service award from the Boys and Girls Club for outstanding contributions to the agency.

PRO

Williams, a versatile, veteran defensive tackle, has played several positions in both four-man and three-man fronts during his NFL career. Adds size and strength to the team's interior defensive line.

- He has played in 104 career games (54 starts) and registered 234 tackles (173 solo), 23.5 sacks (131.5 yards), two interceptions, 16 pass defenses, two fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles in his career.

2010: Starting defensive tackle. Provided a steady-presence in the middle of the team's defensive line and collected 37 tackles, 2 sacks, 1 interception (27 yards) and 4 pass defenses on the season.

- Recorded 5 solo tackles, 1.0 sack for a loss of a yard and a quarterback hurry in season opener at Chicago (9/12).
- Recorded 2 solo tackles, including a tackle-for-loss, vs. Philadelphia (9/19) as well as 2 quarterback hurries.
- Intercepted QB Brett Favre for a 27-yard return in the first quarter at Minnesota (9/26) for his second-career pick. The interception set up the Lions' offense for a 5-yard touchdown pass from QB Shaun Hill to TE Tony Scheffler. Williams became the first Lions defensive tackle to record an interception since DT Shaun Rogers returned an interception 66 yards for a touchdown vs. Denver (11/4/07).
- Added 3 tackles (2 solo), including one for a loss at Green Bay (10/3).
- Season-high 7 tackles (6 solo) against St. Louis (10/10).
- Recorded three solo tackles against the New York Jets (11/7).
- Two tackles (1 solo) and two quarterback hits at Buffalo (11/14).
- Recorded three tackles (3 solo) against Chicago (12/5) in his 50th start of career.
- Registered second sack of season for a loss of four at Miami (12/26). Added five solo stops, quarterback hit, tackle for loss and had one pass defense.

COLLEGE

A four-year letter winner at Arkansas State (2000-03), he entered the starting lineup halfway through his freshman year on the defensive line after beginning his college career at linebacker.

- Two-time All-Sun Belt Conference selection, played in 43 career games overall, with 34 starts, finishing with 136 tackles, 84 solo, 14.5 sacks, 27.5 tackle for loss, three pass defenses, two recovered fumbles and three forced fumbles.
- Battled through an ankle injury as a senior in 2003 and made eight starts while playing in 10 games overall. Earned second-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors after finishing with 21 tackles (11 solo), 1.0 sack, 4.5 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery.
- As a junior, perhaps his most productive year, he posted 9.0 sacks, including a team-record 4.0 in one contest. Played in 11 games as a junior, making nine starts. As a first-team All-Sun Belt Conference selection in 2002, he registered a career-high 48 tackles, 35 solo, 12 tackles for loss, two pass defenses and one forced fumble. Recorded a school record 4.0 sacks and a career-high eight tackles vs. Tulsa.
- As a sophomore, started all 11 games and finished with 40 tackles, 25 solo, 2.0 sacks, eight tackles for loss, one recovered fumble and two forced fumbles.
- Began freshman season at linebacker but was moved after two games to defensive end, where he started the final six contests. Played in all 11 games overall in 2000, finishing with 27 tackles, 13 solo, 2.5 sacks and three tackles for loss.
- Redshirted as a true freshman in 1999. Majored in sports management.

PERSONAL

Born in Camden, Ark., an all-state selection as a senior at Harmony Grove High School (Camden, Ark.), where he was a three-time all-district choice as he helped the team to a 26-7 overall record his sophomore through senior seasons.

- Four-year letterman who lined up at defensive end, linebacker, fullback, punter and kicker. Was picked to play in the state's all-star game following his senior season.
- As a fullback, rushed for 1,473 yards on 299 carries in his career.
- Lettered four years in basketball as a forward and center, earning all-state and all-region recognition three times.
- Also earned four letters in both baseball and track and led his baseball team in home runs as a junior and senior.
- Placed second in the shot put at the state championship track meet as a senior.
- Has overcome personal tragedy as he lost his father at the age of 15 and his mother five years later.
- Just before the 2004 NFL Scouting Combine, endured the death of his infant daughter, who lived only two weeks after her premature birth.
- Engaged (Andrea), with daughters, TaKhia and Coryuana.

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the seventh round (213th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft.

PRO

Selected in the seventh round (213th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft. Had an impressive showing during the preseason and poses as a solid back-up at defensive end.

2010: Served as a back-up defensive end. Appeared in two games during his rookie season.

- Inactive for season opener at Chicago (9/12), against Philadelphia (9/19), at Minnesota (9/26) at Green Bay (10/3) against St. Louis (10/10), at New York Giants (10/17), against Washington (10/31), against New York Jets (11/7), at Dallas (11/21), against New England (11/25), against Chicago (12/5), against Green Bay (12/12), at Tampa Bay (12/19) and at Miami (12/26).
- Played in first game of his career, primarily on special teams, at Buffalo (11/14).

COLLEGE

Started 36-of-49 games at North Carolina State, including 28 at right defensive end and eight more on the left side. Recorded 194 tackles (109 solos) with 20.0 sacks for minus 140 yards, 46.0 stops for losses totaling 235 yards and 29 pressures. Caused four fumbles and recovered two others. Deflected 11 passes and intercepted three others for 42 yards in returns, including a touchdown. Young became just the sixth player in school history to register 20.0 sacks during a career.

- Young's eight sacks in 2009 tied for seventh place on the school's season-record chart.
- One of five Wolfpack defenders to record at least 40 tackles for loss in a career, as only Mario Williams (55.5, 2003-05) had more than Young's 46.0 on the school's all-time record chart.
- His 15 stops for loss in 2007 tied Levar Fisher (2000), Pat Thomas (2003) and Mario Williams (2004) for seventh on State's season-record list.
- In 2009, named second-team All-ACC selection. Started all 12 games for the first time during his career, leading the team in sacks and tackles for loss. Finished sixth on the squad with 54 tackles (32 solos). His eight sacks for minus 56 yards ranked third in the ACC and tied for 35th in the nation. Also finished third in the conference and tied for 37th in the major college ranks with 14.0 stops for losses totaling 85 yards. Had three pressures, 2 forced fumbles and 3 pass defense, also recorded first career interception.
- Served as one of the team's three captains, participating in 526 defensive snaps.
- Started 11 of 13 games in 2008 at right defensive end. Participated in a career-best 608 plays, as he led the team with 6.5 sacks for minus 51 yards and 12.5 stops for losses of 72 yards. Also paced the Pack with 10 pressures. Recovered two fumbles, blocked a kick, intercepted one pass and deflected four others. Had three sacks, 6.5 stops for loss and seven pressures in the final five games after returning to the lineup from his benching.
- As a sophomore in 2007, played in all 12 games, starting the final eight contests at left defensive end. Saw action in 590 snaps, leading the team with 5.5 sacks for minus 33 yards. His team-high 15.0 stops for losses of 66 yards are the second-highest total by a sophomore in school annals and ranked fourth in the ACC. Credited with 11 pressures, as he caused 2 fumbles and 3 pass defenses.
- Saw action in all 12 games as a freshman, started five contests, including the last four of the season while sharing right defensive end duties with Martrel Brown. Recorded five quarterback pressures with 4.5 stops for losses of 12 yards and 44 tackles (24 solos).
- Turned his first career interception into a 34-yard touchdown return vs. Clemson. Also added a pass defensed.
- Red-shirted while competing on the scout team as a defensive end in 2005. Originally signed with the Pack in 2004, but attended prep school in the fall before enrolling back at State in Jan., 2005.

PERSONAL

Attended Palm Beach (Fla.) Gardens Community High School, where the three-sport standout competed in football, basketball and track. First-team Class 6A All-State pick, as the defensive end recorded 65 tackles, including 25 for loss, and had 12.0 sacks as a senior.

- Made 60 tackles, 15 stops behind the line of scrimmage and nine sacks as a junior.
- Received a three-star prospect rating from Scout.com. In basketball, Young averaged 10 points and 12 rebounds per game in his final season.
- Despite not joining the track team until midway through the season, he finished fourth at the state 4A meet in the high jump.
- Earned his degree in Science and Technology.
- Born Sept. 19, 1985 in Riviera Beach, Florida.

SUMMARY

After taking an early 14-3 lead and forcing four turnovers, Detroit was held scoreless by Chicago in the second half and they fell to the Bears 19-14 in their 2010 season opener. Chicago opened up the scoring on the game's opening possession. The drive was highlighted by Cutler connecting with WR Devin Aromashodu for a 20-yard pickup to the Lions' 38-yard line on third and 2. The Bears advanced to the Lions' 1-yard line before they were halted by the Detroit defense and settled for a 20-yard field goal by K Robbie Gould and a 3-0 lead. On the Bears' next possession, Lions' CB Aaron Berry intercepted a Cutler pass and returned it 23-yards to the Chicago 42-yard line. A roughing the passer penalty by Bears DE Julius Peppers, helped set-up a 7-yard touchdown run by Lions RB Jahvid Best, making the score 7-3. One quarter and two Chicago fumbles later, the Lions took a 14-3 lead on another scoring run by Best, this time from 4-yards out. Prior to Best's rushing touchdown, Stafford connected on passes of 15 and 19 yards to RB Maurice Morris and WR Nate Burleson respectively which put Detroit at the 4-yard line. On the ensuing possession, the Bears stopped Detroit's momentum when RB Matt Forte took a screen pass 89-yards down the sideline for a touchdown, pulling the Bears within four at 14-10 with under two-minutes to play in the half. An official replay showed that Forte may have stepped out of bounds on the play, but after an inconclusive review, the play stood. On the Lions' next possession, Peppers sacked Lions' QB Matthew Stafford and forced a fumble. Then Gould tacked on another field goal as time expired in the first half, making the halftime score 14-13. The Peppers sack late in the second quarter resulted in a shoulder injury for Stafford and he did not return to the game. QB Shaun Hill started and played the entire second half for the Lions. Both teams struggled to move the ball in the third quarter and went scoreless. In the final quarter, Bears LB Lance Briggs blitzed up the middle and caused a fumble while Hill was trying to complete a handoff. The Bears recovered on Detroit's 1-yard line. After three unsuccessful tries, Forte tried to run off tackle and was stopped short by DE Kyle Vanden Bosch and the Lions' defense to complete Detroit's goal line stand. The scored remained 14-13 until Cutler orchestrated a 6-play 56-yard drive that ended with him hitting Forte on a wheel route in the endzone. The Bears did not convert the 2-point conversion, but had taken a 19-14 lead. With only 1:32 left in the game, Hill completed four consecutive passes to move the Lions from their own 17-yard line to the Chicago 25. On second-and-10, Hill connected with Calvin Johnson in the endzone for what appeared to be a 25-yard touchdown pass, but due to NFL's rule regarding 'the process of a catch,' the pass was ruled incomplete. Hill unsuccessfully attempted to get the ball to Johnson on the next two plays, and the Bears held on for the 5-point victory.

SUMMARY

The Lions jumped out to a 17-7 lead, but fell short to the Eagles 35-32, as a result of a standout performance by Philadelphia QB Michael Vick. The Lions had the first possession of the game, and moved into Eagles territory thanks to a third down conversion in which Hill was able to elude a sack by flipping the ball to RB Jahvid Best as he ran for a 19-yard gain. The Lions advanced to the Philadelphia 33-yard line before Hill went to the end zone and was intercepted by Eagles S Nate Allen on a pass that was in the vicinity of both WR Calvin Johnson and TE Tony Scheffler. On the ensuing possession, Lions LB Julian Peterson was flagged for roughing the passer, which put Philadelphia in Lions territory. On the next play, Eagles QB Michael Vick hit WR DeSean Jackson over the middle, and watched Jackson outrun the Lions defense for a 45-yard touchdown, putting the Eagles up 7-0. Detroit responded quickly due to the play of Best who tied the game with a 14-yard touchdown, which capped off a drive where Best had 64-yards on 4 carries. In the second quarter, two Eagles penalties helped move the Lions into field goal range. K Jason Hanson sent a 49-yard field goal through the uprights to give the Lions a 10-7 lead. After a Philadelphia punt, Best caught a screen and raced past the Eagles defense for 75-yard touchdown, upping the Lions' lead to 17-7. Less than two minutes later, the Eagles moved to within 3 at 17-14 after RB LeSean McCoy burst up the middle for a 14-yard touchdown run. Then, with less than two minutes left in the half, Vick connected with Jackson for a 53-yard gain down the middle of the field. That play set up a 9-yard touchdown reception by WR Jeremy Maclin to give Philadelphia a 21-17 lead heading into the half. The Eagles scored on their second possession of the third quarter on McCoy's second touchdown run of the game, this time, for 4 yards. The Eagles defense held the Lions scoreless in the third quarter and stretched their lead to 35-17 when McCoy took a shotgun handoff from Vick 46-yards for the score, one play after Vick hit a crossing WR Jason Avant for an 18-yard gain on third and 16. The Lions went no-huddle on their next possession and QB Shaun Hill went 5-for-6 for 83 yards on the drive before Best punched it in from 2-yards out, making the score 35-24. The Lions defense forced a three-and-out on the ensuing possession, due in large part to a S Louis Delmas sack of Vick along the Detroit sideline on third down. Hill's passing anchored another Lions' scoring drive which was capped off with Hill connecting with WR Calvin Johnson on a post in the end zone. Hill and Johnson hooked up again for a successful two-point conversion, which brought the Lions within three at 35-32. On the subsequent kickoff, Detroit went for an onside kick and it was recovered by Lions S Randy Phillips after an Eagles player bobbled the ball. The Lions did not advance the ball after four incomplete passes and the Eagles escaped with a three-point win.

SUMMARY

Detroit could not sustain their early advantage and fell to Minnesota 24-10 in Minneapolis. After forcing the Vikings to punt on their first two possessions, the Lions made the first impact play of the afternoon when DT Corey Williams intercepted a screen pass from Vikings QB Brett Favre that was intended for RB Toby Gerhart. Williams returned the ball 27 yards to the Minnesota 12-yard line. Three plays later, Lions QB Shaun Hill was flushed out of the pocket and found TE Tony Scheffler in the end zone from five yards out to give Detroit a 7-0 lead. The momentum shifted after the Vikings' next possession, on which the Lions had forced another punt. Lions WR Stefan Logan muffed the punt by Vikings P Chris Kluwe, and Minnesota recovered at the Detroit 24-yard line. On the ensuing play, Favre found WR Percy Harvin streaking to the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown, which evened the score at seven. On their next possession, the Lions moved down the field quickly, in large part due to a 16-yard run by RB Jahvid Best and a leaping 21-yard grab by WR Calvin Johnson. FB Jerome Felton had a 16-yard run of his own to the Minnesota eight-yard line that would've given the Lions a first and goal, but it was negated by a holding call on C Dominic Raiola. As a result, Detroit was ultimately forced to attempt a 44-yard field goal, which K Jason Hanson missed wide left. On the Vikings next possession, the Lions appeared to have forced another Favre turnover when the quarterback fumbled and the Lions recovered, but an unnecessary roughness penalty on Detroit LB Julian Peterson nullified the Lions recovery. The Vikings proceeded to score on that possession when RB Adrian Peterson punched it in from 6-yards out which gave the Vikings a 14-7 lead. The Vikings held that lead until an interception by Lions' CB Alphonso Smith helped to set up a 33-yard field goal by Hanson as time expired in the first half, making the score 14-10 Vikings. On the first drive on the second half, the Lions forced another Minnesota turnover when CB Chris Houston made a diving interception. Houston was flagged for illegal contact, and the Vikings capitalized with a 31-yard Ryan Longwell field goal upping the Vikings lead to 17-10. After Minnesota stopped Lions RB Maurice Morris for negative yardage on a third and two, the Vikings hastily extended their lead on the first play of their next series as Peterson broke free for an 80-yard touchdown run that allowed the Vikings to open up a 14-point lead at 24-10. As they did in the first two games, the Lions fought back valiantly in the fourth quarter. With less than eight minutes left, the Lions went to the shotgun exclusively and Hill methodically moved the Lions down the field with the passing game to the Minnesota four-yard line before being intercepted in the end zone by Vikings LB Ben Leber. The Lions' next possession looked similar to their last, with Hill finding an array of receivers as they moved the ball into the redzone on the Minnesota defense. With about a minute left, Hill targeted Scheffler in the end zone and was intercepted by Vikings CB Antoine Winfield, which sealed the victory for Minnesota.

SUMMARY

In Green Bay, Detroit fought valiantly and controlled the ball for the vast majority of the game, but came up two-points short as they lost to the Packers 28-26. The Packers benefited from a 15-yard face mask penalty on the opening kickoff and opened their first possession at their 45-yard line. They capitalized on the good field position when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Donald Driver in the end zone for a 29-yard touchdown giving the Packers a 7-0 lead. The Lions' first possession featured two third down conversions by TE's Brandon Pettigrew and Tony Scheffler for 13 and 18 yards respectively, before Packers LB A.J. Hawk intercepted a pass from Lions QB Shaun Hill. Early in the second quarter, the Lions got on the scoreboard with a 23-yard touchdown reception by Lions WR Calvin Johnson. Hill found Johnson three times for 44 yards on the drive. The score tied the game at seven. Later in the quarter, a fumble by Detroit RB Jahvid Best that was recovered by Green Bay helped set-up a 13-yard strike from Rodgers to TE Jermichael Finley putting the Packers back up by seven at 14-7. The Packers forced the Lions into a three-and-out, and tacked on another seven points as WR Greg Jennings brought in a 17-yard touchdown, upping the Packers' lead to 21-7. The score was setup by a 48-yard catch by Driver. The Lions closed the gap to seven before halftime due to a 13-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with Johnson catching his second touchdown of the game. This time he scored from 21-yards out. Hill connected on 10-of-11 passes on the drive. On the first possession of the second half, Packers CB Charles Woodson made a diving interception and returned it 48-yards for a touchdown. The play was upheld after a challenge by Detroit and the Packers led 28-14. The Lions used a balanced attack to move down the field quickly on their ensuing drive, which ended with a 39-yard field goal by Lions K Jason Hanson, taking the score to 28-17. On the next possession, Lions CB Chris Houston intercepted a Rodgers pass at the Detroit 11, but the play was nullified due to an offsides penalty against Lions DE Turk McBride. Three plays later, Houston picked off Rodgers again as he tried to connect with Jennings. The Lions took over at their own seven and drove 59 yards en route to a 52-yard field goal by Hanson bringing the Lions within eight at 28-20. Hill picked up 40 of the 59 yards on a scramble from Detroit's 30-yard line to the Green Bay 30-yard line. The Lions forced a Green Bay three-and-out and Hanson added another field goal. The 49-yarder made the score 28-23. On the following kickoff, Lions WR Stefan Logan recovered a fumble by Packers WR Jordy Nelson, which was caused by Lions LB Ashlee Palmer, giving the Lions great field position. After advancing to the Green Bay 6-yard line, the Lions had to settle for a 24-yard Hanson field goal, shrinking the Packers lead to 28-26 early in the fourth quarter. After an interception by CB Alphonso Smith, the Lions were forced to punt, giving Green Bay the ball with 6:32 left in the game. The Packers relied on RB John Kuhn to burn the time left on the clock, and they did so successfully as Green Bay held on for the two-point win.

SUMMARY

Detroit captured its first win of the season in a 44-6 rout of the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field. On the opening kickoff, the Rams tried to catch the Lions off guard with a surprise onside kick, but were unsuccessful. The Lions recovered at the Rams' 41-yard line and moved quickly into field goal range opening up the scoring with a 30-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson, putting the Lions on top 3-0. After each team punted the ball away, the Rams put together a drive that took them to the Detroit 9-yard line. Appearing to be on the brink of scoring, the Rams' drive ended when Rams WR Danny Amendola fumbled after receiving a pass from QB Sam Bradford. Lions CB Alphonso Smith recovered the ball and then fumbled it himself, and it was finally picked up and returned to the Lions' 27 by CB Jonathan Wade. After a Lions' punt, the Rams drove 62 yards in 12 plays in a drive that culminated in a 28-yard field goal by K Josh Brown, making the score 3-3 as the first quarter ended. On the ensuing kickoff, Lions WR Stefan Logan caught the ball five yards into his own end zone and maneuvered his way through the Rams' coverage team as he made the score 10-3 with a 105-yard return touchdown. After a Rams three-and-out, the Lions used the pass to move to the Rams 1-yard line, where QB Shaun Hill found WR Calvin Johnson for the score. On the drive, Hill went 8-9 for 90 yards and the Lions' lead was expended to 17-3. The Rams responded with a 68-yard drive that ended with another 28-yard Brown field goal, making the score 17-6. The Lions drive started with 1:37 remaining in the half and hastily moved into field goal range when Hill found Johnson down the right sideline for 16 yards. A few plays after Johnson had a touchdown reversed as result of a review, Hill found RB Kevin Smith over the middle for 17 yards down to the St. Louis 3. Two plays later, Hill found TE Brandon Pettigrew for the 3-yard touchdown, which gave the Lions a 24-6 lead at the half. The Lions continued to build on their momentum at the beginning of the second half as they forced a St. Louis punt after three downs. Logan returned the punt 17 yards and the Lions started the drive on the Rams' side of the field. On the fourth play of the drive, Hill hit WR Nate Burleson with a short pass to the left, then Burleson outran the St. Louis defense down the middle of the field for the 26-yard touchdown. The Lions lead swelled to 31-6. The score remained, until Hanson drove home a 48-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter giving the Lions a 34-6 advantage. On the ensuing possession, a Bradford pass was deflected into the air and intercepted by Lions DT Ndamukong Suh. The rookie returned the ball 20-yards to the St. Louis 30. Three plays later, Detroit settled for another Hanson field goal, this time from 47 yards out. The Lions led 37-6. The Lions' scoring was complete when Alphonso Smith broke on and intercepted a Bradford pass intended for Amendola, which he took to the house for a 42-yard touchdown, pushing the Lions lead to 44-6. The Rams turned the ball over on downs on their next possession, which sewed up the victory for Detroit.

SUMMARY

After scoring first and outgaining New York, Detroit fell to the Giants 28-20 on the road. The Lions defense opened the game in impressive fashion, forcing a Giants' punt. While attempting to punt, Giants' P Matt Dodge dropped the snap and it was recovered by Lions' DE Lawrence Jackson at the New York 43. The Lions used a balanced attack to get two first downs and advance the ball to the Giants' 23. On third-and-one from the New York 14, Lions QB Shaun Hill found WR Nate Burleson down the left sideline for the 14-yard score and a 7-0 lead. After a punt by Detroit on their next possession, Giants' WR Darius Reynaud returned the kick 20-yards to put New York in Detroit territory. Giants' QB Eli Manning found WR Steve Smith for a 20-yard gain on the next play, and that set up a touchdown by RB Brandon Jacobs four plays later. The Giants struck again in the second quarter when Manning hit WR Mario Manningham over the middle for a 33-yard touchdown, which put the Giants ahead 14-7. The ensuing drive started off well with the Lions moving quickly into Giants' territory as a result of a 22-yard reception to WR Calvin Johnson. Two plays later Hill left the game with a broken left forearm, and QB Drew Stanton was inserted. Stanton helped move the Lions into field goal range after connecting with TE Tony Scheffler on a bootleg on fourth-and-one. K Jason Hanson was successful from 50-yards out to bring the Lions closer at 14-10 heading into the locker room. On the opening drive of the second half, the Lions used short and efficient passes to move to the New York 33. On third down, Stanton's 28-yard pass to Burleson, which put the Lions at the Giants' 5-yard line, was nullified by an illegal formation penalty on T Gosder Cherilus. On the next play, Stanton was sacked and stripped by Giants' DE Osi Umeniyora, who also recovered the fumble. Thanks in large part to three Detroit penalties, the Giants' moved to the Lions' 1-yard line. Manning found TE Travis Beckum for the short score which widened New York's lead to 21-10. Early in the fourth quarter, Stanton zipped a pass in between the safety and corner to Calvin Johnson, who jogged to the end zone for an 87-yard touchdown. It brought the score to 21-17. Later in the fourth, as the Lions were driving, Burleson caught a pass from Stanton for a first down. Burleson fumbled as he went down and the ball was recovered by Giants' S Deon Grant on the New York 42. Giants' RB Ahmad Bradshaw broke a 45-yard run which set up another score by Jacobs, this time for six-yards, extending the Giants' lead to 28-17. Lions WR Stefan Logan returned the ensuing kickoff 58 yards to the New York 40. Three plays later, Hanson added his second 50-yard field goal of the afternoon, making the contest a one possession game at 28-20. After a three-and-out by New York, the Lions got the ball back with 2:18 left on the clock. Using their two-minute offense, the Lions got down to the Giants' 38 before Stanton's throw intended for TE Brandon Pettigrew was intercepted by Giants' S Antrel Rolle with 0:07 remaining, ensuring a Giants' victory.

SUMMARY

The Lions got their second victory with a 37-25 win over the Washington Redskins at Ford Field. In the first quarter, both offenses were relatively ineffective. The best scoring chance came in on the Lions second possession when QB Matthew Stafford, who was making his first start in six games, threw an interception to Redskins CB DeAngelo Hall while trying to hit Lions' WR Calvin Johnson in the corner of the end zone. Stafford didn't let the mistake sit with him very long. After a 71-yard punt return by Lions' WR Stefan Logan, Stafford found Johnson who spun out of a tackle and extended the ball across the goal line for a 13-yard Lions touchdown and 7-0 Detroit lead. Redskins WR Brandon Banks returned the ensuing kickoff 46-yards to the Lions for 47, which helped to setup a 6-yard touchdown pass from Redskins QB Donovan McNabb to RB Ryan Torain to even the score at 7-7. Washington took a 10-7 lead later in the second quarter when K Graham Gano hit a 38-yard field goal. Gano added a 46-yard field goal before the half to up Washington's lead to 13-7 heading into the locker room. The Lions started their second drive of the second half at their own 48-yard line after a 23-yard punt by Washington P Hunter Smith. A 20-yard run to the Washington 16 by Lions' RB Jahvid Best put the Lions in the red zone for the second time. Detroit capitalized when Stafford completed a short pass to TE Brandon Pettigrew for the score, which allowed the Lions to regain the lead at 14-13. That score remained until early in the fourth quarter when Washington RB Keiland Williams ran off tackle for a 5-yard touchdown that was setup by a 35-yard punt return by Banks to the Detroit 46. The Redskins two-point conversion attempt fell incomplete, but Washington led 19-14. On the subsequent kickoff, Lions' FB Jerome Felton brought the ball back to the Washington 47 with a 37-yard return. Six plays later, Stafford connected with Johnson again for a 7-yard touchdown. After a failed two-point conversion attempt, the Lions led 20-19. The Redskins answered quickly as Banks returned Lions' K Jason Hanson's kick 96-yards for what would be Washington's final six points of the game. Again, the Redskins failed to convert the two-point attempt and the score sat at 25-20, Washington. The Lions were forced to punt on their next possession, but CB Alphonso Smith helped them get the ball back when he intercepted McNabb and gave the Lions the ball at the Washington 37. On fourth-and-one from the Washington 10-yard line, Stafford threaded-the-needle when he found Calvin Johnson for their third touchdown of the afternoon. On the two-point try, Stafford hit WR Bryant Johnson to put the Lions up 28-25. On the ensuing possession, McNabb was sacked by Lions DE Cliff Avril on fourth down at the Redskins' 20-yard line. The turnover resulted in a 32-yard field goal by Hanson, extending the Lions lead to 31-25. The Redskins opted for backup QB Rex Grossman, who was sacked on his first play by Lions DE Kyle Vanden Bosch and fumbled; the ball was scooped up by Detroit DT Ndamukong Suh who proceeded to strut into the end zone for the final score with under two minutes left. Though the two-point conversion attempt fell incomplete, the Lions had the game in hand and held onto win, 37-25.

SUMMARY

After outplaying the New York Jets for more than three quarters, the Detroit Lions fell 23-20 in overtime after a Jets comeback. On the game's opening drive, Detroit's offense took the field against one of the league's top defenses. The Lions converted a third-and-15 when QB Matthew Stafford found RB Kevin Smith over the middle for 27 yards. Jets S Brodney Pool was flagged for illegal contact on a third-and-9, which gave the Lions a first-and-goal at the New York 10-yard line. Stafford then connected with TE Brandon Pettigrew for a 10-yard touchdown, giving the Lions a 7-0 lead. Both team's defenses took control until late in the second quarter. Jets' K Nick Folk culminated a nearly four minute New York drive with a 31-yard field goal that made the score 7-3. After a Lions punt, Jets' QB Mark Sanchez successfully threw a 74-yard bomb to WR Braylon Edwards with one minute remaining in the first half. On the first possession of the second half, Lions' S Louis Delmas stripped Edwards after a reception and recovered the fumble at the New York 47. On the next two plays, Stafford completed passes to WR Nate Burleson for 12 and 15-yards respectively, which put the Lions at the Jets' 20. After a catch-and-run to the 4-yard line by Lions RB Jahvid Best, the Jets forced the Lions to attempt a field goal. The attempt was good by K Jason Hanson, but Jets' DE Trevor Pryce was called for Roughing the Kicker. Hanson's right leg was injured on the play. On the next snap, the Lions ran a bootleg and Stafford beat the Jets' defense around the right edge into the end zone. Due to Hanson's injury, Lions' rookie DT Ndamukong Suh attempted the extra point and it ricocheted off the right upright. The Lions led 13-10 and that score remained heading into the fourth quarter. The Lions had the ball as the quarter began and quickly moved the ball to the New York 1-yard line due to a 36-yard pass-and-catch from Stafford to Burleson and then a blatant pass interference call on Jets' S Eric Smith in the end zone. On third-and-goal from the two, Stafford lobbed a pass to Burleson for another Lions touchdown. Hanson returned and tacked on the extra point to give Detroit a 20-10 advantage. While Hanson could try short kicks, the kickoff duties were relegated to P Nick Harris. Later in the quarter, while trying to escape pressure, Stafford scrambled up the middle and landed hard on his right shoulder. He left the game and did not return. He was replaced by QB Drew Stanton. New York's next possession did not last very long, as they went to their hurry-up offense. On a drive that lasted 1:40, Sanchez scored on a quarterback sneak to bring the Jets within three at 20-17. On third-and-six, on the ensuing Lions' possession, Detroit ran a bootleg with Stanton that the Jets covered well. Stanton's pass to FB Jerome Felton fell incomplete, stopping the clock at 1:54. The Jets took over with 1:40 remaining, and used short passes to move close to midfield. New York moved into field goal range after Lions LB Julian Peterson was flagged for a late hit on Jets RB LaDainian Tomlinson. Four snaps later, Folk hit a 36-yard field goal as time expired to send the game into overtime at 20-20. The Jets won the toss and got the first possession of the extra stanza. On their second play, Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes on a dig route across the middle, and he raced 52-yards before he was dragged down by Lions' LB DeAndre Levy at the Detroit 16. New York opted to attempt a field goal on third down and Folk connected from 30 yards out to give the Jets the three point victory.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions played a fierce game defensively, but they came up a little short in a 14-12 loss to the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The first three possessions of the game resulted in two Lions' punts and one by the Bills. The Bills' best scoring chance in the opening 15 minutes came on their second possession when they drove down to the Detroit 12-yard line. The Bills went for it on fourth-and-one, but RB Fred Jackson was stuffed in the backfield by Lions' LB Ashlee Palmer. On the ensuing Detroit drive, the Lions used a balanced attack to move the ball to the Buffalo 34 before QB Shaun Hill was intercepted by Buffalo DE Dwan Edwards after his pass intended for TE Tony Scheffler was tipped by Bills' S Donte Whitner. The Bills turned that turnover into six points early in the second quarter when Jackson scored from a yard out. The play was setup by a 43-yard reception by Bills' WR Lee Evans and put Buffalo up 7-0. That score remained until late in the quarter when Lions' WR Stefan Logan returned a Brian Moorman punt 24 yards to the Buffalo 30 with 39 seconds left in the quarter. The Lions capitalized with a 25-yard field goal by K Dave Rayner as time expired to bring the Lions within four at 7-3. Buffalo had the first possession of the second half and on their first play, Jackson picked up 39-yards before he was pushed out of bounds at the Detroit 34. Five plays later, Jackson received a shovel pass from QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, broke to the outside and got into the end zone for the touchdown. The Bills were now up 14-3. Buffalo's 11-point advantage held until the fourth quarter when Rayner made a 45-yard field goal after missing from 49-yards out on the Lions' prior drive. This made the score 14-6. After forcing a Bills punt, the Lions got the ball back with 3:45 remaining at their own 12. The Lions went to a no huddle offense and Hill found TE Brandon Pettigrew for 14-yards on a fourth-and-five to Detroit 45. The Lions were confronted with another fourth down and Hill found WR Nate Burleson over the middle for 23-yards. On the third fourth down of the drive, WR Calvin Johnson ran free down the middle of the field and received a perfect pass from Hill in the end zone to bring the Lions within two at 14-12 with 0:14 left on the clock. Needing to go for two, the Lions opted to pass, but everyone was covered. Hill tried to connect with Pettigrew, but the ball was overthrown in the back of the end zone, which sealed the game for Buffalo.

SUMMARY

After having a five-point lead in the third quarter, the Detroit Lions fell to the Dallas Cowboys 35-19 in Arlington. After being forced to punt on their first possession, the Lions pinned the Cowboys on their own 2-yard line after a 48-yard punt by P Nick Harris. Cowboys' QB Jon Kitna spread the ball to four different receivers while moving the Cowboys into the red zone. Two runs moved Dallas to the Detroit one, where Kitna found WR Dez Bryant in the corner of the end zone for the score as the Cowboys got on the board first at 7-0. On the ensuing possession, Lions' QB Shaun Hill hit RB Jahvid Best to convert on a third down and move into Dallas territory. The Lions were held and settled for a 47-yard field goal by K Dave Rayner, making the score 7-3 early in the second quarter. Much of the second quarter was filled with solid defense and punts. On his final punt of the half, Harris pinned the Cowboys on their own four with 48 seconds remaining. On the first play of the drive, Lions' DE Kyle Vanden Bosch forced a fumble by Cowboys' RB Felix Jones. The ball was recovered by Lions' LB DeAndre Levy at the Dallas 14. Three plays later, Hill connected with WR Nate Burleson in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown, giving the Lions a 10-7 lead heading into the half. A great Nick Harris punt led to more points for the Lions after he landed a punt at the Dallas four. On the next play, Cowboys G Leonard Davis was flagged for holding Lions DT Ndamukong Suh in the end zone, which resulted in a safety, increasing the Lions' lead to five at 12-7. Detroit punted on their next possession. Harris' punt bounced inside the five, and Lions' S John Wendling batted the ball away from the end zone to prevent a touchback. It was then fielded by Cowboys' CB Bryan McCann who had a convoy of blockers that led him down the sideline and to the end zone for a 97-yard touchdown. The score gave the Cowboys a 14-12 lead. On the second play of the ensuing drive, Dallas LB Sean Lee knocked the ball loose from Lions FB Jerome Felton. The ball was recovered by Cowboys' DE Jason Hatcher at the Detroit 19. Four plays later, WR Miles Austin caught a 3-yard pass from Kitna for the score, to extend the Dallas lead to 21-12. The Lions responded on their next drive with a 58-yard pass from Hill to Burleson to the Dallas 12. That play setup a 14-yard touchdown pass-and-catch from Hill to WR Calvin Johnson to make it a 21-19 game, which it remained heading into the fourth quarter. Kitna found Austin in the end zone again on the Dallas' next drive, this time, from 4-yards out. The Cowboys now led 28-19. After a Lions' punt, Dallas started their drive at their own 20. A 24-yard screen pass to Jones on second down put the Cowboys into Detroit territory. On fourth-and-one from the Detroit 29, Kitna ran a bootleg around the left end for the score, which gave Dallas a 35-19 lead with 3:17 remaining. Dallas stopped the Lions on their next two drives and came away with the victory.

SUMMARY

Detroit led for much of the game, but eventually fell to the Patriots 45-24.The Patriots got on the board first with a 41-yard drive that culminated in a 19-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham to put them up 3-0. On the ensuing possession, the Lions marched to the New England 19-yard line, due in large part to two first down runs by QB Shaun Hill. From the 19, Hill connected with WR Calvin Johnson in the front of the end zone for the touchdown. The score gave the Lions a 7-3 lead as the first quarter ended. During their first drive of the second quarter, the Lions used a balanced attack to methodically move down the field in a drive that ended with a 1-yard touchdown plunge by RB Maurice Morris, putting Detroit up 14-3. The Patriots responded quickly and scored on the ensuing possession when RB BenJarvus Green-Ellis scored from 15-yards out. An 18-yard reception by rookie TE Aaron Hernandez to the Detroit 34 on a third-and-one helped to setup the score which made it a 14-10 ballgame with less than 0:45 left in the half. The Lions moved into field goal range when Hill found WR Nate Burleson over the middle for a 20-yard pickup. K Dave Rayner converted a 44-yard field goal try on the next play to give Detroit a 17-10 halftime advantage. A leaping interception by Patriots rookie CB Devin McCourty gave New England the ball at the Detroit 26. Four plays later, Patriots WR Wes Welker took a short pass from QB Tom Brady and muscled his way into the end zone for the 5-yard touchdown. The score was now even at 17 early in the second half. The Lions responded immediately as WR Stefan Logan returned the following kickoff 42 yards to the Lions 42. Five plays into the drive, Hill found Johnson down the left sideline for a 21-yard gain that put the Lions at the New England nine. On a fourth-and-one Morris took a pitch into the end zone from a yard out to give the Lions a 24-17 lead. On the third play of the Patriots next possession, Brady hit WR Deion Branch in stride as he proceeded to maneuver his way to the endzone for a 79-yard score which made the game a 24-24 tie. The Patriots broke the tie when Brady and Branch collaborated again for a touchdown. This time, it was from 22 yards out to give the Patriots a 31-24 advantage. After a Lions punt, New England used the pass to advance into the red zone, where Brady found a wide-open Welker in the slot for a 16-yard score. The Patriots lead was now 38-24. McCourty got his second interception of the game on the ensuing Detroit drive. New England setup shop at the Detroit 12 and four plays later, Green-Ellis punched in another touchdown, extending the lead to 45-24 and putting the game out of reach.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions held a three-point lead heading into the final quarter, but a Chicago touchdown early in the fourth helped give the Bears a 24-20 win at Ford Field. After forcing a Chicago punt, the Lions began their second possession on the Bears' 38-yard line thanks to a 19-yard return by WR Stefan Logan. The Lions capitalized on the good field position when QB Drew Stanton got into the end zone with a quarterback draw from 3 yards out to put the Lions up 7-0. The Bears responded on the ensuing possession with a 1-yard touchdown by RB Chester Taylor to cap a 13-play, 76-yard drive that tied the game at seven. The play was set up by a 14-yard pass from QB Jay Cutler to WR Earl Bennett to the Detroit 22 on third-and-eight. Logan came up big again on the Lions' next possession when he picked up 17-yards on an end-around. The Bears defense held and the Lions settled for a 50-yard Dave Rayner field goal that gave the Lions a three-point lead at 10-7. The Bears continued the string of scoring when RB Matt Forte outraced the Lions defense around the left side for a 14-yard touchdown to make it 14-10 Chicago. Late in the second quarter, Bears' P Brad Maynard pinned the Lions on their own nine with 0:53 remaining in the half. On the first play of the drive, RB Jahvid Best bounced a run outside and picked up 45-yards. On the next play, WR Calvin Johnson caught a Stanton pass over the middle and took it 46-yards to the end zone, stiff arming a couple of Bears' defenders on his way. The Lions led 17-14 at the half. To open the second half, the Lions' DE Turk McBride sacked Cutler, forced him to fumble and recovered the ball on the Chicago 9. The Lions could not punch it in and settled for a 20-14 lead after a 25-yard Rayner field goal. The Bears cut the Lions' lead in half when K Robbie Gould hit a 54-yard field goal to make the score 20-17. When the Lions got the ball back, they moved into Bears territory and faced a fourth-and-one from the Chicago 41. They went for it, and a bootleg attempt was unsuccessful as Stanton's pass to WR Nate Burleson was broken up by Bears CB D.J. Moore. The Bears moved to the Detroit 22 largely due to another third down conversion hookup by Cutler and Bennett. On the next play, Lions DT Ndamukong Suh was flagged for a controversial unnecessary roughness penalty when he aggressively pushed Cutler to the ground as he was scrambling. On the next play, Cutler dumped a short pass to TE Brandon Manumaleuna, and he shook off a hit and fell into the end zone to give the Bears a 24-20 lead with 8:39 left in the game. The Lions were forced to punt, giving the Bears the ball back with 5:17 remaining. The Bears were able to pick up three first downs, which enabled them to run the remaining time off the clock.

SUMMARY

In a game that was dominated by both defenses, the Detroit Lions reached the end zone in the fourth quarter to defeat the Green Bay Packers 7-3 at Ford Field. The first quarter was full of short possessions and turnovers. The Packers started their first drive at their own 46-yard line, but were unable to capitalize on the good field position, due to Lions LB Landon Johnson stripping the ball from Packers TE Andrew Quarless. Lions CB Brandon McDonald recovered the fumble and the Lions started their drive from their own 28. The Lions ran the ball on the first seven plays of the possession to move to the Green Bay 27. On their first pass of the drive QB Drew Stanton escaped a sack and threw up a pass that was intercepted in the end zone by Packers CB Tramon Williams. Later in the quarter, the Packers squandered another chance to score when WR Donald Driver got behind the Lions defense but Driver couldn't pull in the pass by QB Aaron Rodgers, and Lions S Amari Spievey plucked the ball out of the air for the interception. Late in the second quarter, while scrambling, Rodgers took a hard hit from Johnson and suffered a concussion. He was replaced by QB Matt Flynn. The second half began with the score knotted at zero. On the first play of the second half, Flynn hit Quarless on a bootleg and Landon Johnson suffered a neck injury while tackling the rookie tight end. The Packers would proceed to move into Lions territory before the drive stalled and they had to settle for a 42-yard field goal by K Mason Crosby, which gave the Packers a 3-0 lead and their only points of the game. The Packers reached the red zone on their next drive, and got the ball down to the Detroit 9-yard line. Flynn tried to hit Driver over the middle, but the pass with picked off by Lions LB DeAndre Levy who brought the ball out of the end zone to the nine. Four plays later, Stanton threw a bomb to WR Calvin Johnson for a 44-yard gain, which put the Lions in field goal range. After picking up six yards on their next three plays, K Dave Rayner attempted a 48-yard field goal that went wide left and allowed the Packers to retain their lead. On the Lions' next drive Stanton found WR Bryant Johnson for 10-yards on a third-and-three. Three plays later, he connected with TE Brandon Pettigrew on a third-and-two for an 11-yard gain. Those plays helped to set up a tight end screen to Will Heller, which he took into the end zone for a 13-yard touchdown that put the Lions up 7-3 with 7:55 remaining. After punts by each team, the Packers got the ball for the last time with 3:58 left in the game. Green Bay advanced to the Lions' 31, but Flynn's fourth down pass was a little bit too far ahead of WR Greg Jennings and the Lions held on for the hard-fought victory.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions were victorious for the second straight week as they defeated the 8-5 Tampa Bay Buccaneers in overtime. The game also snapped the Lions' road losing streak. The first score came late in the first quarter when Lions WR Nate Burleson caught a short pass and muscled his way through Buccaneers CB E.J. Biggers for a 10-yard touchdown. Pass plays of 20 and 16 yards from QB Drew Stanton to WR Calvin Johnson helped set up the score which gave the Lions a 7-0 lead. The Bucs responded with a 60-yard drive that culminated with a 24-yard touchdown pass from QB Josh Freeman to rookie WR Mike Williams to even the score at seven. One play prior to the touchdown, Freeman hit WR Arrelious Benn for a 13-yard gain on fourth-and-two to put the Bucs in position to score. On Tampa Bay's next possession, RB LaGarrette Blount bounced off of several Lions defenders on his way to the end zone from 39-yards out. The Bucs now led 14-7. On the ensuing drive, Stanton began the series with a 13-yard pass to TE Brandon Pettigrew, an 11-yard completion to Burleson and then a 30-yard catch-and-run by Calvin Johnson to put the Lions at Tampa Bay's 30-yard line at the two minute warning. Detroit could not reach the end zone and settled for a 41-yard field goal by K Dave Rayner to make it a 14-10 ballgame at the half. The Lions opened the second half with the ball and capitalized. An end around to Burleson picked up 25-yards and put the Lions at the Tampa Bay 21. Four plays later, Lions RB Maurice Morris ran strong up the middle for a 10-yard touchdown to give the Lions a 17-14 lead. That score would remain heading into the fourth quarter. Early in the fourth, Tampa drove down to the Detroit one. They were denied on two consecutive runs. On third down, a touchdown pass to TE Kellen Winslow was nullified because of an offensive pass interference call on the tight end. Buccaneers K Connor Barth tacked on three point to make the score 17-17. Tampa Bay took a 20-17 lead when Barth connected on a 26-yard field goal try with 1:39 remaining in regulation. On the last possession of regulation, Stanton found Lions WR Bryant Johnson over the middle for 19-yards. Two plays later, Calvin Johnson made an acrobatic catch down the right sideline and rolled out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 22 for a 23-yard pick up. The Lions ultimately attempted a 28-yard field with 0:02 remaining. Rayner's kick was perfect and it sent the game into overtime tied at 20. The Lions had the first and only possession of the overtime session. On the first play, Morris bolted up the middle for 26-yards. That play was followed by a 14-yard pickup by RB Jahvid Best to the Buccaneer 39. On third-and-8 Calvin Johnson made an amazing leaping catch on which he tapped his toes just inside line to put the Lions in position to kick a game winning field goal. Rayner then connected from 34-yards out to give the Lions a thrilling triumph.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions extended their winning streak to three games with a 34-27 win over the Miami Dolphins. The Lions received the ball first and were forced to punt. During the return, Lions LB Ashlee Palmer delivered a crushing blow to Dolphins WR Davone Bess and forced a fumble which Lions LB Landon Johnson recovered at the Miami 19-yard line. Detroit turned the turnover into a 39-yard field goal by K Dave Rayner to jump out to a 3-0 lead. The Dolphins evened the score later in the first quarter with a 40-yard field goal by K Dan Carpenter. On the ensuing possession the Lions went 80 yards in six plays on a drive that culminated with a 20-yard touchdown strike to TE Brandon Pettigrew from QB Shaun Hill to put the Lions up 10-3. The Dolphins responded on their next possession as they used a balanced attack to march 80 yards and score with a 4-yard run by RB Lousaka Polite to make it a 10-10 game. Late in the first half, Bess returned a Lions punt 25-yards and set the Dolphins up at the Detroit 40 with 1:42 left. On the second play of the series, the Lions lost CB Chris Houston due to a shoulder injury. Two plays later, Bess caught a touchdown on a pass that was tipped. The play was reviewed to see in Bess stepped out of bounds before he caught the pass, but it was upheld. The Dolphins led 17-10 at the half. On the Lions' first possession of the second half, Shaun Hill's passes accounted for three third down conversions, including an 8-yard pickup to WR Bryant Johnson on third-and-six to put the Lions at the Miami five. One the next play, Lions RB Maurice Morris outran the Miami defense to the outside for the touchdown, knotting the score at 17. Once again, Miami answered with a score of their own. A 29-yard pass from QB Chad Henne to TE Mickey Shuler setup a 1-yard score by RB Ronnie Brown to give the Dolphins the lead at 24-17 heading into the fourth. The Dolphins added another field goal before the Lions scored again. Hill found RB Jahvid Best across the middle and Best proceeded to take the short pass 53-yards and into the end zone to bring the Lions within three at 27-24. Three plays into the Dolphins' next drive, Lions CB Nathan Vasher intercepted a Henne pass at the Miami 36. Rayner connected on a big 47-yard field goal to tie the game at 27. The Dolphins got the ball back and proceeded to turn the ball over again on the third play of the drive when Lions LB DeAndre Levy stepped in front of a stumbling Bess to pick off Henne. Levy ran inside the ten, cut back and found his way into the end zone to give the Lions a 34-27 lead with 2:11 remaining. The Dolphins were able to move down to the Detroit 28 with 0:19 remaining and no timeouts. Henne hit Ronnie Brown in the flats, whose attempt to get out of bounds was foiled by Vasher who made a great tackle that gave the Lions their second consecutive road win.

SUMMARY

The Detroit Lions' 20-13 victory over the Minnesota Vikings gave them a fourth consecutive win as they finished the 2010 season. After forcing the Vikings to punt on their first possession, the Lions used short passes and runs by numerous running backs to march to the Minnesota 8-yard line. On first down, QB Shaun Hill threw a short pass to TE Tony Scheffler who appeared to be on his way into the end zone, until a hit by Vikings LB Ben Leber cause Scheffler to fumble as he stretched for the goal line. The ball was recovered in the end zone by Vikings S Jamarca Sanford. Minnesota could not capitalize on the turnover and the first quarter ended with the teams tied at 0. On their first drive of the second quarter, the Vikings moved into Detroit territory before Lions S Amari Spievey intercepted a pass by Vikings QB Joe Webb. A 20-yard gain on a reverse by WR Nate Burleson helped set up a 55-yard field goal by K Dave Rayner to put the Lions on the board first at 3-0. On the Lions' next possession, the offense marked 94 yards for a touchdown in 15 plays as Hill completed 10-of-12 passes for 83 yards, including four to Burleson. Burleson's fourth reception of the drive was for a 7-yard touchdown in the back of the end zone with 0:23 left in the half. The Lions led 10-0 after the first 30 minutes. The Lions continued their efficiency on offense on the second half's opening drive. An 18-yard pass from Hill to WR Bryant Johnson helped set up a 37-yard field goal by Rayner that gave the Lions a 13-0 advantage. The Vikings finally got on the scoreboard when DE Jared Allen snagged one of Hill's passes out of the air and raced 36 yards for the score. The touchdown brought Minnesota to within six at 13-7, which was the score heading into the final 15 minutes. Vikings K Ryan Longwell added a 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to make the score 13-10. On the first play of the ensuing possession, Hill connected with Burleson yet again. This time, the throw-and-catch went for 33-yards and put the Lions at the Minnesota 44. Six plays later, Johnson made a diving 23-yard catch down the left sideline at the Minnesota five. On the next play, RB Maurice Morris took a draw into the end zone from 5-yards out to extend the lead to ten. Longwell added a 48-yard field goal with 1:55 remaining to bring the score to 20-13 but the ensuing Vikings' onsides kick attempt was recovered by Burleson. The Lions were forced to punt, but were able to burn the clock down to 0:10. With 80-yards to go in one play, the Vikings attempted eight laterals on that one play, but Webb was brought down by Lions CB Eric King as time expired, allowing the Lions to hold on for the seven point win.

YALE LARY SPECIAL TEAMS MVP

Yale Lary Award is presented to the Special Teams MVP. Yale Lary was an All-Pro defensive back and one of the NFL's greatest punters. Along with his 50 interceptions, he became an even more valuable weapon on Detroit's special teams. Lary won NFL punting titles in 1959, 1961 and 1963, missing in 1962 by just 3.6 inches. Lary played in nine Pro Bowls and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979.

ALL-TIME TEAM

The Lions All-Time Team was compiled by an online fan voting process on Detroitlions.com and a selection committee that consisted of five members of the media and four long-time employees of the Detroit Lions. The media portion included: Mike O'Hara (Detroit News), Tom Kowalski (Booth News), Curt Sylvester (retired, Detroit Free Press), Jerry Green (retired Detroit News) and Jim Brandstatter (broadcaster). Lions employees were Asst. Dir. of Pro Personnel Charlie Sanders, Sr. Dir. of Community Affairs Tim Pendell, former equipment mgr. Danny Jaroshewich and retired athletic trainer Kent Falb.

PRIDE OF THE LIONS

LIONS ON THE AP ALL-PRO TEAM

The Associated Press All-Pro Team dates back to 1930. In 1951, the AP began designating the All-Pro Team by offense and defense. From 1930-50, positions selected included the following: End (E), Tackle (T), Guard (G), Center (C) and Back (B). This designation represented the offensive and defensive systems of the era as well as the commonality of two-way players. The first year the offensive backfield was separated by Quarterback, Fullback and Half (Running) Back was 1954. The first year the AP designated the defensive backfield by Safety (S) and Cornerback (B or CB in 1963) was 1955. Wide Receiver (WR), also known as Flanker (FL) from 1963-69, were first separated in 1963, having been previously combined as the End (E) position. Punter (P) and Placekicker (PK) was first honored in 1970 and Kick Returner (KR) in 1978.

* Played at Memorial Stadium (Champaign, Ill.)

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hosted the Bears for the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game on November 29, 1934. The game, played in front of a then-record 26,000 fans at the University of Detroit Stadium, was won by the Bears, 19-16, giving the Bears the Western Division championship. NBC Radio Network broadcasted the game coast-to-coast and a Thanksgiving tradition was born.
- On Thanksgiving Day (November 27) in 1997, the Lions downed the Bears 55-20 for their largest offensive output ever against Chicago. RB Barry Sanders rushed for 167 yards and three touchdowns in the win at the Silverdome. Earlier in the 1997 season, Sanders put up 161 yards on Chicago in a 32-7 victory over the Bears.
- WR Herman Moore set a franchise record with 14 catches for 183 yards in a 27-7 win December 4, 1995 at the Pontiac Silverdome.
- Detroit had its best stretch against the Bears when it won 11 of 12 games from September 22, 1968 to December 9, 1973.
- Five contests have gone to overtime—including both in 2002— with the Bears winning three of them.
- In the 2004 season opener, Detroit topped Chicago 20-17 to end its 24-game road losing streak. A key play in the game was S Bracy Walker return of a blocked FG an NFL-record 92 yards.
- With the Lions trailing 13-3 going into the fourth quarter vs. Chicago at Ford Field September 30, 2007, the Lions reeled off an NFL record 34 points in the quarter to claim a 37-27 win. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history a team scored 30 or more points in a quarter. Detroit scored five touchdowns, including two passing, one rushing, one interception and one kickoff return. The teams also combined for 48 points, which is a record for combined fourth quarter points.
- On October 28, 2007, the Lions defeated the Bears 16-7 at Soldier Field. K Jason Hanson, connected on a 52-yarder, which was his career longest against the Bears on the road, and marked the longest in franchise history by a Lions kicker on the road vs. Chicago. It also marked the first 50-yard field goal on the road vs. the Bears by a Lions kicker in the series that dates back to 1930. Almost one year to the exact date (November 2, 2008), Hanson repeated this feat when he hit another 52-yarder vs. the Bears.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. From 1933-94, the Green Bay Packers played select home games in Milwaukee (Mil).

SERIES NOTES

- The Packers and Lions have met on Thanksgiving Day 18 times, with the Lions holding an 11-6-1 advantage in those games. The Lions have played the Packers more times on Thanksgiving than any other team in the league.
- The Lions and Packers met 13 consecutive years on Thanksgiving Day from 1951-1963 with the Lions winning nine of those contests. 2003 was the Packers' first visit to Ford Field on Thanksgiving.
- Each team has recorded five shutouts of one another since the beginning of the series in 1934, but there has not been a shutout between the two teams since the Lions held the Packers to zero points in a 20-0 win on December 20, 1970.
- The 11 consecutive wins that the Lions posted against Green Bay from December 11, 1949 to November 25, 1954 are the most by the Lions against any franchise. The 11-game streak came after the Lions were 8-29-1 in the first 38 games of the series.
- Frank Sinkwich set a Lions' record by intercepting seven passes in a 27-6 loss to the Packers on October 24, 1943.
- These two franchises played in 127 regular season games in 60 years before meeting in the playoffs for the first time following the 1993 season and then again following the 1994 season.
- The Packers came to Ford Field for its regular season opener on September 22, 2002 and defeated the Lions 37-31.
- K Jason Hanson became the 16th player in NFL history to reach the 300-point mark when he kicked a 36-yard field goal against Green Bay December 12, 2004.
- The 17-3 Lions win in the 2005 season opener was the lowest point total in any game (including postseason) that then Packers QB Brett Favre had ever started.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions trail 31-66-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.
- With his opening kickoff return for a touchdown at Minnesota November 21, 2004, Eddie Drummond became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns. He became only the second player in NFL history to return two kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns in a single season, the other being Dante Hall (Kansas City) in 2003.
- The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.
- On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.
- Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for rushing touchdowns in a single game. His four touchdowns and 24-point performance also tied Lions' single-game marks.
- Scott Mitchell set a Lions' single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 410 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver trio of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38.
- In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 14-13 victory over the Vikings at the Metrodome when Scott Mitchell tossed a 1-yard pass to Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with 0:02 remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:56 remaining to play and with only one timeout.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's first regular season game, as well as its last, at the Pontiac Silverdome was played against Dallas. The Cowboys won the Monday Night contest 36-10 October 6, 1975 during the Silverdome's inaugural regular season game and the Lions won the finale 15-10 on January 6, 2002.
- The Lions have won eight of the last 14 regular season meetings with Dallas, in addition to Detroit's 38-6 win in the 1991 Divisional Playoff game.
- The Lions and Cowboys have squared off twice in postseason play, with each team claiming victory on its own turf. The first postseason contest occurred December 26, 1970 with Dallas posting a 5-0 shutout against Detroit.
- The Lions captured the victory in the second playoff contest when they defeated the Cowboys, 38-6, at the Silverdome January 5, 1992.
- Lions RB Barry Sanders set a Lions' record for carries in a game (40) in a Monday Night contest in Dallas September 19, 1994. The Lions won the game 20-17 in overtime.

NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions-Giants series is one of four series (Arz, Chi and GB) in franchise history dating back to 1930. The Lions hold a 20-19-1 lead in the series starting with a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the team was located in Portsmouth.
- Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests.
- The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.
- The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless 0-0 tie November 7, 1943 at New York.
- Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants December 15, 1935. It was the only postseason meeting between the franchises.
- In 2000, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium November 19. The first half was highlighted by two Charlie Batch touchdown passes and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since Bennie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout. The Lions also won seven of the first eight meetings.
- The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984, the only tie in Silverdome history.
- On September 26, 2004, the Eagles visited Detroit for the first time since 1984. With 135 yards, WR Roy Williams became the first Detroit rookie receiver to gain 100 receiving yards since 2000.
- In Detroit's last win over Philadelphia, the Lions' defense sacked Eagles QB Randall Cunningham 11 times to tie a club record in a 13-11 win November 6, 1986. Seven Lions' defenders recorded sacks, including 4.0 by Keith Ferguson and 2.5 by William Gay. A 72-yard scoring strike from Joe Ferguson-to-Jeff Chadwick in the first quarter turned out to be the game's only touchdown.
- In the Lions' first visit to Lincoln Financial Field (Sept. 23, 2007), QB Jon Kitna set a franchise record with 446 passing yards. Kitna connected with WR Roy Williams for a 91-yard TD, career highs for both players. With 204 receiving yards, Williams' career high was the third-highest tally by a receiver in Lions history.

^ NFC Championship Game; The Lions were located in Portsmouth from 1930-33. The Redskins were located in Boston from 1932-36.

SERIES NOTES

- The last time the Lions defeated the Redskins on the road was October 13, 1935, a 17-7 victory at Boston.
- Lions K Jason Hanson played in his 200th career game as a Lion when the Redskins visited Ford Field in 2004. Hanson's 200th game tied him for first on the Lions' all-time games played list with Wayne Walker (1958-72)..
- Detroit's 33-17 win over the Redskins December 5, 1999 at the Silverdome snapped a 16-game losing streak against Washington dating back to a 14-10 Lions' win at Tiger Stadium October 3, 1965.
- On September 27, 2009, Lions rookie QB Matthew Stafford threw for 241 yards and one TD and was 21-of-36 (58.3 pct.) with no interceptions for his first win as an NFL starting quarterback.
- QB Matthew Stafford connected with WR Calvin Johnson for 3 TDs and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh registered 2 sacks and a fumble return for a touchdown in the team's 37-25 win over Washington October 31, 2010 at Ford Field.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, amassing a 23-10 record. The initial meeting took place at Tiger Stadium September 25, 1966, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. The Lions are 14-4 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 8-3 in the Silverdome, 1-1 at Ford Field). Detroit has won 10 of the last 15 games in the series.
- The Lions and Falcons met in the regular season opener or closer seven times between 1985-94. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89, and met in the regular season opener again in 1997.
- Detroit was victorious 13-10 over the Falcons November 12, 2000 at the Pontiac Silverdome. The contest marked the first game and victory by Gary Moeller, who replaced Bobby Ross as head coach six days earlier.
- The Lions' 17-10 victory October 10, 2004, marked the first time the Lions won back-to-back road games since the 2000 season.
- The Lions winning-percentage against the Falcons (.697) is their highest among all NFC opponents and their second highest among all NFL opponents (Cleveland, .778).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss. The Panthers' made five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, and the Detroit defense forced two turnovers and yielded only three field goals.
- The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).
- The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 victory at Ericsson Stadium September 15, 2002.
- Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.
- LB Boss Bailey (34 yards) and S Kenoy Kennedy (64 yards) each returned interceptions back for touchdowns in the Lions last-minute 21-20 loss against Carolina at Ford Field October 16, 2005. The last time the Lions had two interceptions for touchdowns in a game was at Seattle October 24, 1976 when Levi Johnson and Lem Barney both returned interceptions for touchdowns.

Note: New Orleans split home games between San Antonio and Baton Rouge due to Hurricane Katrina.

SERIES NOTES

- In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home. .
- The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie November 24, 1968 in Detroit.
- The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 6-3-1 mark at home (1-1 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-3 record at home (5-2 in the Superdome).
- In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans kicker Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record October 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.
- The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.
- The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.
- K Jason Hanson nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in regulation that lifted the Lions to a 13-12 win over New Orleans in San Antonio. The final drive was set up by a Roy Williams 40-yard grab on 4th-and-17. Williams' four catches for 111 yards against the Saints, all in the fourth quarter.

SERIES NOTES

- In Detroit's 14-9 win at the Silverdome November 13, 1994, Barry Sanders rushed for a franchise-record 237 yards (then-sixth-highest single-game total in NFL history). Sanders gained a NFL record 200 yards in the second half.
- Sanders made history in Detroit's 27-9 win over the Buccaneers at Tampa Bay October 12, 1997. He became the first player in NFL history to record two 80-yard TD runs in the same game. He broke off an 80-yard scoring play late in the first quarter and added an 82-yard touchdown romp in the third quarter, finishing the day with 215 yards.
- The Lions ended a 26-game road losing streak December 29, 2010 when they claimed a 23-20 overtime win.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. The Arizona Cardinals were located in Chicago from 1920-59 and in St. Louis from 1960-87 before moving to Phoenix, Ariz., in 1988.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 15, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 31-24-5 advantage over the Cardinals.
- September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0.
- In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit has registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 5-6 mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix. Detroit currently has a three-game winning streak against the Cardinals.
- The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and New York Giants) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 at the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix December 12.
- Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a then franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago 10/9/88. The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland 9/28/86 and vs. Green Bay 10/25/87. The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota 11/23/95. And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota 11/23/95.
- Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. QB Joey Harrington threw for a career-high four touchdown passes in the game.
- In Detroit's 26-12 win over Arizona December 5, 2004, RB Kevin Jones ran for a career-high 196 yards on 26 carries, 105 of which came in the first half. It is the second-highest rushing total by a Lions rookie in team history, just one yard shy of Mel Farr's record of 197 yards on 24 carries at Minnesota (11/12/67).
- In the same 2004 contest, K Jason Hanson became the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 1,300-point plateau.
- In the most recent meeting at Ford Field (12/20/09), S Louis Delmas returned an interception 101 yards for a touchdown which was the longest by a NFL rookie since 1926 (Columbus RB Pete Barnum, 103t at Canton 9/26/26). It also ranks as the longest by a Lions rookie in team history and is tied for the second longest in franchise history.

Note: The Rams were located in Cleveland from 1937-45 and Los Angeles from 1946-94. The club relocated to St. Louis in 1995.

SERIES NOTES

- The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 42-38-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).
- Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 2-3 vs. the St. Louis Rams.
- The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.
- After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played.
- The Lions played the Rams November 7, 1999 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germane Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive.
- In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.
- In the Lions 44-6 win over St. Louis, October 10, 2010, KR Stefan Logan set a new team record with a 105-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. QB Shaun Hill connected on 3 touchdown passes, CB Alphonso Smith returned a 42-yard interception for a touchdown and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh registered his first career interception on a tipped pass (20-yard return).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions opened up a 20-0 lead and rolled to a 41-14 victory over the Seahawks in the first-ever meeting between the two teams October 24, 1976. Greg Landry threw three touchdown passes for the Lions, and Jim Zorn was intercepted six times, including two that were returned for touchdowns (Levi Johnson and Lem Barney). Zorn was the Lions quarterbacks coach from 1998-00.
- The Seahawks defeated the Lions 37-14 in the third and final game during the 1987 players' strike. In a game played predominantly by replacement players, Seattle QB Jeff Kemp passed for 344 yards and four touchdowns, while Hall of Famer Steve Largent caught 15 passes for 261 yards (both individual Silverdome records) and three scores.
- In the 1990 regular season finale played December 30, Barry Sanders rushed for 23 yards on nine carries to claim the NFL rushing title with 1,304 yards.
- The Lions' game with the Seahawks played October 17, 1993, a 30-10 Lions' win, was Detroit's 800th contest (including regular and post-season games) since the Portsmouth Spartans moved to the Motor City in 1934.
- In the 1999 regular season opener, the Lions built a 25-7 halftime lead and held on for a 28-20 victory over Seattle for the club's first season opening road win since 1986.
- The Lions and Seahawks met outside for the first time in 2003, the Lions first trip to Seahawks Stadium. Seattle was victorious, 35-14.

SERIES NOTES

- Aside from the NFL's recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the nine meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.
- Two of the nine games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 November 24, 1994.
- In the 1976 meeting, O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in pro football history as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough as the Lions prevailed 27-14.
- Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, is the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.
- The Lions and Bills have met each other in the preseason each year since 2002, and the two teams will once again face each other in the preseason Thursday, September 1 at Ralph Wilson Stadium. Overall, the teams have played 31 times in the preseason, with Detroit holding a 19-11-1 edge in the preseason series.

SERIES NOTES

- The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.
- The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, 1979 and 1994).
- Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).
- In their last trip to Miami in 2010, Detroit overcame a 27-17 fourth quarter deficit for a 34-27 victory, the Lions' first against the Dolphins in Miami. LB DeAndre Levy intercepted a pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown with 2:11 remaining to give Detroit the win.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Foxboro Stadium). Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard touchdown catch from Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yards for a score.
- The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. Willie Clay (who later joined the Patriots as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993.
- In the 1993 matchup, Detroit edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave the Lions their first 2-0 start since 1985, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets December 8, 1991.
- Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome December 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 yards rushing in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet. Unfortunately, Lions' LB Reggie Brown suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth quarter of the game.
- The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G Jeff Hartings.

SERIES NOTES

- The inaugural game between Detroit and Baltimore occurred December 27, 1998 at PSINet Stadium in Baltimore, with the Lions losing to the Ravens 19-10 in the '98 season finale.
- Detroit's first game with Baltimore ended up being RB Barry Sanders final game in his 10-year career. He rushed 19 times for 41 yards, finishing nine yards (1,491) shy of collecting his fifth-straight 1,500-yard rushing season.
- In the Lions 35-17 win over Baltimore at Ford Field October 9, 2005, Detroit's rushing attack was steller as the offfense registered four rushing touchdowns, the most ever yielded by the Ravens defense. Among the rushing touchdowns were two scores by RB Kevin Jones and a 77-yard dash by RB Shawn Bryson.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Bengals met every year in preseason from 1970-2001 and the rivalry was renewed in 2003. The two teams have played a total of 35 preseason games, with the Bengals holding a slight 18-17 series edge.
- In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3 September 27, 1970. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. Mel Farr led the Lions with 70 yards rushing on 13 carries.
- An eight-yard touchdown toss from Greg Landry to Charlie Sanders (now Lions' Assistant Director of Pro Personnel) with 29 seconds remaining in the game gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.
- In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, RB Barry Sanders passed Billy Sims to become Detroit's all-time leading rusher. He rushed 29 times for 151 yards and scored a touchdown as the Lions won 19-13.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hold a 14-4 (.777) series lead over the Browns, dating back to the clubs' initial meeting in 1952. Detroit owns an 9-1 record in games played in Detroit.
- Jason Hanson booted the longest field goal in franchise history against the Browns October 8, 1995. Hanson drilled a 56-yard effort on the last play of the first half.
- Lions QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions to a thrilling, come-from-behind 38-37 win over Cleveland (11/22) with one of the most remarkable performances by a rookie quarterback in NFL history. Stafford brought the team back from deficits three different times (21, 3 and 6 points) to either tie or take the lead. The win was Stafford's first career come-from-behind fourth-quarter win.

SERIES NOTES

- In the first meeting, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 426 yards rushing. Ernie Caddell scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit.
- The Lions won the first four games of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests.
- In 1952, Bob Hoernschmeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. The Detroit defense held Pittsburgh to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win in Pittsburgh.
- Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers November 24, 1983 stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the team's Thanksgiving Day series (second-largest in team history).
- The Lions defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in the second Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 26, 1998) matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving OT contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a TD despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period.

SERIES NOTES

- In the teams' only matchup at Ford Field, September 19, 2004, Detroit topped the Texans 28-16.
- In that series opener, WR Eddie Drummond returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his longest career return and his first career kickoff return touchdown.
- Drummond's kickoff return was the eighth longest in team history and the longest since Terry Fair returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay 9/28/98.
- In the Lions first trip to Houton's Reliant Stadium on November 19, 2008, WR Calvin Johnson caught two passes for 154 yards, including a career long of 96 yards. With 154 yards on two receptions against the Texans, Johnson's receiving yards were the third-most for a player with 2-or-fewer receptions in a single game in NFL history.
- In that same game, K Jason Hanson hit two field goals of 54-yards at Houston which were his 36th and 37th career field goals of 50+-yards. It was the third time in Hanson's career he hit two-or-more field goals of 50+-yards in a game.

SERIES NOTES

- The clubs have met just six times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis in 1984.
- On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard TD pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassady with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.
- In the 1997 meeting, a 32-10 Lions win at the Silverdome, Jason Hanson became the franchise's first kicker to convert two 50-yard field goals (52, 55) in a game. Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career.
- In Detroit's first visit to Indianapolis' Lucal Oil Stadium, December 14, 2008, K Jason Hanson connected on a 51-yard field goal. his 51-yarder set a new NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a career (41) and it tied Morten Andersen's NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a season (8). Hanson is the first player in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard field goals in a single season.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's 44-0 win over the Jaguars December 17, 1995 represents the largest victory margin in Lions' history and was the largest in the NFL in 1995. The game also marked the inaugural contest in the series between the Lions and the Jaguars.
- Lions KR Eddie Drummond had one of the finest performances by a returner in NFL history that ultimately forced the Lions' game at Jacksonville into overtime November 14, 2004. Drummond became the first player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the fourth quarter and the 11th (14th time) to return two punts for a touchdowns in a single game.
- Drummond's six punt returns against the Jaguars (11/14/04) for 199 yards (33.2 avg) is the third-best single-game total in NFL history and set a new Lions' franchise record for punt return yards in a game.
- His two punt returns for touchdowns (55 and 83 yards) at Jacksonville (11/14) marked the third time in Lions' history that a player recorded two punt return touchdowns in a game. Jack Christiansen accomplished the feat twice in 1951 (2 vs LA 10/14/51 and 2 vs. GB 11/22/51).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Titans have hooked up 10 times in the regular season with Tennessee holding a 7-3 lead. The Lions were 2-3 in Houston and 1-1 in the Pontiac Silverdome.
- The teams first met October 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away with a 31-7 win.
- The Titans have won six of the last eight contests.
- The Titans, then the Oilers, put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind 24-21 win November 26 over the Lions in the Silverdome. Lorenzo White's 8-yard touchdown scamper with 1:17 remaining sealed the Titans' victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.
- On December 10, 1995, QB Scott Mitchell set the Lions' all-time record for touchdown passes in a season. Bobby Layne had previously owned the record (26 in 1951). Mitchell completed the '95 season with 32 touchdown passes.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit posted a 24-20 win November 7, 1971 in the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry-to-Earl McCullough 76-yard bomb which gave the Lions the lead.
- Denver's 31-27 win in 1974 was the last Thanksgiving Day game played in Tiger Stadium, with the Lions moving into the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.
- In 1999, the Lions hosted the Broncos on another holiday, Christmas Day, with the Broncos claiming a 17-7 victory at the Silverdome.
- In Denver's first regular season trip to Ford Field November 4, 2007, the Lions crushed the Broncos 44-7, which marked the largest margin of victory, 37 points, by the Lions since they shutout the Jacksonville Jaguars 44-0 December 17, 1995.The 44 points were also the most by the team since they put up 55 points vs. Chicago November 27, 1997. The 37-point difference by Denver was the largest margin in a loss by the Broncos since the team lost at New Orleans 42-0 November 20, 1988.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions are 2-2 in home games (1-0 at Ford Field) against the Chiefs and 2-5 in games played in Kansas City.
- In the inaugural meeting—the 1971 Thanksgiving Day classic—Errol Mann contributed three field goals while Greg Landry threw touchdown passes to Charlie Sanders and Earl McCullouch in a 32-21 Lions' win. RB Ed Podolak scored all three touchdowns for the Chiefs.
- In the teams' first regular season meeting at the Silverdome, Detroit dominated defensively and claimed a 27-10 Thanksgiving Day win in 1981. The Lions held the Chiefs' top-ranked rushing attack to just 116 yards, and registered five sacks.
- The Lions hold a 6-4 preseason edge in the series against the Chiefs, and have won five of the last six preseason matchups. The two teams met August 23, 1975 in an exhibition affair that kicked off the opening of the Pontiac Silverdome. Detroit won the contest 27-24.
- Kansas City made their first trip to Ford Field December 23, 2007, with the Lions claiming a 25-20 victory.

Note: The Raiders were located in Oakland from 1960-81 and Los Angeles from 1982-94. The club returned to Oakland in 1995.

SERIES NOTES

- In the teams' first meeting, the Lions defeated Oakland 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 26, 1970). The win was the second of five straight wins by the Lions that propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit.
- The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Raiders 16-0 September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years, as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while Dexter Bussey passed Altie Taylor as the club's all-time leading rusher.
- In a Monday Night meeting December 10, 1990, there were five Heisman Trophy winners on the field (Det: Barry Sanders and Andre Ware, Oak: Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson). Sanders finished the game with 176 yards rushing, while Jackson led the Raiders with 129 yards on the ground.
- The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.
- Detroit opened the 2007 season on the road at Oakland and came away with 36-21 victory. DE Dewayne White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week 1 as the defensive end was a force in the fourth quarter when Detroit scored 16 unanswered points in the final 10:45 to come away with the victory. After the Lions took a 26-21 lead in the fourth quarter, White intercepted a pass on the ensuing Raiders drive and returned it 28 yards to set up a field goal to increase Detroit's lead to eight. On the first play of the next Oakland possession, White recorded a sack-fumble that was recovered by the Lions. The play helped set up a touchdown to seal the win.
- QB Jon Kitna's 289 yards in 2007 at Oakland were the second-most passing yards by a Lions QB on opening day, behind only Bobby Layne's 364 yards September 27, 1953 against Pittsburgh.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions won each of the first three meetings between the two teams (all home games), but have dropped the six most-recent contests.
- Detroit recorded a 34-20 victory over the Chargers in the first meeting of the series October 22, 1972. Mel Farr ran for two touchdowns and gained 96 yards on 22 carries, helping the Lions rack up 182 yards on the ground for the game. Greg Landry also rushed for a touchdown and added 151 yards passing with a touchdown strike going to Larry Walton, who finished with seven catches for 101 yards.
- Detroit fell to the Chargers, 27-24, September 20, 1984 at Jack Murphy Stadium. Billy Sims ran for two touchdowns and 119 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown scamper. Detroit QB Gary Danielson matched Hall of Famer Dan Fouts every step of the way, completing 20-of-25 attempts for 269 yards, while Fouts was 22-of-35 for 268 yards. The Chargers forged to a 24-7 halftime lead, but Detroit scored two third quarter touchdowns to narrow the gap to 24-21.

HISTORY BOOK

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was, at one time, the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight

LIONS TALES

GRIDIRON HEROES...

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes–The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions." The sound of "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs today, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game.
Dashing to victory as they go.
(Chorus) Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain, A Lion victory!

full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform now features black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

On November 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and defensive coordinator Dick Jauron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform -- the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 18 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms -- and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver", the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksgiving Tradition.

With 77 years now in the rear-view mirror, Detroit is surging ahead in a new era of Lions football. In 2009, for the first time in team history, the team entered the season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired January 16, 2009. Together, they have been the driving force for the team's success on and off the field. In that same year, the Lions introduced a new logo and new brand, along with new team uniforms that features the first significant change to the Lions logo since it was introduced in 1961.

In 2011, the franchise is led by ownership determined to deliver a winning team to the fans of Detroit, and the Lions are moving forward in this endeavor with strong leadership and a resolve to build a winner.

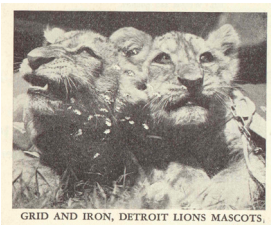
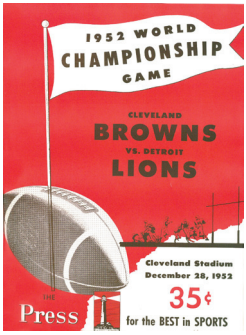
NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the league to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two Lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games. The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.



GRID AND IRON, DETROIT LIONS MASCOTS.



Only a handful of great teams over the years in the NFL can claim the title of dynasty. One of those great teams was the Detroit Lions in the 1950s when the franchise captured world championships three times in a six-year span. Winning three championships in six years has occurred only nine times by eight different teams in the history of the NFL. Detroit won back-to-back titles in 1952 and 1953 and became the third team since the beginning of NFL Championship games in 1933 to win championships in consecutive years. Overall since '33, back-to-back titles has occurred just 15 times. Including 1954, the Lions appeared in the NFL title game four times in a six-year period. Above are images of the game program covers from the team's championship seasons in the 1950s.

Dec. 17, 1995 Receivers Herman Moore and Brett Perriman set NFL record for most catches and receiving yards by teammates in a season.

Dec. 23, 1995 Herman Moore sets NFL record with 123 catches in a season.

Dec. 30, 1995 The Lions play in their third straight wild card playoff game, losing 58-37 at Philadelphia.

July 27, 1996 Former lineman Lou Creekmur is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Jan. 13, 1997 Bobby Ross named head coach.

Dec. 21, 1997 Barry Sanders becomes only the third player in league history to rush for over 2,000 yards in a season. He rushes for 184 yards in the final game to push his season total to 2,053 yards, the second-highest seasonal tally in NFL history.

Dec. 28, 1997 The Lions play their fourth playoff game in five years, losing a wild card outing at Tampa Bay, 20-10.

Dec. 20, 1998 Herman Moore becomes the fastest player in NFL history to record 600 career receptions.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous feast.

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans -- except Detroiters.

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, but with a new twist that began in 1934.

Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 77 years later, fans throughout the State of Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

The game was the brainchild of Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the club from Portsmouth, Ohio to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact the Lions had lost only one game prior to Thanksgiving in 1934, the season's largest crowd had been just 15,000.

The opponent that day in 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears of George Halas. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations) and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into the University of Detroit Stadium while thousands more disappointed fans were turned away.

In 2009, the Lions Thanksgiving Day game against Green Bay marked the NFL's 75th anniversary of the first NFL national game broadcast. Graham McNamee was the announcer for NBC Radio for that historic game in 1934.

Despite two Ace Gutowsky touchdowns, the Bears won the inaugural game 19-16, but a classic was born. Since 1934, 71 games have been played with the Lions holding a 33-36-2 (.478) record in the series. And each game, in its own way, continues to bring back memories of Thanksgiving, not only to Lions fans, but to football fans across the nation.

The Detroit Lions 72nd Thanksgiving Day Classic will feature the Lions hosting the Green Bay Packers Thursday, November 24. This year, the Lions will host the Green Bay Packers for the 20th time in the annual Turkey Day tilt. The Lions have played Green Bay more than any other opponent in the Thanksgiving Day series.

For 13 consecutive years from 1951-63, the Lions and Packers met on Thanksgiving, with the Lions claiming a 9-3-1 record during that span. The Lions-Packers turkey day tilt marks the fifth time since 2001 that the two teams will play in Detroit on Thanksgiving and the fourth at Ford Field.

THANKSGIVING DAY FACTS

- The series began with a 19-16 loss to the Chicago Bears on November 29, 1934.
- A total of 71 games have been played with the Lions owning a 33-36-2 record in the annual holiday classic.
- More than 3.9 million fans have witnessed the Lions' 71 Thanksgiving Day games. The total attendance for the first 71 games is 3,982,992, an average of 56,098 fans per Thanksgiving game.
- The Lions have played 23 different teams since the first Thanksgiving Day game. The most common opponent has been the Green Bay Packers, who the Lions played in 2009 for the 19th time in the Thanksgiving series. Their second most common opponent is the Chicago Bears (15 times).
- In 2011, the Lions will once again face the Green Bay Packers, which will mark the 20th time in the history of the holiday classic that these two division rivals will meet. The Lions hold an 11-7-1 (.611) edge in the series.
- The two highest scoring games were a 44-40 Packers' win in 1986 and a 52-35 Detroit romp over Green Bay in 1951.
- The lowest scoring game was a 12-0 Philadelphia win in the 1968 "Mud Bowl."
- Ten games in the Thanksgiving Day series has a game been decided by three points or less, with the Lions' record standing at 4-4-2 in those meetings.
- The most lopsided game was a 45-3 Lions win over Pittsburgh in 1983.
- Seven shutouts have been recorded, but only one by the Lions (20-0 over the Bears in 1979).
- Two Thanksgiving Day games have gone into overtime. The first came in 1980 when the Bears' David Williams returned the opening kickoff of OT for a 95-yard touchdown. At the time, the game marked the shortest overtime game in NFL history (21 seconds). The most recent overtime game occurred in 1998 when the Lions defeated the Steelers 19-16 on a 42-yard Jason Hanson field goal in a game that will be remembered for the controversial coin toss before overtime began.

Note: Prior to 1972, a team's winning pct. was calculated using wins and losses, disregarding ties. (Ex: Detroit's record in the 1960s was 2-6-2 and their winning pct. was .250, two wins/ two wins + six losses). Since 1972, ties have been calculated in winning pct. as a half-a-win.

DETROIT LIONS UNIFORM HISTORY

1934-1947: The first uniform donned by the Detroit Lions included a blue jersey with gleaming silver numerals, silver pants and a silver helmet. The shoes were black. The shade of blue used for the jersey became known as 'Honolulu' blue.

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors

- The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.
- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.
- The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

- They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On October 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

- During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves–giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

- For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

- The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between to thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.
- 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

- 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.
- 1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

- 1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.
- 1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.
- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

- The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game at Ford Field September 22, 2002 against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.

The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games.

LIONS COMPREHENSIVE BRAND

On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that includes a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field. The classic Honolulu blue, white and black colors remain unchanged.

HOME HONOLULU BLUE JERSEYS

- Numerals were customized specifically for the Lions uniform. They are Honolulu Blue, trimmed in silver and black.
- Above the new numerals is the new Lions logotype.
- On the collar, there are three trim lines of equal width, with two black trim lines outside a silver trim line.
- The sleeves are a new knit sleeve that features a wide silver trim, inside two smaller white trims and those all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim. The new material is improved and more flexible for players. The trim is part of the knit-sleeve material, which was changed from the previous silk-screened sleeve.
- Numerals remain on the shoulders but are now in the customized Lions jersey numerals.
- Players' nameplates on the back of the uniform have slightly modified block letters from the previous block letter names on the back of the uniform.

ROAD WHITE JERSEYS

- The road jerseys are the traditional "road whites," with blue numerals trimmed in silver and black.
- On the road jerseys, the collar is in the same black and silver trim pattern as the home uniforms.
- Sleeves are of the same new knit-sleeve material that are on the new home uniforms. The trim on the sleeves includes a wide Honolulu blue trim, inside two smaller silver trims and those are all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim.

HELMET

- The helmet now features the new logo on each side. It is the most significant change since the Lions logo was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961.
- The facemasks will remain black, but the new Lions logotype will be included on the front and the back of the helmet.
- At the top middle of the helmet, the striping pattern has been modified. Instead of a thick white stripe, two Honolulu blue stripes and a very thin black accent stripe, the helmet striping pattern is now a 5/8-inch Honolulu blue stripe, two 3/16-inch white stripes and two 3/16-inch black stripes. The striping pattern is the same striping pattern as the team's game pants.

PANTS AND GAME SOCKS

- The game pants will remain in the team's traditional silver. Like the striping pattern on the helmet, the pants vertical trim on the side of the legs are now a thick Honolulu blue stripe inside smaller white stripes, which are all inside black stripes that are the same width as the white stripes.
- The game socks, which are the same for the home and road uniforms, now have a 5/8-inch black stripe on the calf midline. The top half is Honolulu blue and the bottom half is white.

FORD FIELD

Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions, is one of the premiere sports and entertainment stadiums in the world, and that fact has been proven over and over again the past few years with such high-profile international events like Super Bowl XL.

Every event at Ford Field impacts the city of Detroit beyond the event itself inside the stadium. For example, by hosting the Super Bowl in Detroit, Ford Field stood as the centerpiece to an over $260 million economic impact on Metro Detroit.

And none of that would have been made possible without the vision and investment made by Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford and the Ford family to not only construct a fine football stadium but an unrivaled sports and entertainment venue.

HOME FOR FOOTBALL

2011 FALL FOOTBALL EVENTS

- 10 Lions home games, including the first Monday Night Football Game in the city of Detroit since 1974 and the Lions 72nd Thanksgiving Day Classic
- 15th annual Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl
- MAC Football Championship:
- MHSAA High School State Championship
- Detroit Public School Championship
- High School Catholic League Championship
- Annual Detroit PAL Football Championships

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparkled as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations.

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights in 2009 year as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

The 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the city of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to the championship at Ford Field was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the National Semifinals. In the National Championship, North Carolina ousted Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off on a record note as Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered as well. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans attending both games, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,378 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Although the primary focus of Final Four weekend was on the student athletes, the festivities surrounding the event livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which include a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

2008 MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time as well, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin,73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single Regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans World Dome in 1999.

NCAA HOCKEY

In 2010 Ford Field elevated collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosted the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which was the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, proved the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before.

For both the National Semifinals and National Championship, the crowds that gathered set new NCAA records and new world records for an indoor hockey game. Overall, approximately 19,000 fans experienced the Frozen Four weekend than ever before. The first night of the Frozen Four, the National Semifinals, commenced as Ford field established a new attendance record of 34,954. Wisconsin defeated Rochester Institute of Technology 8-1 and Boston College upended Miami 7-1. In the National Championship game, Boston College claimed the NCAA title by shutting out Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 37,592. In total, 72,546 fans watched the Frozen Four at Ford Field.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 64,500-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2003 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field warmed-up for that championship event by hosting one of the four Men's Basketball Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA returned in 2010 as Ford Field hosted the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Besides events like the NCAA Final Four, Midwest Regionals and Frozen Four, Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the Monster Jam monster truck series for the past three years and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact will continue to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, tradeshows and concerts.

FEATURES

Ford Field is nestled at the intersection of I-75 and I-375 in downtown Detroit. The 40-foot glass wall entrance is located at the corner of Adams and Brush Street. Brush Street runs between Ford Field and Comerica Park, home of the Detroit Tigers. St. Antoine Street runs on the east side of the stadium and Beacon St. borders Ford Field on the south side.

LUXURY SUITES

The luxury suite options are like no other in the sports industry. Ford Field incorporates 132 luxury suites, including 115 in the warehouse and 17 on the north side of the stadium. The 115 suites in the warehouse are located on four different levels.

The inspired design that integrates luxury suites into the historic Hudson's warehouse affords each suite holder significant opportunities, including optimum views, easy access and customized floor plans. By eliminating end zone suites, Ford Field luxury suites offer goal-line-to-goal-line, corner-to-corner views of every play. Since suites are centrally located, access is simple and direct, and creative use of warehouse space provides flexibility to create a wide selection of suite shapes and sizes.

Suites can accommodate from eight to 30 people, which allows for a wider variety of suites than any other football stadium.

Suite holders receive amenity packages consisting of tickets for all Lions' home games, tickets for most non-Lions events, first option on additional tickets to non-Lions events, VIP parking, private entrance, private concourse, private bathroom access, premium catering, in-suite televisions to view additional NFL action, full concierge service and day use of suite (during normal business hours).

CLUB SEATS

There are 8,700 club seats at Ford Field. 4,300 club seats are located on the north side, and 4,400 are located on the club level that is adjoined to the warehouse. Club seats at Ford Field represent the ultimate in club experience with an unrivaled game day opportunity.

Club seat ticket holders have access to four exclusive clubs in the stadium with expanded food selection of upscale cuisine.

Amenities include: wide, leather padded seats (manufactured by Visteon) with cupholders, elevator and escalator services from main entrances, two private entrances, climate controlled atmosphere, televisions and video walls in club lounges, club level concierge service, exclusive Lions merchandise store, opportunities to purchase tickets to other Ford Field events and opportunities for year-round use of club lounges for business meetings and social functions.

LIONS PRO SHOP

The Detroit Lions' official merchandise store, Lions Pro Shop, is located inside Ford Field on the Adams St. Concourse. The team store is open for business Monday-Friday from 10:30 a.m.-3 p.m. and during select events.

PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premier was held Thursday, Oct. 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

- The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.
- The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in Sept.. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s. The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

IN MEMORIAM

Several members of the Detroit Lions served in World War II and made the ultimate sacrifice for their country in the fight against fascism.

- Lt. Charles Behan was killed by Japanese machine gun fire on Okinawa, May 18, 1945.
- Sgt. Alex Ketzko was killed in France with Patch's Seventh Army, Dec. 23, 1944.
- Lt. Chet Wetterlund was killed flying a Navy Hellcat on night patrol along the New Jersey coast, Sept. 5, 1944.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five players on the Lions' All-Time Team played college football in the Lone Star State, including : QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A&M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Layne, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Joining those stars on the franchise's All-Time Team are Texas prepsters CB Dick "Night Train" Lane (Austin), who is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and RB Billy Sims (Hooks). Layne, Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pride of the Lions charter class.

In fact, those roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were friends as children. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

That connection has been revisited with the Lions drafting QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker. He was joined in the first round of 2009 NFL Draft by another Texas prep star when the Lions drafted TE Brandon Pettigrew who is from Tyler, Texas.

- Texas Tech: C Dylan Gandy (Harlingen)
- Texas A&M: LS Don Muhlbach (Lufkin)
- Others Texas prepsters: T Jason Fox (Fort Worth), CB Chris Houston (Austin), TE Brandon Pettigrew (Tyler), QB Matthew Stafford (Highland Park)

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit. The Lions now operate primarily from their new headquarters in Allen Park, and some portions of the organization are housed in the warehouse portion of Ford Field.
